GAMEY AND STRATTON.

The report of the Royal Commissioners, Chief Justice Falconbridge and Chancellor Boyd, was handed to the Legislature last Thursday. The report clears the reputation of Mr. Stratton, the Provincial Secretary, and throws discredit on Mr. Gamey, his accuser. Where the money came from has not been disclosed, but it was said that Mr. Gamey's statement as to the source of some of it would have been more credible if the Crossin Piano Co.'s books had not been mutilated. With regard to the charge of conspiracy, the commissioners gave it as their opinion that, as a matter of law, there was no evidence to sustain it as regards the members of the Government and the other persons charged. Said the judges, "In our opinion the corrupt charges against the Provincial Secretary stand disproved by a great body of evidence which appears to be more accurate and credible than that adduced in support thereof."

Had Mr. Gamey's statement in the House been believed the result of the investigation would have been different. It lacked corroboration, however, and the actions of the member for Manitoulin in tampering with the bank deposit slips, his flight to Buffalo, and his contradictions, were enough to discredit any man.

Party men will doubtless continue to express their feelings on this long-talked-of case. A careful perusal of the judges' report, however, will satisfy fair minded people that the commissioners could not come to any other conclusion. Every opportunity was given Mr. Gamey and the prosecution to make good their case, and there is reason to believe the eminent judges were perfectly impartial. The scope of the investigation was unrestricted, and every tittle of evidence at all relevant to the case was allowed. The report will probably be discussed in the Legislature the latter part of the week.

TOO SWEEPING.

Rev. Dr. Carman's remarks at the opening of the Toronto Conference last Thursday, in which he refers to the evil in Provincial politics, scarcely does credit to the venerable Superintendent. Dr. Carman stated that in His opinion the legislators, both Grit and Tory, "should be provided with a liberal supply of food and the lot quarantined in the legislative buildings, with a strong cordon of police to watch them, and further that no healthy person should be permitted to approach within half a mile of the place. Then let them jeer at one another and cry 'You're another.'"

The statements are far too sweeping, and they lack discrimination. The insinuations are made against the 92 members of the House without exception. It would be a good thing if our politics were purified, but they never will be by general charges. It is true there are occasional scenes enacted in the Legislature that do not reflect credit on the dignity of the members, but exhibitions little less disgraceful are not unknown in ministerial conferences. If Dr. Carman feels inclined to denounce Hon. G. W. Ross, Mr. J. P. Whitney, Hon. E. J. Davis, Mr. J. W. St. John and others for their past acts let him do so, but surely he will admit there are some good men in the House.

Readers of the Mail and Empire have reason to say that that paper considers Chief Justice Falconbridge a mere figurehead in the Gamey inquiry. On Friday that paper had a three column article on its first page headed "Chancellor Boyd's Remarkable Decision," alleging the report to be unjust to Mr. Gamey, and never once referring to Judge Falconbridge as having any part in it, although it was signed by both commissioners. We thought that Chief Justice Falconbridge was looked upon not only as a man of honor but a man of brains.

The World claims that the Judges have whitewashed Mr. Stratton.

Friday's papers reported the Royal Commissioners' finding in the Gamey case but no extra copies of The Mail or World were sent out.

Should a banquet in Toronto Junction be given just now in honor of Mr. J. W. St. John, one member of the quartette so prominent at the recent banquet would in all probability be absent. The jolly member, Mr. A. R. Fawcett and Mr. R. O. Harvey would likely be in their places, but the seat of "the hero of the hour," the missing member from Manitoulin, would doubtless be vacant.
