A WARNING.

The Fruit Division of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, issues the following warning to fruit growers:—It is to be feared that the wet weather at present prevailing will lead a good many orchardists to neglect spraying. Last year the summer and autumn were wet, and many growers of fruit failed to give their orchards more than two or three sprayings. As Mr. McKimmon points out, the cool, moist weather is peculiarly favorable to the development of fungous growths, and it is only by seizing every opportunity and spraying whenever a day or two of dry weather comes along that sound, clean fruit can be secured. Wet weather should be an incentive to greater diligence in spraying, rather than an excuse for not spraying. Eternal vigilance is the price of safety in fruit growing, and it behoves everyone who desires a full crop of first-class fruit to spray early and often.

There is also danger that on account of the wet weather, orchards will not receive their usual cultivation, which is urgently needed to destroy weeds, aerate the soil, and conserve soil moisture for future use. If the ground is not stirred it bakes, cracks open, and evaporation goes on rapidly. By stirring the soil by frequent cultivation, thus keeping a loose mulch on the surface, capillarity is broken up and moisture retained. As soon as it is possible, therefore, to get on the ground after a rain, the cultivator should be started in the orchard and kept going as steadily as time and weather will permit.

The Mail and Empire of Monday says that "Mr. Stratton and the Ministers voted themselves blameless." Everybody knew that they would, and that was why the inquiry was placed in the hands of men who are supposed to be removed from politics. But the Mail argues that Mr. Stratton and the six other ministers should have stepped aside when the vote was taken in the House. If this course were followed any Government could be defeated, no matter how strong. All that would be necessary would be to lay a charge against a sufficient number of Government supporters, ask them to step aside and vote them out.

The late Sir John Macdonald appointed both Chancellor Boyd and Chief Justice Falconbridge to their present high positions. Hon. J. P. Whitney, Mr. Gage and other Conservatives in the House, as well as a portion of the Conservative press, now take a delight in accusing the judges of being false to their trust. That is one way of paying tribute to the memory of the late leader of the Conservative party.

The World of Monday has a full column article on the Gage-Stratton case, and says editorially: "The judges have been dragged into the conflict, and public confidence in the judiciary is seriously impaired."

At most it is only the Conservatives who have lost confidence in the judiciary, and all we can say is—so much the worse for the Conservative party.

Mr. Whitney stated on the floor of the House that Sir John Boyd was improperly influenced in the Gage inquiry by the fact that he had sons in the employ of the Government. Such intimations are an insult to the Canadian judiciary, and it is unfortunate that they should be made.
