About theHouse

THINGS GOOD TO EAT.

quarter inch. Cut into three or one-half cup of powdered sugar and comfortable. four-inch squares and dip one side one teaspoon of vanilla flavoring. A treatment highly recommended in melted butter. Line a pan with Pour the cream into the cake-lined by a scientific magazine for poisonthe bread, having the pieces lap all dish and lay over the top a few ing from ivy is to wet a slice of round and put the buttered side macaroons. This is the simplest bread with water, dust it with comnext to the pan. Fare a riozen way to make a charlotte russe, and mon washing soda and apply to peaches and cut in halves. Dissolve is much easier than lining a mould. eruption, keeping the bread wet from one and one-half cups of sugar in A glass dish if one can be found of the outside. Half an hour of this three-quarters cup of water and cook | the right shape, is best for the char- | treatment is said to be a sure cure. five minutes to make a syrup. Cook lotte made in this way. the peach halves in this syrup and | Chocolate Custard.-Melt two cool without breaking. Add one squares of chocolate in a saucepan teaspoon of arrowroot dissolved in with one-half cup of sugar and two a little cold water and cook a few tablespoons of hot water. Beat minutes, turn half over the peaches four eggs well, add four cups of milk which have been put inside of the and the prepared chocolate. Four lined pan and fit a cover of thin into buttered cups and set them in bread for the top. Bake half an a pan of hot water in a moderate ERNEST GRANT TOOK DODD'S hour, turn on a plate and pour the oven. Serve ice cold remaining syrup round it.

Stuffed Sweet Peppers .- Cut the stem end from four green sweet peppers and take out the seeds. Cover with boiling water and simmer twenty minutes. Drain and fill with a stuffing made as follows: Mix one, half cup of cold cooked chicken or veal chopped fine with one-half cup for several years with entire satisof bread-crumbs, one-half tablespoon of fine chopped parsley, one-quarter level teaspoon of salt, a speck pepper and two tablespoons melted butter. Set the stuffed peppers in a baking pan and bake twen- any grade of woolens can be cleansty minutes.

Baked Bananas.-Select large bananas and strip off one section of the skin. Set in rows in a baking dish and loosen the skin a little at each side of the uncovered portion. Sprinkle with a few drops of lemon juice and with sugar. Bake about half an hour in a moderate oven.

Snow Balls .- Beat the yolks of three eggs light, then add gradually one cup of sugar and beat. Add two tablespoons of milk, one cup of flour in which two level teaspoons of baking powder are sifted. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Butter cups and fill twothirds full with the batter; steam twenty minutes. Turn on to a plate of powdered sugar, roll until coated with the sugar and serve with a liquid sauce.

Raspberry Sponge.-Crush one quart of raspberries, add one-half half cup of sugar and one and onehalf cups of water for twenty minutes Soak one-half box of gelatine in onehalf-cup of cold water. Rub the sweetened berries through a fine strainer or sieve. Add the soaked gelatine to the boiling syrup and stir until all seems to be dissolved. Turn i nto a cold bowl, add the berry and lemon juice then stir or beat until it begins to thicken. Add the stiffy beaten whites of four eggs and continue beating. When it seems firm enough to mold pour into small molds, or one large, and fold neatly. set on ice. Serve with cream and powdered sugar.

Fig Layer Cake.-Cream one cup of butter, add one and one-half cups Then add the yolks of three eggs precaution, but there is no excuse human suffering—the futility of it did not arrive? We colored vanilla, Stir in one-half cup of milk and three cups of flour sifted needed properly to pull a blanket erence which comes from living too the tale overheard. We heard with four level teaspoons of baking into shape. Be careful not to close to the world of pain. The appowder. Bake in layer cake tins in stretch it when hanging over the plication for aid had said that a a moderate oven. Chop fine one cup of figs and stir into a boiled icing, then spread between the cakes. Ing. Cover the top with plain boiled ic-

Small Brown Bread Loaves .- Mix and sift one cup each of corn meal, graham white flour, molasses and milk and a level teaspoon each of salt and soda. Beat vigorously and white of an egg in a wineglass of turn into pound baking powder tins cold water directly after meals. on a trivet in a kettle and fill half relieve corns and bunions.

continuously for one and one-half the shoes on. hours. Replenish water with more | Mucilage has been found to be an that is boiling.

flour and broil. Serve well butter- the air. ed on a hot dish. This is a good For a stiff neck, pains in the chest dish for breakfast.

WASHING WOOLENS.

After trying any number of different ways of washing woolens, in an effort to find one that would cleanse without shrinking them, the one here recommended has been used faction; and as two members of our family wear all-wool underwear the entire year, it has certainly been given a thorough trial. By adhering to the simple rules here given, ed without shrinking but the rules are positively inviolable.

Provide a generous allowance of hot soft water, white castile, ivory or other pure soap, and borax. Have on no consideration put soap on the help me. soiled article itself. Have the water as hot as the hands can bear failed until I used Dodd's Kidney comfortably, and allow one level tea- Pills. When I had taken four boxes, spoonful of borax for every gallon I was able to go to bed and take of water; immerse the clothes and my rest, my Backache left me and I allow them to stand ten or fifteen was cured. It has never come back. minutes before washing; then work | When Dodd's Kidney Pills cure, the them up and down, squeeze, and if disease never comes back. They renecessary rub with the hands, but move the cause. never on a washboard.

The water must be squeezed, not twisted out, consequently a wringer is better than the hands. Rinse through two waters, using a little less borax and no soap, but allowcup of sugar. Cook together one- ing the clothes to lie ten minutes in each, working, them up and down and squeezing.

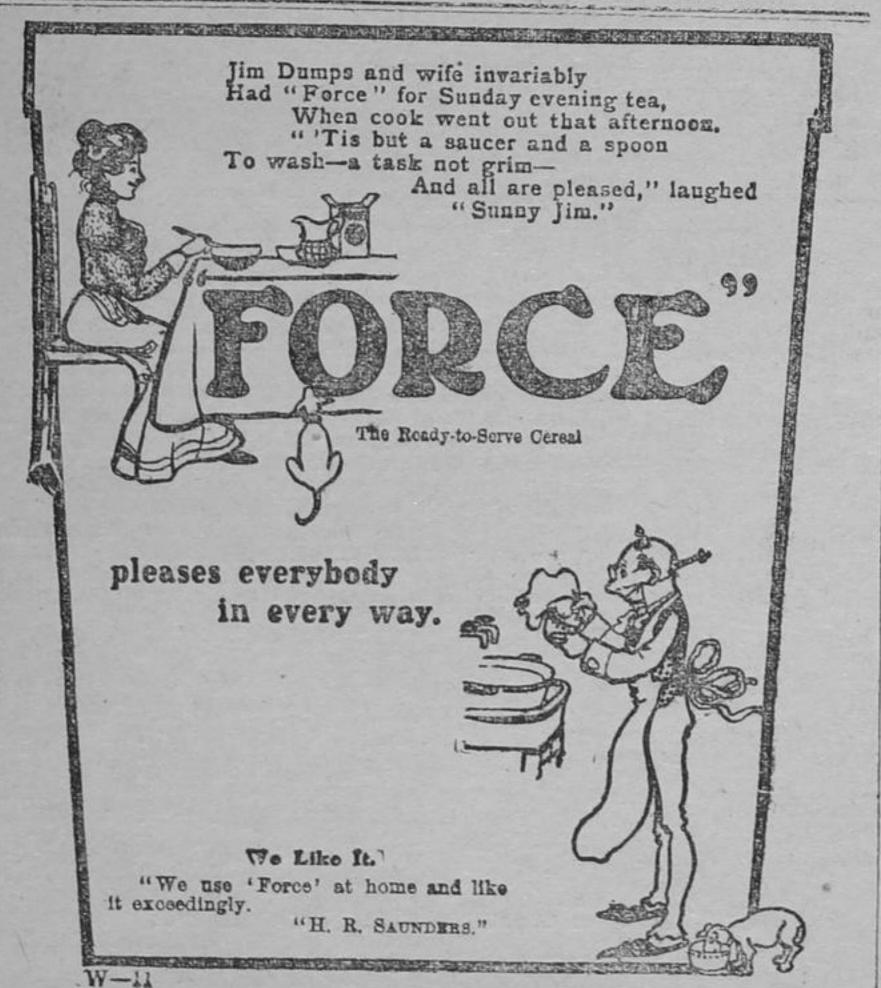

After wringing, pull into shape Mother Love Changes Her Opinion and dry as quickly as possible, pulling out at least twice during the process of drying. Woolens must never be hung in a hot sun, nor out of doors in freezing weather. In winter, we dry ours on clothes-bars, standing the latter over a furnace register or near the kitchen range. To my thinking, woolens have a fresher, sweeter odor without ironing. Smooth with the hands and Never put woolen blankets in the general wash. Choose a dull, windy day if possible, and wash as above. The colored borders of blankets will east wind is blowing. Her own dis- would become of us the next day if their shrinking. Two persons are the case before her with that indiffline, and to bull into shape occa- young woman was dying, destitute, sionally during the process of dry- leaving a little child a few months

THE HOME DOCTOR.

Brown sugar stops the bleeding of a fresh wound. For indigestion try the beaten that have been greased. Put on A mixture of equal parts of sweet covers that fit well. Set the tins oil and tincture of iodine is said to full of boiling water. Cover the Headache, toothache, backache or kettle with a pan that fits closely most any joint ache will be relieved and set where the water will boil by heating the feet thoroughly with excellent remedy for burns. Apply Broiled Tomatoes.-Select large it to the burn and lay on any soft | One Landlord Guilty of Murdering firm tomatoes, cut in thick slices, blank paper. The mucilage soothes dip into melted butter, then into the pain, while the paper excludes etc., warm some sweet oil and rub Peach Charlotte.-Cut stale bread | Charlotte Russe.-Line a serving on thoroughly with the hands, then into slices as thin as will hold to- dish with thin slices of sponge cake. cover with sheet wadding, the shiny the man who falls into such a trap gether, or a little less than one- Beat one-half cup of cream, adding side out. Wear it until you feel is a horrible one. He is alone, a good word for Dodd's Kidney Pills. He has his reasons for this, and here they are in his own words:

KIDNEY PILLS-THEY RE-MOVED THE CAUSE.

He Had Backache and Urinary Troubles for Twelve Years Before he Used the Great Kidney Remedy.

"I had been troubled with Backache and Kidney Disease for twelve years," says Mr. Grant. "My urine was very dark and high colored. I the washing and rinsing waters of would lose my rest at night on acthe same degree of heat. Make a count of having to rise so often to goo'd suds for the first water, but urinate. I could get nothing to

"I tried several remedies, but all

Lever's Y-Z (Wise Head) Disinfectant Soap Powder dusted in the bath, softens the water and disin-

PATHOS MOVES NURSE.

of her Calling.

The visiting nurse set out on her errand of mercy in a rebellious ern in a slum off the Bompjes, where mood. This nursing was a wretched business. There was nothing in it but work, work-always work, however much the spirit might flag and dark closet and told us to sleep the body grow weary. That there there. "We have fallen into a trap," was poetry in helpfulness was a cream of the imagination.

closely about her to keep out the began to talk in German, and the chill which follows rain when the gist of our conversation was: What

The nurse's mind lingered over the | we had a narrow escape. situation. Little children always moved her to tenderness, and she could not keep from wondering about this helpless little one who was soon to be left alone. And the motherhow did it seem to her? The nurse herself had once been happy holding a little child close in her arms. She lived the joy over again and sighed in her lonely walk.

In softened mood the nurse came into her patient's quiet room. her new sympathy she was touched by the plain neatness of the place and by the aspect of the slight form on the bed.

It seemed to her incredible that even life could have touched roughly so tender and so young a thing. There must be some brute instinct in the vital force that moves the universe; how else could that frail creature lie on her bed of pain coughing away the little hope that she still held of a to-morrow with the tiny babe beside her? Yet perhaps earthly to-morrows were not needed by such as she. Certainly it would seem from her expression that she found the present joy enough. Her eyes did not leave the baby's

"It's strange," she said, "do you know I'm lonely, just a little. The little fellow seems so far away somehow just because I can put my arms about him."

She fell back on the pillow white and mute. The future, her future. dropped its pale curtain low, and the room grew dark upon the nurse's sight once more.

MAKING THE BEST OF IT.

MURDER AND THEFT BEHIND MASK OF TREACHERY.

Forty-eight of His Guests.

the peculiar terror which stories of evil inns inspire. The condition of stranger. It is night, and dangers are the more redoubtable that they move against him under a cloak of darkness.

I sometimes think of a night spent in an inn on the Spanish frontier, in a little seaside village surrounded by a thick pine forest, five or six years ago. I was accommodated with a bed in a large room in in which bodies of victims were diswhich another traveler was lying. He posed of. Hundreds of lonely travwas talkative, as most southern elers, belated in this inaccessible Frenchmen are, and curious as to spot, have been plundered and murmy business, circumstances, and fu- dered. ture movements. I told him a story of my financial troubles which seems pearances of Englishmen in France, to me to have saved my life. He reported in London papers at the was restless during the night and beginning of last century, could have kept going to the window. I could been afforded by a discovery at Pisnot go to sleep while he was moving cot, on the road from Paris to about.

In the end we both fell asleep. He coaches, travelers from the north to had given me his name, a name with the French capital arrived at Piscot which a year or two later the whole towards nightfall. The house had had of France was ringing. He was a bad reputation, but the innkeeper tried for a double murder perpetrat- was popular. Montreal, July 27.-(Special.- ed under circumstances of peculiar The inn was poorly supplied with Ernest Grant, 2871 Urbain street, atrocity, and with such a motive of water, and the landlord employed this city, is among those who never petty robbery that the opinion was men to dig a well at the back of let an opportunity pass to say a he must have had long familiarity the inn. When the diggers had got with crime. The murder for which down a few feet they came upon a he was convicted was carried out to skeleton, and having removed this gain possession of £20, and people they were digging into a graveyard. believed none but a hardened crim- Remains of eighteen bodies were inal would nerve himself to murder found. Then the old people of Pisfor gain so paltry.

Such was my companion in a lone- in connection with the house. ly inn, where my disappearance Grewsome was the find made a few would have aroused neither curiosity months ago by workmen pulling nor suspicion. How he would have down an old house in a town in the disposed of me I could imagine from | Morbihan district of Brittany, where the crime for which he was convicted. the flooring of the kitchen hid a He traveled with a large trunk. I charnel house of human remains. sometimes think it was the one af- This house had been an inn. terwards seized at the cloakroom of There is evidence that this kind of containing the body of his latest ent. Only recently came the story cunning with which I had concealed trap door in the floor of his bedthe fact I was in possession that room was raised; two masked men, night of a considerable sum.

CUNNING SAVES LIVES. our way home to England from our mation to the police. school in Wiesbaden. As the ship did not start until the day following our arrival we had been obliged to pass the night in Rotterdam. A loafer conducted us to a miserable tavwe paid for the best room. As the time for retiring came our villainous looking landlord conducted us to a I said to my brother, and so it seemed when later we heard a steal-The woman drew her cloak more thy step on the staircase. Then we being awake saved us instead till morning we were not molested.

this class of house in Rotterdam and Amsterdam, I have no doubt that vacationers come back. A trip to DEATH TRAPS IN FRANCE.

France, too, is dotted with houses where murder and theft lurk behind the mask of treachery. In the forest con, you may see the ruins of a church consecrated to St. John. "Not far from this," writes Raoul Glabert, "a scoundrel had built a house for the accommodation of travelers. In this house he murdered all who came to lodge. The monster used the flesh of his victims for nourishment.

"A man came there with his wife and asked shelter. Having rested, burned to death.

present at his execution."

period cannibalism seems to have no one suffers so seriously from heat been looked upon by innkeepers as a as the idler. The business man can perquisite of their profession. This therefore help his employes and his story is in its way more horrible customers to a better appreciation of than Hamilton Aides fiction, for in their comforts by providing bargains his evil inn only the teeth and hair to occupy the minds of those whose of the victims were coveted by the minds might otherwise be unoccupitwo sisters of Cologne.

VERITABLE DEATH TRAP.

Germany has built some of the The French inn of most sinster Aunt-"Your bride, my dear, is definest, fastest vessels afloat, al- reputation is still standing in a lightfully rich and all that, but I though she is not geographically a mountain pass in Auvergne. This don't think she will make much of a maritime country, and no other is known to history as the Murder- beauty show at the altar." Nephew country is so latgely dependent on ers' inn. The building was offered -"You don't, eh? Just wait til others for the raw materials which for sale some months ago, and you see her with the brides enter into the making of a ship. | though less than $200 was asked no maids that she has selected."

Ceylon Tea Is the finest It is not difficult to understand Tea the world produces, and is sold only in lead packets.

> Black, Mixed and Green. 'apan tea drinkers try "Salada" Green tea.

purchaser was found. The inn is a death trap. Rooms assigned to travelers have windows barred with iron. In an outhouse is the furnace

The clew to the mysterious disap-Calais. In the old days of mail cot began to talk of the evil stories

a station on the Cherbourg line, robbery still flourishes on the continvictim. I think all that saved me of an itinerant druggist assailed in from sepulture within it was the an inn near Clermont Ferrand. A armed with revolvers, entered and forced the traveler to hand over It was with similar cunning that V20, his entire fortune. The man my brother and myself avoided a escaped. The servant at the inn had like danger at Rotterdam. We were witnessed the landlady dividing the lads of 10 and 12 respectively, on spoils and helped him to give infor-

REFRESHMENT

The proprietor who has been working hard for several months needs a rest. The employes who have been working faithfully for a busy season need a rest. The people of the town and country surrounding who have been buying liberally need a rest. It is the rest season, the vacation time of the year. The store will be the better for the vacations taken by all connected therewith. The place will be the brighter for turning the employes out to rub against new ideas and new opportunities. The of sugar gradually and beat mooth. sometimes fade in spite of every comfort turned her thoughts upon the money expected from our parents customers may be the better for getting away and seeing how the stores beaten light and one teaspoon of but ignorance or carelessness for all. She began to speculate upon story of distress, and probably our in other towns are conducted. If the merchant is careful in piecing out the vacations he will find the step retreating, and remaining awake store management is not embarrassed by the absence of the clerks and From what I have since heard of will be better equipped for larger business and better work when the lakes, mountains, seashore or country will get the musty ideas of the old season out of the brain of the hard worker and will put new energy into each. Vacations pay, even if they are made at the expense of of Chatenay, three miles from Ma- the establishment. They are far more desirable since the better class of employes are willing to pay their own expenses and welcome the opportunity to get away if they want to go. Other ways may be devised by which the store force can be rejuvenated but none can be used as easily and successfully.

THE WORTH OF WORK.

his wife, prying into a closet, dis- No man is safe from the sufferings covered a heap of human remains. At of over-warm weather. No escape has this the travelers grew pale, and been found from bodily discomfort made for the road. The innkeeper where the thermometer runs above tried to stop them, but terror lent ninety. The best way to reduce to speed, so they were able to escape a minimum the physical discomfort to the town, where they informed is to hustle for business and forget Prince Othon of the discovery. A the trying condition. If the weather great number of men set out, the is warm, think of something else and monster was found in his den, and the heat will not be so offensive. If no less than forty-eight human heads the perspiration starts out of the were discovered, remains of travel- pores, think as little of it as possiers whom he had murdered and de- ble, and think as much of something voured. He was dragged back to else. Work will prevent suffering town, tied to a beam in a cellar, and from the heat, and a struggle for more business will give a better feel-"I myself," says Glabert, "was ing to those who are associated with the one who runs the business. No From other chronicles of this day is so long as the idle day, and