The post Office Department urges all business men to have in the upper left hand corner of the envelope their name and P. O. address, so that if not called for at destination the letter may be promptly returned to the sender instead of going to the dead letter office. Business envelopes printed at THE LIBERAL Office for a mere trifle.

The officers and directors of Markham Fair are distributing a very nice bill, giving an account of the Fair to be held on the 7th, 8th and 9th of October. The cut shows a collection of very fine buildings. On Thursday evening, the 8th October, a concert will be given in the Pavilion by the celebrated Highlanders' Band of Toronto.

SAVE! SAVE.

We have a stock of A. A. 1 British Columbia red cedar shingles on hand. From present state of market shingles will be higher next season and intending builders will save money by buying now. H. A. Nicholls.

LARGE POTATOES.

Mr. Thomas Hopper has shown us a sample of very fine potatoes. Twelve of them weigh 12 1/2 lbs. neat, and they are said to be first-class for table use. They are called the "Irish Souvenir," and Mr. Hopper has a quantity of the seed for sale. The seed last year was $1 per lb., but Mr. Hopper is prepared to sell to a limited number at a reasonable price.

We are too busy running up ourselves to run down our rivals. Atkinson & Switzer.

PROPOSED TRIP.

The Newmarket Era last week said: "The Metropolitan Railway Company has invited Mayor Urquhart and the City Council to take a trip over the line to Newmarket, merely to give his Worship and the Aldermen an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the company's property and business." We venture to say the gentlemen with the silk hats will never see inside the Waiting-Room in this village.

HARVEST HOME.

A large number of of young people were invited by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rumble and family, to partake of a harvest festival at their home on the 2nd Concession last Friday evening. About nine o'clock the guests sat down to tables, laden with fowl and many other seasonable dainties. After supper the time was spent with music, social intercourse and various games. Besides the young people of the immediate neighborhood the guests included some from Toronto, Hope, Maple, Richmond Hill and Headford. All present seemed to enjoy the evening to the utmost and were grateful to the host and hostess for their hospitality.

We profit if you are pleased, and we are pleased if you profit. Atkinson & Switzer.

Canon Farncomb, rector of St. Matthew's Church, Toronto will be the preacher. Special music will be provided by the choir. A collection will be made, which will be devoted to renovation expenses.

WILL EXTEND THE ROAD.

The arbitration in connection with the Aurora & Schomberg Electric Railway was practically concluded on Saturday before Judge Winchester. Capt. Armstrong of Lloydtown, and other charter members claimed damages on account of the line having been diverted from the route fixed by the charter, whereby their village was sidetracked and the road built to Schomberg. The matter was up some months ago, and Henry Crew, C. E., and County Engineer McDougall were directed to ascertain whether it would be practicable to build a branch from the present terminus to a point between the villages named. They agreed that such a route would be practicable, and the claimants agreed to accept it. A final order in the matter will be made at a sitting to be held next Saturday.

VACATIONS ABOUT OVER.

Now that vacations are about over, and young people are ready to begin, or resume work, we desire to call their attention to the advantages offered by us in learning and placing them in railway business and commercial telegraphy. Our courses cover telegraphy, twin despatching, standard rules, and office accounting. See us and be assured how you can change your occupation, and earn at least double your present salary from the start and have very desirable work. We fit young ladies especially for the commercial telegraph positions such as C. N. W. and C. P. R. day and night classes. All graduates guaranteed positions as soon as competent. Call at your convenience, or write us for particulars. Canadian Railway Instruction Institute, cor. College and Yonge Streets, Toronto, Oddfellows' Building.

We like the instruction that is got from a customer's complaint. Atkinson & Switzer.

PACKED LIKE SARDINES.

As usual the Metropolitan Railway managers blundered during the two weeks of the Fair in Toronto. Instead of giving a special rate and a late car during last week, they retained their inducements until this week. The consequence was that the passengers were huddled together by the hundred. Tuesday night the cars did not leave the Waiting-Room at North Toronto until half an hour after the usual time, and when the two cars did come the crowd that gathered was large enough to fill four cars. Then women and children were jostled and crushed, and some had their clothing torn in endeavoring to board a car. The management would have served the interests of the company by offering special rates and late cars last week, and more cars this week than they furnished. But as everybody knows the managers exhibit common sense only in exceptional cases.

SIMS-NEWTON.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Alex. Sims, Thamesville on Monday evening Sept. 7, when Mr. George S. Sims of this village was married to Miss Eliza Newton, daughter of the late James Newton of Elgin Mills. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. J. A. Grant, M.A., before a large company of relatives and friends. The bride was assisted by Miss Hare of Thamesville, while the groom was supported by Mr. Arthur Boyle. After an excellent dinner was served Rev. Mr. Grant proposed "The King," and afterwards the "Bride and Groom." The proposer made many complimentary references to the married couple, and the groom in responding thanked Rev. Mr. Grant on behalf of himself and bride for the many kind things said. "The Old Folk" was responded to by Mr. Boyat, and the latter then proposed "The Bridesmaid and Groomsman," which was responded to in a neat speech by Mr. Arthur Boyle. "The Best and Hostess" was proposed by Mr. Brown, and Mr. Alex. Sims replied. The married couple left for a trip east, and are expected at Richmond Hill the latter part of this week, where they will take up housekeeping. The bride and groom are well and favorably known here. Mr. Sims is deservedly popular in a large circle, and the bride's many friends will be pleased to welcome her back to her native village.

TENNIS AFTERNOON.

About twenty of the members of the Lawn Tennis Club responded to an invitation of the Oak Ridges Club, on Friday afternoon, when a most enjoyable time was spent on Mr. Geo. Newbery's lawn, three lots above the Elgin Mills. As there was also a large number of players from Oak Ridges it was not thought advisable to play a match between the two clubs, so partners were selected by chance, the lady and gentleman playing together who drew bouquets composed of similar flowers. Three courts were occupied during the afternoon, and some very pretty returns were made. In the evening refreshments were served by the ladies of the home club, and these were thoroughly enjoyed after the strenuous work of the afternoon. Before returning home the visitors carried unanimously a vote of thanks to the members of the Oak Ridges Club for their kind hospitality, and to Mr. and Mrs. Newbery for the use of their grounds. Later in the evening a number of popular games were played on the lawn, after which the visitors returned on the 8.15 car.

The following games were played: Mrs. Derry and Savage beat Miss Mortson and Shaw. Miss Palmer and Carrol beat Miss K. Newbery and Newton. Miss Wiley and McMahon beat Miss Boyle and Osborne. Miss Storey and Morgan beat Miss C. Legge and Trunpou. Miss Newbery and Shaw beat Miss Storey and Glass. Miss Wiley and Derry beat Miss Legge and Thomas. Trunpou and Shaw beat Osborne and Carrol. Miss Boyle and Glass beat Newbery and Newton. Miss Palmer and Carrol beat Osborne and Boyle. Miss Newbery and Shaw beat Mortson and Glass. Mrs. Derry and Savage, beat Miss Palmer and Morgan.
