SEED CONTROL ACT.

A copy of Bulletin No. 15, entitled "Bill No. 200, Reprinted as Amended: An Act Respecting the Inspection and Sale of Seeds with Explanations and Comments," has been received. This pamphlet is issued for general distribution for the purpose of serving as a notice to the interested public, and also to provide means for closer study of the Bill in its relation to the operations of seed producers, seed merchants and seed consumers. The Bill as amended by the Committee of the Whole during the recent session of Parliament, provides that seeds of cereals, grasses, clovers or forage plants, which contain the seeds of certain noxious weeds named in the Bill, will be prohibited from sale. It further provides for uniform methods of grading, according to fixed standards of purity and vitality, the timothy, alsike and red clover seeds offered for sale in Canada.

A copy of the pamphlet may be had free on application to the Seed Division Branch of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Dairying, Ottawa. Letters addressed as above do not require postage.

When "Victoria the Good" passed away a few years ago a feeling of sadness pervaded the British Empire, and thousands of loyal citizens who knew no other sovereign looked upon her death as a severe blow to the nation. The late Queen Victoria was greatly beloved by the highest and lowest of her subjects, and she proved herself during her long reign to be a genuine woman in the highest acceptation of the word. A queen she was in every respect, and her moral character was adorned with the fairest attributes of humanity. So dearly was the late queen beloved by all classes for her good judgment in matters affecting her people, and for her kindness of heart, that it was thought her successor's reputation might possibly suffer. But such has not been the case.

King Edward, whose 62nd birthday was celebrated on Monday, has done much since he was proclaimed sovereign to win the hearts of his people. He has shown marked ability and good sense, and the course he has mapped out should have an influence for peace and friendship throughout the world. May he long be spared to rule over a free, happy, and prosperous people is the prayer of millions. "God Save the King."

Conservative papers yesterday contained an affidavit of Mr. W. H. Callaghan, Toronto, purporting to explain the source of the money paid by Crossin for the Gamey piano stock. The charge implicated Hon. J. R. Stratton and E. F. B. Johnston. An emphatic denial has been given, and Callaghan has been arrested, charged with theft and blackmail.
