County Roads By-law.

The following facts concerning the County Roads By-Law have been submitted for the electors by Mr. J. H.
Ramsden, Clerk of the County of York:

The By-Law has been submitted to the Township Councils within the County for their approval and they appear to be about equally divided on the issue.

It will be submitted to the electors of the County for their approval or disapproval on January 4, 1904.

The question submitted will be:
"Are you in favor of a County Road System?"

If a majority vote for the system, the By-Law will come into force as it is, in all respects, except that the dissenting Townships may have the roads designated re-arranged by a Board of Arbitrators.

Freeholders and tenants holding thirty year leases, only, will be entitled to vote.

If it comes into force, the proposal is to issue County debentures for about $150,000, to extend over thirty years. This would entitle the County to draw $30,000 from the Provincial Fund, at the lowest estimate, which would reduce the amount required to $120,000. To repay these debentures, principal and interest, would require a rate of 1-7 of a mill on the dollar, or, say, about fourteen cents on an assessment of $1,000.

The expenditure of this money in the purchase of stone and payment of labor, in the County, would be beneficial.

County roads would reduce, rather than increase, the taxes for road purposes.

Each Municipality would have expended on County Roads, within its limits, the full amount of its taxes contributed for County Road purposes with the additional amount that would be expended of the Provincial Fund.

It would secure to each township, at least one good leading road to a town or village and connected in a uniform manner with another good leading road to another town or village.

It would enable the County to purchase a complete outfit of up-to-date road making machinery which costs from $3,000 to $5,000.

Townships would escape the liability for damages for accidents on such roads.

The Townships of North Gwillimbury and Georgina and the towns and villages within the County, would have returned to them yearly, the amounts they contribute towards paying the debentures and maintaining the roads, which could be expended on their own roads under the supervision of their own councils.

Several Counties in the Province have already adopted County Roads Systems, and are well pleased with the results.

Hope

Last Tuesday evening the choir of the Methodist Church was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. Thomas at their home. The evening was spent with music and games. After refreshments had been served, a handsome set of dishes was presented to Mrs. A.
Morton, a member of the choir, in honor of her recent marriage. The presentation was made by Miss Annie Thomas, who also read the following address:

TO MRS. A. MORTON:—
DEAR FRIEND.—We, the members of Hope Choir, wish to express to you our appreciation of your services as one who was always willing to do what you could to help in the musical part of the services of the church.
We think that the best way to show our good wishes is to recognize in some more substantial way than by mere words your readiness in assisting in the above-mentioned work.
We therefore ask you to accept this set of dishes as a token of our appreciation, hoping that you and your husband may long be spared to use them, and that your lives may be prosperous and filled with every happiness.

Signed on behalf of the choir, MRS. G. J. COOK,
THOS. McCORMACK.

About forty of the ex-pupils of the Public School were also present, and Mr. T. McCormack, who has been teacher for the past fifteen years, and has now given up the school, was presented by them with an address and a purse of gold. The address was read and the presentation made by Mr. W.
T. Cook. The following is the address:

TO MR. T. McCORMACK:—
DEAR TEACHER.—We, the ex-pupils of Hope school, wish to take this opportunity of expressing to you our appreciation of your services as our teacher in the past. You have held that position for a number of years, and have succeeded in making your services a success. Though at times you have met with difficulties and discouragements in your work, you have always been at your post and devoted as much time to the younger scholars as to the older ones. We hope that you may be long spared to be amongst us. We feel that we would indeed be ungrateful if we did not show in a more substantial way than by mere words that we are indebted to you for teaching us. We therefore ask you to accept this purse of gold as a slight token of our esteem for you.
Signed on behalf of the ex-pupils,
N. MALLOY, S. PIERCEY, A. THOMAS, W. T. COOK.

Both recipients were taken completely by surprise, and expressed their thanks for these tokens of regard.

Upon closing school Mr. McCormack received many beautiful presents from his pupils, all of whom regret very much having to part with him.
Among the articles received were a set of military brushes, handkerchief box, stationery, perfume, and ink stand. We hope that the happy relations existing between Mr. McCormack and his pupils and ex-pupils may always continue.

Wind!

Can you tell me O wind why you sigh?
Is the world so surrounded with woe, That thou bringest a funeral dirge From your travels wherever you go?

Have you been past the homes of our poor?
Are sorrows there so thickly spread?
I have, and have sighed while I heard Their children all crying for bread.

Have you been past the homes of our great?
When we fancy such strangers to gloom?
I have, and did sigh as I passed, For I found there were ghosts in each room.

Did you see those bright youths in their haunts?
In appearance so happy and gay?
I did, and I saw them return, And sighed for they carried dismay.

Have you been past the lovers' retreat?
Where pledges lie thick everywhere;
I have, but could never touch one,
They seemed so much lighter than air.

Have you passed by the fields of our dead?
Who there in such peacefulness lie;
I have, and have sighed for the fools, Who still a supremacy cry.

Were you there when the tempest passed by?
Sweeping homes that were covered with smiles;

I went past at a terrible speed, And sighed as I swept through the pies.

Oh! wind you have more than a task; Can you tell if you'll ever be through?
'Tis my work, and I'll have to sigh on, Till all things are made perfect and new.

Mount Pleasant

The morning service in connection with the anniversary of the Methodist Sunday School was taken by the Rev. Mr. Yewell of Springville, who delivered a discourse suitable for the occasion. His text was "Here am I." The snow storm did not prevent a large number being present to hear the worthy speaker of the day, who has been the means of rebuilding the congregations of Springville and Bethany. The Rev. Mr. Whittaw of Omenee, conducted the service in the evening; the words chosen by him as a foundation for his discourse were "Behold My Hands." The feeling of union must surely be growing, two Presbyterian ministers in one day oc-cuping the pulpit of the Methodist church.

Mr. Wm. Webster of Mariposa, was visiting his relatives here. He is noted as the great bee man.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Greig were enjoying life in Peterboro at the home of Mr. A. P. McLean.

Farmers are complaining for want of water, having to drive their stock a long distance for water.

Municipal and political election fevers are prevailing to an alarming extent in Canada just now. The process of time is the only remedy that has been found for this disease; "let your communication be yea, yea and nay, nay, etc." We are quite satisfied with the prosperous state of Canada in 1903; we don't want a change.

A pretty wedding took place at Cedar Grove, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Paterson, when their second daughter, Miss Ida E., was married to Mr. Norman Line of Maple, by Rev.
A. Gilray, D. D., of Bathurst Street, Toronto. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Alice Gilray, and Mr.
Will Paterson supported the groom.
Mr. and Mrs. Line will reside at Maple.

We are pleased to see that Mr.
Norman Bowen is able to be around again since returning from the hospital.

Miss Jessie Reaman of Severn Bridge, is spending a few weeks with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollingshead of Newmarket, spent over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cook at The Elms.

Miss Gerlie Blake of Toronto, took part in the Xmas Tree Entertainment Monday night.

Miss M. Beatty is spending her holidays with her mother in Bolton.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baker have returned from a trip to Western Ontario.

Mr. Jas. Patterson of Toronto, is visiting at his uncle's.

"When I commenced taking your medicines, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland, of Chaneyville, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pains in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better. Then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Altogether I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription,' and five vials of 'Pellets.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."
