day, viz., P. G. Savage, reeve; W.
Innes, J. Paulin, T. H. Trench, J. P.
Glass, councillors. For the Public School Board M. McNair and W. T.

Mr. Savage, Mr. Innes, Mr. Bestard and Mr. Pugsley.
Markham Tp. — A. Summerfeldt, reeve; H. W. Harper, J. E. Francis, G. C. Morrison, re-elected. Mr. Lapp takes the place of Mr. Hoover, removed from township. The County Roads by-law was fully explained by Co. Councillor A. Quantz.
Vaughan — Unusual interest was shown at the nomination. The large hall was crowded, and able speeches were made by the old nominees. The principal discussion was on the question of commuted statute labor.
County Councillors Kirby and Pugsley fully explained the Good Roads By-Law, and many others referred to the same question. Many of those present were in a teasing mood, and much merriment was caused by the sharp questions and good natured answers.
The Chairman, Dr. Robinson of Kleinburg, was good natured and witty and ruled with an iron hand. The following were nominated: for reeve, Wm.
Watson, J. N. Boyle; for councillors, Isaac Devins, D. C. Longhouse, Wm.
Thomas, Donald J. Malloy, J. W. Dal-ziel, J. S. McNair, J. Williams, Geo.

Diamond Wedding.
An event of very rare interest was celebrated at the residence of Mr. D.
C. Longhouse, 9th con. Vaughan, on the evening of Dec. 23, the occasion being the 60th anniversary of the marriage of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Longhouse. A large company of relatives and friends gathered to extend congratulations to the aged couple. Short addresses were made by Rev. Malcolm Mackinnon, B. A., and Messrs. Wm. Farr, Geo. Reaman, Isaac Reaman, John Reaman, Michael Reaman, Wm. Ellerby and John Rumble, extending sincere congratulations to the venerable couple, recalling the past and wishing well for the future.

In addition to the above-mentioned the following were present: Mrs.
Cole, Malton, an aged sister of Mr.
Longhouse; Mrs. Everingham, Mrs.
Richardson, Mrs. Barkholder and Mrs.
Duck, daughters; Mr. Troyer, the Misses Troyer; Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reaman; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reaman; Mrs.
Wm. Farr; Mrs. Geo. Reaman; Mrs.
Isaac Reaman; Mrs. John Reaman; Mrs. M. Reaman; Mrs. Wm. Ellerby; Mrs. John Rumble; Miss Florence Reaman; Mrs. Joseph Duncan; Mrs.
M. MacKinnon; Mrs. Reaman; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richards; Mrs. Adams; Mr. Barkholder and a company of young people.

Mr. Longhouse is still active and vigorous in his 85th year, Mrs. Long-house being 73. They were married by Rev. Peter McNaughton, Presbyterian minister of Maple, Mrs. Long-house's maiden name being Mary Raymond. Mr. Longhouse was born in Markham, and after marriage lived for a few years on the 2nd concession of Vaughan, moving in 1843 to the 8th concession, the farm now occupied by his son, Mr. D. C. Longhouse, where the anniversary was celebrated, and on which the old couple continued to reside until about six years ago, when they moved to Woodbridge. The first threshing machine on Yonge Street was worked by Mr. Longhouse in 1845.
The evening was spent in social intercourse and was altogether pleasant.
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Longhouse are to be congratulated on the splendid arrangements made and opportunity given to so many to meet their father and mother. Before the company dispersed they joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again."

Langstaff
On the afternoon of the 22nd inst. the pupils of our school held their closing exercises. It was more successful than usual. The recitations, songs and dialogues were well and appropriately chosen and were given with such vim, accuracy and confidence that bespoke good training. After the program was concluded and before cake and coffee were served, Lucy Robinson and Jennie Chapman, on behalf of the pupils, presented Miss M. Harrison with a beautiful manicure set. Mr. D. James, who has been over twenty-one years a trustee acted as chairman. Many of the parents of the section were present among others were Messrs. Goodenham and Lang-staff, Mrs. R. Chapman and Mrs.
Lawrie.
On Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. W.
H. Clubine entertained a large gathering.
Mr. C. R. James has returned from a visit to his brother at Carstairs, Alta.
Miss J. S. Brown left yesterday for a visit in New York.

Victoria Square
A few of the young people of this place enjoyed themselves sleigh-driving on Christmas.
Messrs. J. T. Johnson and L. Nichols spent Saturday and Sunday in Toronto.
The Stoutenburgh Bros. have taken their clover mill to our neighbors of the south to finish up the season.
The Christmas Tree on Thursday evening was a grand success. The basement was well filled and every one was well entertained. After the entertainment Santa Claus appeared and helped unload the tree. Nearly every one received a present. The collection amounted to $10.
The committee for the New Year's entertainment have been fortunate in securing the services of the Unionville choir for the services on Sunday, January 3.

Maple
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Constable entertained about thirty of their friends as invited guests on Christmas Day at their home near Maple. Among the number was Rev. J. K. Hilty and family of Sherwood, and Mr. Joseph Fenwick and wife, and Miss Mercy Bowen of Thornhill. A sumptuous dinner, consisting of five roast geese, with the usual accompaniments, was served at the noon hour. The afternoon was spent in games, with an abundance of candies and nuts, followed by tea at 5 o'clock, consisting of a variety of cake, with fruit, and a liberal supply of oranges. Altogether it was a happy Christmas, and all united in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Constable many more like it, with a Happy New Year.

A FEW TIMELY FACTS FOR
YOUNG PEOPLE.
Mr. W. S. Moore, after spending six months under our instructions, is now earning $25 per week for six hours work per day, at Memphis Tenn. Miss Nellie Carson, after five months' training, is now with the Western Union telegraph company at Detroit, earning $70 per month. Mr.
W. H. Hodgson, after four months' training, is now with the C. P. R. at Tweed, Ont., earning $40.00 per month.
Numerous others are being placed in equally as good positions. Our winter term opens January 4th, and those desiring to take up the work should enroll on or before that date to ensure them a position in the spring or early summer. Five competent instructors of exceptional ability are giving their personal and individual attention to the rapid advancement of our pupils.
Young ladies are prepared for commercial telegraph positions, and young men for the same and railway positions as operators, train dispatchers, agents, etc. This is a profession not overcrowded, and one which will command steady employment the year around at good wages. Write at once for particulars as to terms, etc. Canadian Railway Instruction Institute, Cor. College and Yonge Sts., Toronto.

AN IMPERIAL NUMBER.
The present interest in Imperial matters has apparently justified the Canadian Magazine people in making their January issue especially Imperial with an emblematic cover. The Imperial articles are three in number.
The Hon. J. W. Longley reviews the whole movement and distinguishes Imperialism from Chamberlainism.
J. M. McEvoy, K. C. gives a summary of the arguments for protection advanced by Prof. Ashley in his book on "The Tariff Problem." Prof. Ashley, who was once on the staff of Toronto University, is said to be the economic authority upon whom Mr.
Chamberlain relies. "Mr. Gladstone and Imperialism" is the title of a defence of that distinguished statesman by Mr. Herman W. Marcus, editor of the British Empire Review. Among the other articles are "Spain, as a Canadian Sees It," by W. A. R. Kerr, with some excellent illustrations;
"Sir Henry Irving and Dante," by J.
E. Webber, with two photographs; and "An Aquatic Reminiscence," by George Stewart, D.C.L., with a photograph of the famous "Four" that won the championship at Paris in 1887. A notable feature of the issue is the first instalment of A. G. Bradley's "Fight for North America," the new serial dealing with the events between 1750 and 1763. The stories are by E. P. Medley, R. D. Rudolph, Hopkins J. Moorhouse, Grace Channell, Duncan Campbell Scott, and Mary Stewart Durie. As usual, the departments are well written and interesting. Every Canadian should read this publication during 1904.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.
Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapse, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"There are thousands of sick women dragging out a weary, miserable existence, who would be well and happy did they but have my experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. Annie Lenman, of 106 Jackson St., Atlanta, Ga. "Four years ago I was nearly dead with inflammation and ulceration. I endured daily untold agony, and life was a burden to me. I had used medicines internally and externally until I had made up my mind that there was no relief in sight for me. A friend of mine endorsed your 'Favorite Prescription' and I determined then to give it a trial. It took patience and perseverance for I was in a bad condition, and had to use your medicine for nearly four months before I was cured, but what a change it brought, from despair to happiness, from misery to the delightful, exhilarating feeling that only health brings. I would not change back for a thousand dollars. Your 'Prescription' is a grand medicine. I wish every sick woman would only try it and be convinced." Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
