The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, January 21, 1904

Mr. A. B. Rice, editor of The Tribune, Toronto Junction, has been appointed Collector of Customs for that town. The Junction Customs House was established about 5 years ago as an outpost of Toronto, and up to the present has been conducted by an officer of the Toronto office. Business, however, has increased to such an extent that a collector of Customs was decided upon. Mr. Rice is a gentleman of good ability. Since coming to the Junction he has taken an active part in municipal and political affairs. For two years he was a member of the Town Council, for eleven years he was on the School Board, has been chairman of the West York License Commissioners, and is Vice-President of the West York Liberal Association. The new appointment should give every satisfaction.

The bye-election in North Oxford to fill the vacancy caused by the tragic death of the late Mr. Patullo, will be held on the 26th of January. A week ago it looked as if there would be a three-cornered contest, but the prohibitionist has withdrawn leaving the field for the straight Grit and Tory. It is claimed that before the temperance candidate withdrew he received the assurance that the Ontario Government would, during the present session, introduce temperance legislation which would be satisfactory to the prohibition party.

Many Conservative papers, during the last few weeks have made themselves appear ridiculous by asserting that the Lieut. Governor should have dismissed the Ontario Ministry, and not allowed them to call the House together until the election trials were disposed of. Even Mr. Whitney saw the absurdity of the proposals. One of the first things the Leader of the Opposition said when he arose to reply to the address was that "in his opinion his honor adopted the safer and wiser course, as the Government had a majority in the house."

It has been announced upon authority that the holding of the General Elections has been postponed until after another session of Parliament. It is said that the House will be summoned about the tenth of March. It seems that the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway have asked for certain modifications in their charter, and these the Government do not feel inclined to grant without the consent of Parliament.

Every person who takes an interest in politics should read the speech of Mr. J. P. Whitney in the Local House, and the reply by Hon. G. W. Ross, as given in Tuesday's dailies. Then they can judge for themselves.

WANTED—FAITHFUL PERSON TO TRAVEL for well established house in a few counties, calling on retail merchants and agents. Local territory. Salary $20.00 per week with expenses additional, all payable in cash each week. Money for expenses advanced. Position permanent. Business successful and rushing. Standard House, 830, Dearborn St., Chicago, Nov. 12-25 wks.

If You Have Any Spare Time
We want to make you a Proposition for its Use.

The magazine subscription business has grown enormously within the past three years, and hundreds are finding it a pleasant and lucrative employment, especially at this season of the year. A large sum will be spent in every community this winter in subscribing for new magazines and renewing old subscriptions. Most of this money would ordinarily go direct from subscriber to publisher; but the latter would just as soon receive it through an agent, and the subscriber would usually prefer to patronize a "home industry" by placing his subscriptions through a fellow-townsmen. By putting this idea into practice, one of our subscription representatives in a recent month's canvassing earned $524.00; another, in the same month, $494.00, and still another $334.00. And this, mind you, at work calling for the investment of not one penny, and no previous experience. You may do as well. Will you try it?

We Want a Representative

In every community this winter to whom we can send lists of expiring subscriptions for renewal, also to obtain new subscriptions. The pay is the largest offered by any first-class magazine, and the assistance rendered subscription-getters the most helpful. Any person of average intelligence and energy can earn much more in this way than could be earned in any ordinary salaried position.

$50,000.00

At least, will be earned in commissions and cash prizes by our representatives within the next six months. Write to-day for our proposition and special methods of work.
