Collingwood Bright's Disease Cure from the wars. Brings to Light Others Equally Wonderful.

Mrs. Fred. Philip of Eglington Tells of Her Remarkable Experience.

Discharged From Two Toronto Hospitals-Dodd's Kidney Fills Brought Back Her Health.

eport from Collingwood of the won-?ills has aroused great interest here and the discussion of it has brought out the fact that Mrs. Adams' case s not an isolated one, that right in foronto there are people who, sufferng from the most dreaded and fatal of Kidney Diseases, have found positive and permanent cure bodd's Kidney Pills.

One of the most striking cases that ias been brought to light is that of Mrs. Fred. Philip, now residing on Broadway ave., Eglington ,one the northern suburbs of the city. That Mrs. Philip was suffering from 3right's Disease and was in a most langerous state, there is not the shadow of a doubt. She was in two nity hospitals, Grace and the Generil, and left both places without a lope for the future.
