ELGIN MILLS.

Many people in this place regret to learn of the death of Susie Louisa, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bevan, 502 Queen Street East, Toronto, in her 15th year. Deceased who was a grand-daughter of Mrs. James Kerswill, had been suffering for some time with Bright's Disease, and passed away on Monday, 29th February. The parents have the sympathy of many friends and relatives in the loss of their daughter.

WEEKLY SHOOT.

Owing to the unfavorable state of the weather low scores were made by the Victoria Square O. H. R. C. Mr. J. Nigh of Ahura, a notorious deer slayer for some years past, paid the club a visit and made some remarkable quick firing shots that astonished some of the boys. W. Bruce captured the prize presented by Mr. W. Savage of the Palmer House. The following are the scores:—C. P. Read, 71; T. Read, 62; C. J. Brodie, 62; W. Scott, 57; A. Quantz, 54.

You won't do yourself justice if you don't look over Atkinson & Switzer's stock before buying.

STORM IS KING.

The blizzard which swept over Ontario Monday and Monday night ended in a snow blockade, and traffic of all description has since been almost completely paralyzed. The Metropolitan was blocked up, and the company brought the mails to this village on a sleigh, reaching here in the afternoons instead of early in the mornings. The cars began running from the C. P. R. Crossing Tuesday evening, but it will probably be a day or two yet before the track is clear to Newmarket. The cuts of snow on the Metropolitan tracks a few rods south of the village are fully nine feet high.

GOING TO THE CENTRAL.

David Wells who was suspected of the theft of a watch-chain from the Palmer House about ten days ago was up before Magistrate Ellis on Saturday. The defendant pleaded guilty to some half dozen charges and was sentenced to two years in the Central Prison—less one day.

He was 56 years of age. The remains were brought up and interred in the cemetery yesterday afternoon, beside his wife who died here about 14 years ago.

SILVER WEDDING.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Pugsley at their home, 2nd concession of West York, on Friday evening and a most enjoyable time was spent. Among those present were County Councillor W. H. Pugsley and Mrs. Pugsley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. S. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. W. Winch, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. E. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. T. Armstrong, Mrs. W. Glass, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Glass, Miss Annie Glass, Mr. John Pugsley, Mr. R. W. Glass.

BIG WORK.

Monday of this week was one of the stormiest days on record. As it was too blustery to drive out into the country, Bert Hopper and Mat Patton decided to stay in doors and kill and dress hogs for the market. With the assistance of two helpers they killed and dressed 56 hogs from 100 lbs. to 200 lbs. in weight. The work was done between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m. This, we are inclined to think, was the biggest day's work of the kind ever done in this place, or in the county. If there are two other men in this section of country who can make more pigs squeal in a day than Hopper and Patton, we would like to hear from them.

Great value in men's overalls, smocks, socks and working shirts. Atkinson & Switzer.

MARCH CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

In each number of The Canadian Magazine a persistent purpose is visible. Canadian history and Canadian life in all their phases are discussed and illuminated. Forty Canadian teachers went to South Africa and their experiences are commemorated in an article entitled "A Year in a Boer School," in the March number. A Canadian doctor, living in London, makes some contributions to philosophical thought and speculation, hence comes Arnold Hamilton's article on "A Search for an Ideal." The philosopher is Dr. Beatrice Crozier. A young man rises from a subordinate position to the control of a large industrial corporation and hence comes a biographical sketch of Mr. F. W. W. Thompson, Manager of the Ogilvie Flour Mills Company. New methods for the regeneration of criminals are being tried, hence the article on "Crime and Its Suppression," by J. J. Kelso. Several newspaper men once came near losing their positions because they wrongly reported Sir Wm. Van Horne, hence C. F. Paul writes of "The Discredited Interview." Canada's treaty-making powers are termed inadequate, and Thomas Hodgins briefly explains why he agrees that it is time for a change. W. L. Grant points out where the teaching of history is weak so far as our educational system is concerned. Add to these three Canadian short stories, the third installment of Mr. Bradley's historical serial, and the usual departments, and the work of the March Canadian Magazine is outlined. The publication covers a broad field, but the work is fairly well done.
