

RICHMOND HILL, March 31, 1904

LOCALS.

Mrs. Wilsonhome of Peterboro, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. D. Hill and returned Tuesday.

To-morrow being Good Friday, the Post Office, Bank, and other places of business will be closed as usual.

The High and Public Schools of the village close to-day for the Easter vacation. Re-opening on Monday, the 11th of April.

Miss Keith, of Toronto, returned yesterday after spending the past week with her sister, Miss M. Keith, at Mrs. J. Eyer's.

Not one bargain here but many, Atkinson & Switzer.

Monday was "Pastmasters' Night" in Richmond Lodge. All the chairs were filled by former Masters of the Lodge. Besides the regular work the old heads passed a candidate to the Second Degree.

Every cent counts here. We present strong claims but true ones, Atkinson & Switzer.

Mrs. Wm. Ford died at her home a short distance south of Thornhill on Tuesday, in her 68th year. Interment in Thornhill cemetery to-day at 2 p. m. Deceased was mother of Mrs. John Palmer.

A week filled with bargains is this Easter week here. Atkinson & Switzer.

Dr. Coulter came from Ottawa Saturday to see his father who has been very ill for several months past, and was delighted to find that his aged parent was much stronger than when he saw him last.

Special quotation for best, St. Lawrence granulated sugar in 100 lb. bags, Atkinson & Switzer.

Messrs. Hopper & Brillinger are shipping to-day from Aurora to Stayner a carload of twenty horses. The proprietors purpose having an auction sale in Stayner where horses bring high figures.

Boys' hats should suit their faces as well as their heads, we have that kind. A stylish hat is the finishing touch of a gentleman's attire, we have the latest. Atkinson & Switzer.

On Easter Monday evening the Rev. John McDougall, D. D., Supt. of Missions in the North-west Territories, will deliver a lecture, (subject chosen by himself,) in Edgely Methodist church, at 8 o'clock. Silver collection at the door in aid of Missionary Fund of Y. P. S. C. E.

Just to hand at Atkinson & Switzer's a full assortment of Patterson's fancy chocolate for Easter. Atkinson & Switzer.

Mr. Wm. Bradley of Muskoka, and his bride, who are on their wedding tour, came up from the City and spent Friday afternoon with his cousin, Miss Kinnee. Mrs. F. Daniel and little daughter Lillian of Toronto Junction, also spent Friday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. R. Kinnee, who has been ill for the past ten months.

Early examples of spring excellence those fancy white mattings at 25c. yd., those fancy dress linens at 20c. yd., those white Organdies at 15 and 20c. yd., and those fancy Belts at 25 and 50c. Atkinson & Switzer.

The Agricultural Society met again Saturday. The members present after making a few amendments confirmed the Prize List as revised by the Executive Committee. The Executive at their last meeting proposed an increase in the prizes in several of the classes for horses, and some of these were again raised on Saturday last.

BURNED BY LIGHTNING.

During a storm on the 22nd of March the barn and basement stable at Almira, the property of Mr. Mead, was burned by lightning. No contents as the barn was unoccupied. Loss $1,500. Insurance is not known. It has been said that lightning never strikes twice in the same place. There are exceptions, however, as the buildings on the same ground were destroyed three years ago by the same cause.

A WESTERN HOME.

We have to thank our old friend, Mr. A. E. Keffer, of Lethbridge, Alberta, for a photo of his new home, a neat looking cottage, in which is shown himself, Mrs. Keffer and children, and as those who know him might expect, a horse and vehicle. Many old friends in Vaughan township, where he formerly resided, read last week in THE LIBERAL his interesting letter giving a good description of that section of country.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND SERVICES

On Good Friday Divine service will be held in St. Mary's church, Richmond Hill, at 3 p. m. and at Trinity church, Thornhill, at 11 a. m. The collections at these services will be in aid of the fund for promoting Christianity among the Jews. On Easter Day the services in St. Mary's church will be at 9 a. m., and at Trinity church at 11 a. m., and 7 p. m. The Sacrament of the Holy Communion will be administered in both churches. On Easter Monday the annual Vestry meetings will be held at Trinity church at 10 a. m. and at St. Mary's at 8 p. m.

See our new spring stock at its best. Atkinson & Switzer.

LIBRARY NOTICE.

As it has been arranged to hold an entertainment in aid of the Public Library on Saturday evening, the 9th of April, the Library room will not be open for exchange of books on that evening, but books may be exchanged on the previous Thursday evening from 7 to 9.

LENTEN SERVICE.

Lenten Service Friday evening of this week at the Epworth League. Short talks will be given on "The Women at the Cross," "The Disciples at the Cross," and "The Soldiers at the Cross" by T. F. McMahon, I. Crosby and J. H. Sanderson respectively. Appropriate musical program.

We talk of them as good for they are good those fine fancy Zephyrs at 17c. yd., those fine "Paraguay" Terzon laces at 5 and 9c. yd., those Zeff-riff insertions at 15c. yd. and those chiny insertions at 10 and 15c. yd. Atkinson & Switzer.

The people who worship in the Methodist Church and others who can attend on next Tuesday evening may expect a rare treat in the address of Dr. McDougall who has spent more than 30 years in the Far West. When he went out 'twas the lone land but has now become one of the world's greatest wheat fields. The public are cordially invited. Service to commence at 8 o'clock.

Those Easter goods are all marked at lowest price. Gents' reversible fancy Bows at 25c., fancy Shield Knots at 25c., fancy Studholm Knots at 50c., latest soft and stiff Felt Hats at $1.75 to $2.25, fancy Zephyr Shirts at 75c., $1 and $1.25. Atkinson & Switzer.

LIBRARY CONCERT.

The Public Library Board announce by posters an enjoyable concert to be given in the Masonic Hall on the evening of Saturday, the 9th of April. The following ladies and gentlemen have kindly consented to take part in the programme:—Miss Ethel Switzer, Soprano Soloist; Miss Laura Duncan, Soprano Soloist; Miss Mary Trench, Soprano Soloist and Reciter; Miss Ida Glass, Soprano Soloist; Mrs. Vivian, Soprano Soloist, of Toronto; Mr. E. Mason, Cornet Soloist and Vocalist; Mr. J. Osborne, Character Vocalist; Mr. T. A. Lamson, Elocutionist; Mr. W. A. Wright, Baritone Soloist. The program will also include two Fancy Dress Drills by a number of ladies and gentlemen, Accompanists: Mrs. A. J. Hume, Miss Barker and Mr. Earle Newton. During the evening an auction sale of old magazines, complete volumes, will take place when a lot of good reading may be had for a mere trifle. The chair will be taken by Reeve Savage. Admission, 25 and 15 cents. This cannot fail to be an excellent entertainment, and as the Board is in need of funds it is confidently hoped that our citizens generally will give their patronage and do what they can to make it a success. All the performers are giving their services free. Let our citizens show their appreciation by getting tickets for the occasion.

A FEW TIMELY FACTS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

Mr. W. S. Moore, after spending six months under our instructions, is now earning $25 per week for six hours work per day, at Memphis Tenn. Miss Nellie Carson, after five months' training, is now with the Western Union telegraph company at Detroit, earning $70 per month. Mr. W. H. Hodgson, after four months' training, is now with the C. P. R. at Tweed, Ont., earning $40.00 per month. Numerous others are being placed in equally as good positions. Our winter term opens January 4th, and those desiring to take up the work should enroll on or before that date to ensure them a position in the spring or early summer. Five competent instructors of exceptional ability are giving their personal and individual attention to the rapid advancement of our pupils. Young ladies are prepared for commercial telegraph positions, and young men for the same and railway positions as operators, train dispatchers, agents, etc. This is a profession not overcrowded, and one which will command steady employment the year around at good wages. Write at once for particulars as to terms, etc. Canadian Railway Instruction Institute, Cor. College and Yonge Sts., Toronto.

Yorkshire Stock Food

FOR HORSES—Gives them a good appetite, a glossy coat, a lose hide and a healthy appearance. Highly recommended by horsemen.
FOR CATTLE it has no equal. It improves the appetite, aids digestion, it causes a perfect assimilation of the food and fattens them quickly; also a grand preparation for milk cows.
FOR CALVES—mixed with skim milk or separator milk it will make calves thrive as well or better as when fed on new milk. Prevents scours, aids digestion, and rapidly fits a calf for market.
FOR HOGS—this will be found a grand tonic for fattening hogs rapidly. It aids digestion, kills worms, and keeps them healthy. The stockman's favorite, because it makes your stock thrive strong—best and cheapest stock food on the market. Five feeds for one cent.

Yorkshire Cough & Heave Cure

Guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, heaves and broken wind in horses. Horsemen will find this an infallible remedy for any affection in a horse's wind, whether caused from after effects of distemper or from eating dusty hay. Price 50c. Sold in Richmond Hill by Geo. McDonald, harness-maker.
