Cashel

Spring is here at last. We hear the song of the robins and the farmer wears a pleasant face.

Mr. Harvey Quantz has moved to his new home on the banks of the Don.

Mr. Welsh has moved to the Kester farm.

Cephas is starting an extensive dairy, having purchased some high grade cattle.

Mrs. Frisby is on the sick list this week but hope she will soon recover.

The Misses Emshies spent Easter under the parental roof.

Mrs. Horner has returned home after a pleasant sojourn in our little hamlet.

Milton, the poet, had favorite resorts which he loved to visit. Our modern Milton also has an eye for the picturesque and beautiful and seems to enjoy the scenery in the neighborhood of Cashel.

Our gardener had a narrow escape a few days ago. While pruning his fruit trees the ladder on which he was standing gave way. "Stiddy George."

Oak Ridges

Services were held during Holy Week in St. John's Church, Oak Ridges, on Wednesday at 8 p. m., Thursday at 4 p. m.; children's service Thursday evening at 8 p. m. (Gleaners' Union) Good Friday at 2.30 p. m.; Easter Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.
The rector was assisted at these services by Rev. Harry R. Trunpouir of Wycliffe College, Toronto.

Miss Clara M. Legge, who has been organist of St. John's Church, for the past four years, was presented this week with a purse of gold and the following address:—

MISS CLARA LEGGE,
DEAR FRIEND,

Having heard with deep regret that you are about to leave Oak Ridges and our church, we would take this opportunity of presenting you with this small testimonial of our regard.

While you are in no way to look upon this as pay or reward for your valuable and untiring services in behalf of the congregation, we would ask you to accept it as a token of the esteem and good-will of those who have labored and worshipped with you in the past.

On behalf of the Congregation,
J. E. LEGGE, Warden
G. B. NEWBERRY, Wardens

On the evening of Oct. 19th, 1963, the Oak Ridges Tennis Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Legg, Larchmere West, to hear the Secretary-Treasurer's report and conclude the business of the season. At this meeting it was decided that the club would continue to meet fortnightly during the winter for the purpose of studying Tennysion. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and it reported at the next meeting held Nov.
2nd and what was formerly known as the Tennis Club then became the Tennyson Club. From that date onward, through an exceptionally severe winter, not one meeting has been missed and the Secretary reports a good attendance in almost every case.
At each meeting Tennysion has been read and studied for an hour and a half and the study then followed by refreshments and social amusements.
On January 14th an oyster supper was held by the Club at the home of Mr.
Tom Beynon. A program of songs and readings from Tennysion was given followed by an excellent supper, after which toasts and speeches were the order of the evening. A special meeting was held on the evening of March 15th at the home of Mrs. Harry Legge. This meeting was spent with the other poets and excellent addresses were given by Oswald Newbery on Longfellow and Norman Glass on Mouette. Those present regretted that more were not there to enjoy these interesting and instructive discourses.

News Notes.

A meeting of the East Toronto ratepayers favored annexation with the City by a vote of 6 to 1. The mayor and councillors oppose the proposal.

W. A. Stratton, K. C., brother of Hon. J. R. Stratton, Provincial Secretary, died at his home in Peterborough on Monday. Deceased, who was senior member in the law firm of Stratton and Hall, was 40 years of age.

Rideau Hall, the Vice-Regal residence, Ottawa, was injured by fire early Sunday morning to the extent of about $40,000. Most of the personal effects of the Governor-General and Countess Minto were saved but many valuable nicknacks were irretrievably ruined. Lady Minto, who had been suffering from a fracture of the leg, the result of an accident while skating, had to be carried downstairs in her night dress.

Jack, the five-year-old son of Mrs.
Hamilton Hall, 770 Yonge St., was run over by a car on Sherbourne St.
Wednesday night of last week about 10 o'clock. The little fellow was running with his mother to catch a southbound car when he ran against a car going north. The wheels passed over both legs. The mother was prostrated at the terrible sight. He was removed to the General Hospital. The child was a son of the late W. Hamilton Hall, a former proprietor of The Markham Sun. The child died the following day.

"BRIGHTEN UP"

Mr. H. C. Bailey, of the Telephone Store, Maple, throws out the above suggestion to his patrons, in a Spring circular, and at the same time points out that a good place to get paints, wall papers, etc., is at his store. He quotes wall papers from 3 to 15 cents per roll, and has a large stock to select from. Call and see his many Spring specialties.

The Review of Reviews for April has several important articles bearing on the war in the far East. Dr.
E. J. Dillon, the English correspondent, epitomizes the situation at St.
Petersburg, in a characterization of the men now at the fore in the Czar's councils,— notably Admiral Alexieff.
Dr. G. Frederick Wright, author of "Russia in Asia," summarizes the Russian contributions to Asiatic civilization, and states with clearness and force the Russian case as regards the occupation of Manchuria. There is also an interesting digest of Russian opinion on American "meddling" in the far East, as voiced in the most influential Russian journals. This is followed by a discriminating article on "What the People Read in Russia." In the department of "Leading Articles of the Month," both sides of the present controversy are presented in the form of reviews and abridg-ments of articles appearing in the leading English and continental publications.

AN EASTER NUMBER.

A truly Easter number is the April Canadian Magazine. The cover is a beautiful Easter design in colors, the special illustrations are suitable to the season, and the whole aspect of the issue is that of a notable occasion.
To illustrate Mr. Carman's "Church Art in Rome" there are some reproductions of famous paintings and pieces of sculpture which are as valuable alike to the engraver and painter.
The delicate colour effect obtained in these reproductions shows considerable enterprise and a high degree of skill. The stories are more numerous than usual and well selected. They are from the pens of Hubert McBean, Johnston, W. A. Fraser, A. Seton Fox, Alice Jones and Caroline Marriage. That by Mr. Fraser, entitled "The Tea Dance at Fort Douard," introduces some of the characters from "Blood Lilies," and is undoubtedly in his best vein. Jean Blewett writes entertainingly of "The Ways of The Child," and her contribution is beautifully illustrated. There are two serious, yet most informing articles. One is "Wheat Growing in Canada," by Wm. Saunders, Director Dominion Experimental Farms, in which he proves that the Northwest may easily produce 800,000,000 bushels of wheat per annum, or four times the annual requirements of Great Britain. The other is "Soil Utilization," by E.
Stewart, who shows that Canada can best employ her waste lands by turning them into forests. The departments are interesting and replete with photos, cartoons and pictures of current interest.

The burnished plumage of the peacock owes its brilliancy and splendor to a healthful condition. Let the bird be sickly, and the plumage droops and grows dull. There is no exception in nature to the rule that beauty depends on health.

Women who see their beauty waning rarely associate the external change with failure of the womanly health.
They do not understand the close relation of the general physical health to the health of the delicate womanly organism, until after being cured of womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they find the color returning to the cheek and the flesh to the body.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Several years ago I was very poorly," writes Mrs. May Kelley, of Sylvia, Kans., "so weak I could hardly walk across the floor, and at times suffered severely. I took two bottles of Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription and got well and hardly-gained twelve pounds in two months and was the picture of health. Your medicines have cured me. Almost everybody I meet says, 'You look so much better than you have for several years; you look well now.'"

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a lady's laxative. Nothing equals them for gentleness and thoroughness.
