RICHMOND HILL, April 21, 1904

OUR POSTMASTER.

M. Teefy, Esq., our village postmaster, received the hearty congratulations of many friends on Monday, 18th April, that day being his 82nd birthday. Mr. Teefy, we are pleased to say, is enjoying good health, and it is the privilege of few other men to retain unimpaired their intellectual faculties and business propensities at such an advanced age. He arrived in "Little York" (now Toronto) from Ireland in the year 1824, and when quite young engaged in active life. In 1837 he was a printer in the "Patriot" Office, Toronto, and his recollection of many startling incidents in the Rebellion of that year is very vivid. In 1850 he was appointed Postmaster at Richmond Hill, before the Post Office Department came under the control of the Canadian government in the Dominion, and he is now the oldest living postmaster in Canada. In 1853 he was made a Justice of the United Counties of Ontario, York and Peel; a Notary Public in Upper Canada in 1863; and in 1873 he was appointed Clerk and Treasurer of the incorporated village of Richmond Hill, a position which he yet fills with credit to himself, and with advantage to our municipality. Mr. Teefy attends to every department of his work, and is as capable as when he was half his present age. That he may long be spared to enjoy life is the wish of every citizen of this village.

All the hotel-keepers in Toronto Junction applied for licenses this spring as usual, notwithstanding that that town a few months ago, carried Local Option by a good majority. Hon. J. R. Stratton, however, made it plain a few days ago that neither retail nor wholesale licenses would be granted. The people of Toronto Junction surely knew what they were voting for, and having carried the measure they should give it a fair trial. Many municipalities will watch closely to see whether Local Option in Toronto Junction will be a success or otherwise.

A move is on foot in Toronto to endeavour to shorten the term of imprisonment for Col. Gray who was sent to the Central Prison for tampering with the ballots at the recent municipal elections. Col. Gray was M. P. P. for West York in 1883, but at the following election Dr. R. B. Orr secured the nomination at the Conservative convention, and was defeated by Dr. Gilmour. Col. Gray's experiences with Dr. Orr have not been very satisfactory. In days gone by the genial doctor snatched the party nomination from the Col., and the latter seems now to be in trouble for having marked ballots in favor of his former opponent.

It will not be creditable to Toronto if that city re-elects Mr. F. H. Richardson to the position of controller. Furthermore it will not add to the dignity of the Conservative party in the city if Mr. Richardson is their choice. Mr. Richardson in a letter to the press did what few men would care to do in announcing himself a candidate in municipal matters. He made an open bid for Conservative support, saying that he was a supporter and admirer of Mr. Whitney. Surely the Conservatives of Toronto should be satisfied in knowing that they can elect their men in Dominion and Provincial political elections. They can well afford to drop party politics in municipal affairs.

The vacancy in North Renfrew after the death of the late Col. Munro, showed both sides of the House that a change in the law was necessary to insure the filling of the seat within a reasonable time. Consequently the members of the Legislature decided on Monday that the writ for a bye-election must not be delayed longer than three months after a seat becomes vacant. The new act states that if the writ for the election of a new member has not been issued within three months it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to issue the writ forthwith, and all courts, officers, and persons shall give full effect to the writ so issued.
