MR. MOYES OFFERS HELP.

Just as the bell was ringing Wednesday morning of last week giving the alarm for the Robinson fire Mr. Moyes, manager of the Metropolitan Railway, who was in the mail car, very kindly offered to draw the fire engine and other apparatus to a point opposite the fire on Yonge Street. As horses were at hand it was not necessary to accept Mr. Moyes' kindness last week. He told the officers of the Brigade that they must never fail to make use of the cars if they ever could be utilized along Yonge street. It may be necessary on some future occasion to accept the offer, as the fire engine is altogether too heavy to draw by hand.

HORSE DENTISTRY.

Some six weeks ago here a young stallion, Lucky Strike, belonging to Mr. John Rogers of Thornhill, was severely kicked in the lower jaw by a mare belonging to Mr. Kennedy of Markham. One large permanent side tooth was broken right out of the jaw, and picked up off the ground. Dr. Tefft happened to come along and immediately proceeded to replace the tooth in the horse's jaw. The tooth has grown in and is now perfectly secure, to the great pleasure and satisfaction of Mr. Rogers. The young stallion is a great favorite among horsemen here and is valued by the owner at $1,000. The loss of the tooth would have been a serious loss to him.—Markham Economist.

BARN RAISING.

A large number of people were present at the raising of the barn on the farm of Mr. James Murphy on Thursday last. The barn was laid on a concrete foundation, the work of which was done by W. Capell of this town. The frame work of the building was framed by Wm. McKenzie of Willowdale. Messrs. S. McNair and A. Williams were chosen as captains for the raising and a very exciting race took place. Each of the captains claimed a win but on account of the closeness of the finish the referee could not decide and hence had to call it a tie. A sumptuous supper was served on the lawn in front of Mr. Murphy's house to which over one hundred persons did ample justice. During the afternoon a number of photographs were taken by Mr. Josh Horner.

GOOD READING.

There are people in this country who are great readers, but who are not overly fond of heavy reading. They want their information in small pellets, well sugar-coated. They seldom evince any hot haste in their gathering of knowledge, being content to do this part of their life's work slowly and well. For such persons, there are parts of the August Canadian Magazine which will please them and parts which will fail to attract them. They will not object to the five short stories, charming bits of fiction as they are. They will not be averse to examining the two well illustrated articles on "Japan In Time of War" and "Japan's Leaders." They will turn readily to "Idle Moments" and "Oddities and Curiosities." Yet when they come to examine the other articles, they will probably pass them by. They do not desire to know whether the first North American settlement was in Massachusetts, Nova Scotia or Quebec, or whether DeMonts or Champlain really discovered Canada. They will probably declare "The Settlement of Nova Scotia" by Dr. Hanny, and "Annapolis Royal" by Judge Savary to be "historical rubbish." Perhaps they may wade through the sonorous sentences written by that eminent historical scholar, Dr. Rueben G. Thwaites of Madison, Wisconsin; and perhaps through Mr. Bradley's splendid description of the Battle of Ticonderoga and the famous charges of the Black Watch. They may read some of the breezy poems. Yet, on the whole, they will probably say "A Magnificent Number."
