RICHMOND HILL, August 25, 1904

Experts who have visited the western fields all agree that the crop promises a splendid harvest, and the quality will be high. Rust may affect the later grain to a limited extent, but if the fine weather continues to the end of the harvest the farmers will get the finest wheat crop Manitoba and the territories have ever had.

"Keep both hands on the Union Jack." The above sentence, the parting words of Lord Dundonald as he sailed from Montreal, appears in every issue of the Mail and Empire. Such advice is unnecessary. It involves an insinuation that a part of Canada's population is not loyal, and therefore needs watching. Such insinuations are both untruthful and unwise. Canadians are loyal to the British flag, and it is a shame that partizan prejudice runs so high as to misrepresent any class of our citizens. The loyalty cry as kept up in this country is mischievous, as it is annoying for patriotic citizens to be told that they are disbelieved and distrusted. If there is anything that could stagger a loyal man it is to be continually told that he is discredited in spite of his protestations to the contrary.

R. C. PICNIC.

The R. C. Picnic held at Bond Lake yesterday was a grand success. The weather was ideal, the crowd large, and the arrangements were carried out without a hitch by a competent committee of ladies and gentlemen. The pastor, Rev. Father McMahon, was most attentive to his friends, and many members of the congregation lent a willing hand. Mr. John Naughton collected the tickets at the gate, and Messrs. W. Cosgrove and T. Riley attended at the provision tent. Miss Alice Teeffy, Miss Henessey and Miss Haffey had charge of the refreshment booth. Miss Mary Good and Miss Louie Lynett looked after the grab bags, and Miss Gertrude Lynett collected a large sum for a fruit cake, which was finally won by Mr. J. J. Ryan of Toronto. The greatest contest of the day was between Miss Julia Lynett and Miss O'Leary, for a silver tray presented by Mr. J. W. Moyes, the latter winning after a sharp contest. Among the prominent persons from a distance might be mentioned Dean Egan, Barrie; Fathers Jeffcott, Stayner; Carbery, Schouberg; Minehan, Toronto; Whitney, Newmarket; Hon. E. J. Davis, Arch. Campbell, M. P., John Richardson, M.P.P.; County Councillor Pugsley, J. W. Moyes, D. Roach, Newmarket; J. Whinister, W. Ash, E. Frisby, Aurora; Mayor Fisher, North Toronto; Major Lee, E. A. Badenach, P. Bailey, E. Sullivan, F. Lee, P. Maul, Capt Wyatt, W. A. McCarter, A. Cottam, J. Laxton, Dr. McElroy, F. Harris, Mr. Cronan, J. Guiane, Toronto; A. F. Teeffy, Chicago; Mr. O'Keefe, Boston; John Marshall, Pine Grove; and many others. The water was perfect for boating, and during the afternoon and evening many indulged in the dance in the pavilion, to excellent music furnished by Collins' orchestra. The Metropolitan Railway gave a good service during the day.
