FINED AND WARNED.

Mrs. L. Kirkland laid a complaint before Mr. Teffy, J. P., that on the 14th inst. Joseph Blanchard and his wife uttered blasphemous and grossly insulting language to her at the former's residence on Centre street. Summons were issued and the case came up before Mr. M. Teffy and Mr. John Ramsden, Justices of the Peace, Tuesday evening. After hearing the evidence Mrs. Blanchard was dismissed with a warning, and Joseph Blanchard was fined $1 and costs. It is to be hoped nothing of the kind will occur again in this place.

DIED IN HER 15TH YEAR.

We regret to have to record this week the death of Carmal Claffey, only daughter of Mr. John Claffey, at the early age of 14 years, 11 months. Deceased, who had been living with Mrs. M. Hemingway, Unionville, was attacked the early part of last week with diphtheria, and succumbed to the disease about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning. The remains were interred in the R. O. Cemetery, Thornhill. Carmal was a favorite in this village with her teachers, her playmates and her acquaintances, and many will be pained to learn of the great affliction cast upon the sorrowing relatives.

THE JAMES' BAY RAILWAY.

Construction work on the James' Bay Railway is now under way. Many people view the work every day with much interest. The machinery in use is modern and up-to-date, and earth is removed very rapidly by the cutting and elevating machine drawn by three heavy-draught teams and operated by the foreman and three assistants. During the week the men have been at work on the 3rd concession of Whitechurch, through the farms of George Smith, Seth Smith, Arthur Allan and Thomas Forrester. We understand that satisfactory arrangements have been made between the company and the owners relative to the right of way, and the purchase price of the land crossed by the railway track. The tents will probably be pitched some five miles south of their present location in about three weeks.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

An interesting thanksgiving service was held in the Church of England of this place, Thursday evening last. The church was neatly and appropriately decorated with flowers, vines, grain and fruit. The pastor, Rev. John Gibson, was assisted by Rev. Canon Sweeny, of St. Phillip's Church, Toronto, who gave an able address from the words "Let everybody that hath breath praise the Lord." Rev. Mr. Sweeny pointed out passages showing that the bible was a book of prayer and a book of praise. He referred to the many temporal blessings vouchsafed to us, and pointed out the importance of looking forward to spiritual blessings which will be granted those who are faithful to the end. The choir, with Miss A. Kerswill as organist, sang several appropriate selections, and Miss Smart contributed a solo.
