

THEY MADE THIS COUPLE HAPPY

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS DOING GOOD WORK AROUND PORT
ARTHUR.

Mr. Dick Souvey and Wife Both Had Kidney Troubles and the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy
Cured Them.

Port Arthur, Ont., Oct. 24. — (Special).—That Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidney ills of men and women alike has been proved time and again in this neighborhood, but it is only occasionally they get a chance to do double work in the same house.
This has happened in the case of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Souvey, a farmer and his wife, living about seven miles from here. In an interview Mr.
Souvey said:
"My wife and myself have used Dodd's Kidney Pills and have found them a big benefit to our health. We had La Grippe two winters and were exposed to much frost and cold. Our sleep was broken on account of urinary troubles and pain in the kidneys. We each took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now enjoy good health."

ROAD TO SUCCESS.

Sir Alfred Harmsworth Urges Concentration.

Sir Alfred Harmsworth, the English publisher, who has risen from poverty to the possession of millions in a few years, in an article on the secret of business success, says: "It is not, in my opinion, and I base my statement on knowledge of successful men in many lands, the young man who seeks an appointment in an old-fashioned store or settles down to the humdrum work of doing his duty who necessarily makes a fortune. There are thousands of men in this and every other city who are trying to make fortunes that way and never will. It is the man who goes into the store and teaches his employer to sell new kinds of goods in new kinds of ways who eventually becomes strong enough to enforce his demands to a share of that shop or some other shop.

"But he must be well all the time in body, so that his mind may devoted itself to the great success—concentration. Fortunes may come to great gamblers now and then, and such disastrous examples do, I know, disturb the minds of young men. And every venture in life is, I admit, a little of a gamble. But, after all, it is concentration of purpose that is the backbone of all success in the world, whether it be that of the poet or the pork-packer. The man who has cultivated the habit of concentration looks around every proposition so thoroughly that he is not, as a rule, given to buying gold bricks."

MUCH TOO CLEVER.

Mr. Turveytop has, up to very recently, considered himself quite clever, and nothing so pleases him as to get the better of some unsuspecting person.

For a long time his wife had been in need of a new boa; and after hinting that her happiness would never be complete till she had one, he at last decided to gratify her desire. So he went into a shop and picked out a couple, one of which was cheap and the other very expensive.

Upon these he changed the price tickets, putting the cheap price-mark on the expensive boa, and vice versa, and then took them home.

For a long time his wife pondered, and at last said:—

"Now, dear, the expensive boa is a beauty, and it is really very good of you to allow me my choice. Some women would take it without a word but really I don't think we can afford the more costly one, and, besides, I think the cheap one is more stylish, too. Why, what is the matter? Are you ill?"

But Mr. Turveytop had fled into the night, where, unseen, he could lick himself to his heart's content.

A TRAVELLER'S TALE.

One day in Shanghai, when I was feeling ill I called a Chinaman to me and said, "John, do you have good doctors in China?"

"Good doctors!" he exclaimed.
"China have best doctors in world."
"Eudon, over there," I said, pointing to a house covered with a doctor's signs, "do you call him a good doctor?"

"Eudon good doctor!" he exclam-ed. "He great! He best doctor in China. He save my life once!"

"You don't say so!" I said. "How was it?"

"Me velly bad," he said, confidently. "Me callee Doctor Han Kou. Give some medicine. Get velly, velly ill! Me call Doctor Sam Sing. Give more medicine. Me grow worse. Going to die! Blimey call Doctor Eudon. He no got time, no come. He saved my life!"

Husband—"What did you think when you heard the chandelier fall in the night?" Wife—"Why, I thought that you had been detained on 'business' again and were getting upstairs as quietly as you could."

WAITED HIS TURN.

"Doctor, just an instant, please," exclaimed a caller at the house of a man of physic in a country town, as he saw the latter disappearing into his consulting-room.
"I'll see you shortly," was the curt reply.
"But a second is all I want," persisted the caller.
"I'll see you directly," said the other, sternly.
The visitor took a seat in the general reception-room, read the afternoon paper through, looked at the pictures, and played with his dog.
After thirty minutes or more had passed the doctor came out of his den, and with an air of condescension said to the visitor:—
"Now, my man, I am at your service. Your turn has come. What can I do for you?"
"Oh, nothing in particular," was the reply. "I just dropped in to tell you that your neighbor's three cows have escaped from the yard, and are having a picnic among your flowerbeds."

BOTH OF ONE MIND.

Jones and Smith were two old bachelors who lived on the most intimate terms, constantly dined together and smoked the peaceful pipe, and occasionally went off together for a week's holiday. But a change came over the spirit of Smith's dream. Well on in the fifties he got married, and on his return from the honeymoon invited Jones to come and dine with him and be a witness of his happiness. The dinner over, the old friends sat down in front of the fire after Mrs. Smith had gone upstairs.
"Well, my dear Jones," said Bened-dick, "now tell me, quite candidly, what you think of my dear wife?" Jones hesitated for a moment, then replied:—
"Well, Smith, if I must speak quite candidly, I don't think much of her." Smith patted him on the knee as he replied, confidentially:—
"Neither do I, my dear Jones, neither do I!"

BIG SHIRT

Made big enough for a big man to work in with comfort.
Has more material in it than any other brand of shirt in Canada. Made on the H.B.K. scale it requires 39½ to 42 yards per dozen, whereas common shirts have only 32 to 33 yards.

That's the reason why the H.B.K. "Big" Shirt never chafes the armpits, is never tight at the neck or wristbands, is always loose, full and comfortable and wears well.

Each shirt bears a tiny book that tells the whole history of the "Big" Shirt, and also contains a notarial declaration that the H.B.K.
"Big" Shirt contains 39½ to 42 yards of material per dozen.
