RICHMOND HILL, November 3, 1904

Considerable damage was done in the village on hallowe'en. Several fences were torn down in front of private residences, steps were torn up, signs were broken, and much annoyance was caused many citizens. Unfortunately, a good deal of horse-play is expected on Hallowe'en, but those who participate go too far. If a certain element in Toronto and other places were given a free hand as they are here the destruction of property would be appalling. The police, however are always on the alert, and this year there was little disturbance. We certainly think that our Village Council should make some provision for protecting property on hallowe'en. The village has no constable employed, but surely a couple of dollars for a special constable would be money well spent.

The fruit growers of the province, according to a statement to be published in the November issue of The Canadian Horticulturist are much pleased at the action of the railway commission in appointing a special committee, including the President of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association, to visit points in the United States to see what measures have been adopted by the railroads and fruit growers across the border for the transportation of fruit. A special effort will be made by this committee to see if a car can be found that will be suitable for the transportation of fruit during the fruit season and that the railroad will be able to use at other seasons, for other purposes. The short season for shipping fruit has been the chief obstacle in the past to the supplying of properly fitted cars for the trade.

To change the administration at Ottawa at the present time would be like committing commercial and industrial suicide. During the past eight years, the Liberal Government have reduced our taxes, increased the revenue, and lowered the National debt. The North-West is filling up at a most satisfactory rate, thereby broadening the market for home made goods, and there is a feeling of safety and security from one side of the Dominion to the other. The traffic is so great in the west that a second transcontinental railway is an absolute necessity. To change the administration at the present time would greatly endanger the prosperity of the country.

Mr. Alex. Smith an ex-Liberal organizer, predicts a victory for the Laurier Government to-day. Let every good vote be polled. No Liberal who believes that the Government has done well for Canada, should stay away from the polls to-day. Let every elector do his duty.

The trouble between Great Britain and Russia over the deadly attack of Russian ships on British fishermen in the North Sea, seems to be over, for the present at least. The two countries have decided to allow the unfortunate affair to be settled by a commission.

COMPLIMENTARY SUPPER.

By invitation about 60 of the friends in this village and vicinity attended a complimentary oyster supper at the Dominion House last evening, on the eve of the departure of the Ellston family for Toronto, after a residence here of about 10 years. After enjoying the tempting refreshments, an interesting toast list was carried out, Mr. J. W. Osborne acting as chairman, and Mr. H. A. Nicholls assisting as toast-master. "The King" was duly honored, after which "Our Host" was proposed in a neat speech by Mr. Nicholls. Mr. C. H. Ellston in responding showed that he was deeply affected by the sentiments expressed by the proposer of the toast. He welcomed all present, and on behalf of himself, his brother, his mother and sisters, thanked his friends for the kindness shown them during the years they have resided here. In responding to the toast, "The Dominion Parliament and Local Legislature," Mr. Pugsley referred to the manly bearing and business capacity of Mr. C. H. Ellston, and predicted for him a bright future. "Municipal Institutions brought forth good speeches from Messrs. Teffy, C. Mason, T. H. Trench and J. P. Glass. Mr. Teffy said he felt our village was sustaining a loss by the change, and both himself and his family had experienced the obliging and neighborly kindness of the Ellston family.

The following toasts were also proposed and responded to: "Education," by J. H. Sanderson, W. H. Clubine, F. McConaghy, R.T. Andrews and T. A. Lamont; "Farming Industry," by C. Marsh, W. Vanderburgh, G. Duncan, E. Dixon, J. Graham, D. C. Steele, J. McLean and S. Wilcox; "Sports," by T. F. McMahon, G. Sims, W. E. Wiley, H. Sanderson, T. Ludford, F. Barnett, F. Boyle, J. Naughton, J. Glover and A. Glass; "The Ladies," by W. Washington, D. McLean, M. Savage, R. Tyndall, J. Mills, J. Berner, J. Osborne and J. Clift.

Many of the speeches were bright and witty. The speakers acknowledged Mr. C. Ellston's tact and skill as a manager in athletic sports, and testified that the family had endeavored and succeeded in keeping a quiet and up-to-date hotel. During the evening musical selections were contributed by H. Sanderson, G. Champion, J. W. Osborne and A. Glass.

The gathering broke up shortly before 12 o'clock, after singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Nothing "old style" here but the welcome. Atkinson & Switzer.

The Kennedy Shorthand School

Our work differs from that of other schools. We specialize on one thing,—the training of stenographers. In this particular work we are unequalled. No other school does this one thing quite so satisfactorily.

The unprecedented demand for skilled stenographers makes this vocation the very best for young people. Look into the matter at once. Our catalogue will give you much information. It is free.
