RICHMOND HILL, November 17, 1904

Reports are current that King Edward of England and President Roosevelt of the United States are moving in the direction of ending the war between Russia and Japan. Unfortunately Russia feels that to accept intervention or mediation of any kind would humble her in the eyes of the nations of the world, and seems bent on pursuing the war to the bitter end. This is to be deplored. In the name of humanity something should be done to end this horrible butchery and slaughter of human life. With Russia's experience during the past nine months that country should know that the uncertain prize is not worth the horrible cost. Surely if half a dozen of the great powers would declare against a continuance of the war in the east a peaceful settlement might be arrived at. To allow the sickening horrors to continue seems a blot on the civilization and christianity of the 20th century.

Mr. Whitney in an open letter invites members of the Conservative Association and representatives from the municipalities to attend a conference in Toronto on the 24th inst. The letter states that "the policy of the opposition in the legislature is familiar to the people," and he hopes to get into power by promising "clean, honest and decent government." That there has been crookedness in certain elections during the past year can't be denied, nor has any reputable person attempted to deny it, but no corruption has been traced to any member of the government. The Liberals when they meet in convention should, and no doubt will, take a strong stand against corruption of any kind, but no person should be deceived in supposing that Mr. Whitney and his followers belong to the party of purity.

There will be two political conventions in Toronto next week for Ontario Liberals and Conservatives. The Liberals will convene in Association Hall on Wednesday, 23rd inst, and the Conservatives will meet in the same place the following day. We believe that it is quite proper for each party to bring their supporters together and present a programme previous to the general elections, and it is surprising that any objections could be raised to such a course. Yet the Mail and Empire says in a leading editorial that no honorable Liberal will be seen at the former convention. It will be quite in order for that paper to state that no honorable Conservative will absent himself from the convention to be held on the 24th.

The appointment of Mr. W. J. Hill, ex-M. P. for West York, to the position of registrar for the East and West ridings of York, made vacant by the death of the late James Macsie, will give general satisfaction. Mr. Hill has had a useful municipal training as councillor and reeve in York township, and as an alderman in the city, and he was popular and prominent in the local house when he represented West York. His many friends will wish Mr. Hill every success in the position to which he has been appointed.

Lord Lansdowne announced in London that Great Britain had accepted an invitation from the United States for the negotiation of an Anglo-American arbitration treaty.

Judge McMahon recently decided that the Christian Brothers have no right to teach in the Separate Schools of Ontario. The case was then taken to the Court of Appeal but that court has upheld the former judgment. Chief Justice Moss in delivering the judgment of the Court of Appeal stated that the members of the Christian Brothers now teaching in the Ottawa separate schools, must be dismissed as soon as the temporary certificates granted them by the Ontario Government expire.
