Mr. Alex. Russell, License Inspector for East York, has given notice that the Commissioners will meet on Saturday, the 26th of November, to take into consideration the transfer of the license from Moses Henningway of Unionville, to John Rodgers of Thornhill.

The Canadian Almanac will be published about the 15th of December. The almanac will contain about 440 pages, filled with useful and interesting information. Owing to the increased size of the book and the large advance in wages and material, the prices for 1905 will be 40 cents for paper covers, and 75 cents for cloth cases, leather backs. The book will be found invaluable in every home.

The premium picture given this year with the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is a decided change from former years. It is entitled "The Princess at Work," and is proving immensely popular. Those who have received their copies pronounce it easily worth more than the entire year's subscription to that great paper. The publishers are on the look out for energetic canvassers in every locality. Any smart boy or girl can make lots of money for Christmas by writing to the publishers.

UNION SERVICE.

The annual Union Thanksgiving service of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches will be held this (Thursday) morning, commencing at 11 o'clock. The service this year will be held in the Methodist church, and Rev. J. A. Grant, M. A., will officiate. The offering, as is customary at this service, will be divided to be donated to the poor of each church.

Times are looking up. You are looking up bargains; everything is looking up and Atkinson & Switzer's trade is booming.

YORK COUNTY COUNCIL.

York County Council will open its November session in the old court house on Adelaide street, on Monday next. The chief business of the session will be making preparations for the elections in January and the appointment of deputy returning officers. The warden's supper and county commissioners' report will also be features of the session.

PRESENTED WITH A FLAG.

The members of Lord Elgin Camp, S. O. S., received a pleasant surprise Wednesday evening when just before the meeting adjourned Bro. Thomson of Headford, presented the Camp with a beautiful Scotch flag, a present from his sister, Miss Thomson, who had been a tourist in and Scotland during the summer months. The Camp appreciates the present very much, not so much for its intrinsic value, as for the spirit that prompted the gift. Love of one's native land is a wonderful thing, and because Scotchmen love their mother land with a love that is marvellous, that same patriotic love makes of them true and patriotic citizens of Canada.

"Breathes there a man, with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said
'This is my own my native land.'"

A grand entertainment under the auspices of the Maple Public Library will be held in the Masonic Hall, Maple, on Friday, the 25th of November. Further notice by bills.

Miss Mickle of Gravenhurst, who is visiting in Newmarket, accompanied by her friends, Miss York, Mr. Gamble and Mr. Cane of that place, motored down and spent Sunday at the Parsonage.

Everyone enjoyed the Scotch concert given by the Willing Workers' Mission Band two years ago. Come again and be entertained.

The High School football team went to Aurora by Metropolitan car on Friday afternoon, and played a friendly match with the High School of that town. The Hill boys won by a score of 2 to 0.

Mr. Fred Harrison, who had been teaching in Welwyn, Assa., during the summer months, was home for a few days and on Tuesday returned to Kingston to resume his duties in Queen's University.

Always smart — Atkinson & Switzer's mustard.

WHIST CLUB.

The Whist Club met at the home of Miss Palmer on Thursday evening, Nov. 10, and re-organized. The following are the officers for the ensuing year:

A SCHOOL OF SYSTEM.

No haphazard work or methods prevail in the Central Business College of Toronto, and in the instruction given in each department the best feature is possibly the training a student receives in business system. This is one of the many reasons Central Business College graduates are appreciated by business men. A postal addressed to the Principal, Mr. W. H. Shaw, will bring you interesting information about this superior school.

R. B. TEEFY CONVALESCENT.

Mr. Baldwin Teefy's many friends here will be pleased to learn he is recovering from a severe attack of appendicitis, necessitating an operation. The following relative to his illness and recovery is taken from the Stockton Daily Independent of the 5th of November:

"Cashier Teefy appeared at the San Joaquin Valley Bank yesterday forenoon and remained there until 2 o'clock, when he was driven to the home of Mrs. J. M. Welsh, where he will be under orders from his physician until he has fully recovered his strength. Soon after reaching the bank and after dismissing Dr. Harbert, who was the operating surgeon in the case, Mr. Teefy walked to a near by restaurant and enjoyed a light feast of oysters. It was his first luncheon outside of the hospital and he thoroughly enjoyed it for a change of diet, though he said the hospital fare was first-class and the care almost like home attention. Mr. Teefy received many of his friends at the bank yesterday and held a levee at the noon hour when friends crowded in to offer congratulations. He expressed his gratitude to the many thoughtful friends who remembered him while he was a prisoner in the hospital for nearly six weeks and said he could never find time to personally acknowledge their sympathetic communications, which would fill a bushel basket. Mr. Teefy hopes to spend several hours every day at the bank, but his friends will caution him to get into the harness slowly."

The Willing Workers' Band intend holding a Scotch concert in the school room of the Presbyterian church on St. Andrew's night, Nov. 31.

THE CHRISTMAS DELINEATOR.

The December Delineator, with its message of good cheer and helpfulness will be welcomed in every home. The fashion pages are unusually attractive illustrating and describing the very latest modes in a way to make their construction during the busy festive season a pleasure instead of a task, and the literary and pictorial features are of rare excellence. A selection of Love Songs from the Wagner Operas, rendered into English by Richard de Gallienne and beautifully illustrated in colors by J. C. Leyendecker, occupies a prominent place, and a chapter in the Composers' series, relating the Romance of Wagner and Cosima is an interesting supplement to the lyrics. A very clever paper entitled "The Court Circles of the Republic," describes some unique phases of Washington social life is from an unnamed contributor, who is said to write from the inner circles of society. There are short stories from the pens of F. Hopkinson Smith, Robert Grant, Alice Brown, Mary Stewart Cutting and Elmore Elliott Peake, and such interesting writers as Julia Margruder, L. Frank Baum, and Grace MacGowan Cook hold the attention of the children. Many Christmas suggestions are given in needlework and the Cookery pages are redolent of the Christmas feast. In addition there are the regular departments of the magazine, with many special articles on topics relating to woman's interests within and without the home.

People's Plowing Match.

The People's Plowmen's Association held a successful plowing match on the farms of Thomas and John Palmer on Tuesday. The day was fine, and the quality of work done was better than is generally seen at plowing matches. There were 18 contestants in sod and stubble, but the number would doubtless have been much larger but for the uncertain weather up to the day of the match. The land worked very well, and the plowing was particularly good in the sod classes. In the championship class the judges awarded James McLean of Richmond Hill, first prize, but he and Mr. Reeves and Mark Gilham were ruled out as it was claimed they were late in finishing their land.

The judges in the sod classes were T. Hood, Milliken; W. Ormerod, Toronto; and W. Walkington, King. In the stubble classes, R. Canning, Hagerman; G. Forester, Gormley; and John Morgan, Willowdale.

The gathering in the afternoon was a representative one, among those present being the following: Arch. Campbell, M. P., County Councillor Ley, Warden Hartman, W. H. Pugsley, A. Cameron, J. H. Kirby, A. McNeil, D. Blough, W. Cosgrove, D. Lynett, J. Robinson, J. N. Boyle, T. H. Legge, A. Pingle, J. Slater, R. Ash, Reeve Summerfeldt, F. Mason, J. T. Saigeon, L. McCallum, P. G. Savage, T. H. Trench, H. A. Nicholls, J. E. Francis, M. Boyle, F. Elliott, J. Cameron, W. Proctor, J. H. Prentice.

In the evening, from the balcony of the Palmer House, the secretary, Mr. J. F. Davidson, read the list of prize-winners, after which President A. G. Gormley called upon Mr. Arch. Campbell, M. P., who presented the gold medal donated by Mr. W. Savage, to A. McDougall. Mr. Pugsley then presented the silver cup donated by Mr. John Palmer, to S. McClure; and Warden Hartman made the presentation of a gold watch to T. H. Harding in the class for plowers under 18 years of age. Mr. Jas. Ley was then called upon, who congratulated the officers and directors on the success of the match, as well as the plowmen on the excellent work done.

The following are the prize-winners: First class (in sod)—1st, A. McDougall, Malton; 2nd, T. Shadlock, Agincourt; 3rd, J. Cooperthwaite, Hagerman.

Second class—1st, S. McClure, Elder's Mills; 2nd, R. J. French, Milliken.

Third class—1st, T. H. Harding, Milliken.

Fourth class (in stubble)—1st, D. Blanchard, Richmond Hill; 2nd, G. Tran, Mongolia; 3rd, D. Tran, Mongolia; 4th, J. Blanchard, Richmond Hill.

Fifth class—1st, C. Walkington, King; 2nd, L. Cooperthwaite, Hagerman.
