

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, May 4, 1905

The second reading of the Autonomy Bill was carried in the Commons last night by a majority of 81.

Mr. Taylor, chief Conservative Whip, assured the House of Commons a few days ago that so far as he was concerned there could be no objection to the proposed national schools in the North-West which had only half an hour's religious teaching each day.

The Newmarket Express-Herald says that people are "delighted at the change in the license system." Will the Express kindly explain what change has been made in the system. The same paper also says that "the license department under the Whitney Government is being conducted solely on business principles," and that "no man will be given or refused a license on account of his political opinion." Such child-like faith is rarely met with.

They Know It.

Thousands of people throughout the country know that the ordinary remedies for piles—ointments, suppositories and appliances—will not cure. The best of them only bring passing relief.

Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid is a tablet taken internally that removes the cause of piles, hence the cure is permanent. Every package sold carries a guarantee with it.

It is perfectly harmless to the most delicate constitution. A month's treatment in each package. Sold at $1. At any drug store or The Wilson-Fyle Co., Niagara Falls, Ont.

MAY CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

Several military articles give a sort of military character to the May Canadian Magazine. "The Badges of the Canadian Militia," by Captain H. F. Wyatt; "The Militia Council," by the Editor; "The Personnel of the Council"; "Before the Militia Bill of 1868," by Benjamin Sulte—all these articles are appropriately illustrated. The other features are equally attractive. R. E. Macnaughten describes the Canadian West in a three page-poem, with suitable illustrations. G. M. L. Brown, a Canadian journalist who is travelling in South America, contributes an interesting sketch of Venezuela which is accompanied by a number of informing photographs. Alfred Fitzpatrick tells the story of "The Neglected Citizen in the Camps," and what is being done to provide for his moral and educational advancement. Perhaps the most notable article in the issue is "Electoral Management," by H. B. Ames, M. P., who describes an ideal method for organizing a city constituency in such a way as to avoid political corruption. The stories contributed are by J. Gordon Smith, Eric Bohn, Theodore Roberts and L. M. Montgomery. The poetry and the departments are excellent.
