

IRISH MYSTERY SOLVED

SECRET OF MANY YEARS HAS BEEN UNEARTHED.

The Discovery of a Woman's Skeleton Recalls an Old Romance.

A romance of half a century ago has been revived by a discovery at Inch Island, Dingle Bay, Co. Kerry, says the London Express.

A boy who was strolling across the island struck his foot against something sticking out of the ground. He stooped down to see what it was. He had unearthed a human skull, and, full of fear, he fled incontinently from the spot.

He told his tidings, and the police went to the place and began to dig. Two feet below the surface they found the skeleton of a full-grown woman, of medium height.

An inquest was held, but the jury could arrive at no decision. There was no evidence of identification, and there was nothing to show the circumstances of the woman's death.

And then there came back to the minds of the old islanders a memory which seemed to solve the mystery.

Fifty years ago, says the Irish Independent, there lived on Inch Island a man named Moriarty, who had the reputation of being much of a smuggler and not a little of a pirate. He traded, without the co-operation of the revenue authorities, with a Spanish wine merchant, whose son frequently visited Moriarty.

TALE OF TWO LOVERS.

During one of these visits he fell violently in love with Aileen Moriarty, who was also beloved by Murtagh O'Sullivan, the handsome young lieutenant of her father in his illicit trade.

The Spaniard won Aileen's heart, and preparations were begun on a lavish scale for the wedding.

But when the marriage day dawned Aileen and Murtagh had vanished. For many days a feverish but ineffective search was made for them, and at length the young Spaniard sailed home bereft of his bride.

The island tongues were busy, and it was generally agreed that Murtagh had done Aileen to death and fled from the scene of his crime.

The story was told at the fireside on winter nights, and the ghost of Aileen came to corroborate it.

Wayfarers saw her wandering in the moonlight with the hilt of a dagger protruding from her breast. Others beheld her wraith, at the spot where the skeleton was found, kneeling in her bridal robes.

Although the law is unsatisfied, the islanders of Inch are convinced that the remains are those of the murdered daughter of the smuggler.

SERVANTS IN BRAZIL.

Some curious facts about domestic service in Brazil are brought out in a Consular report from Rio Grande do Sul. Servants will not sleep in the house as a rule, but expect to leave at seven at night and not return till seven or eight the next day. As a result, some houses have a pane of glass in one of the windows taken out, through which the maker and the milkman pass their goods on their early morning rounds, without troubling a member of the family to get up and open the door.

BOOK OF BOOKS.

An Oakland lady who has a taste for good literature, tells what a happy time she had on "The Road to Wellville." She says:

"I drank coffee freely for eight years before I began to perceive any evil effects from it. Then I noticed that I was becoming very nervous, and that my stomach was gradually losing the power to properly assimilate my food. In time I got so weak that I dreaded to leave the house—for no reason whatever but because of the miserable condition of my nerves and stomach. I attributed the trouble to anything in the world but coffee, of course. I dosed myself with medicines, which in the end would leave me in a worse condition than at first. I was most wretched and discouraged—not 30 years old and feeling that life was a failure!"

"I had given up all hope of ever enjoying myself like other people, till one day I read the little book 'The Road to Wellville.' It opened my eyes, and taught me a lesson I shall never forget and cannot value too highly. I immediately quit the use of the old kind of coffee and began to drink Postum Food Coffee. I noticed the beginning of an improvement in the whole tone of my system, after only two days use of the new drink, and in a very short time realized that I could go about like other people without the least return of the nervous dread that formerly gave me so much trouble. In fact my nervousness disappeared entirely and has never returned, although it is now a year that I have been drinking Postum Food Coffee. And my stomach is now like iron—nothing can upset it!"

"Last week, during the big Conclave in San Francisco, I was on the go day and night without the slightest fatigue; and as I stood in the immense crowd watching the great parade that lasted for hours, I thought to myself, 'This strength is what Postum Food Coffee has given me!' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. The little book "The Road to Wellville" may be found in every pkg.

RAINY RIVER MAN HAD TROUBLES

TILL DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HIS KIDNEYS.

Then His Rheumatism and Other Pains Vanished Once and For All—His Case Only One in Many.

Barwick, Ont., May 29—(Special).—That Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure Rheumatism, or any other disease resulting from disordered Kidneys is the experience of many of the settlers in this Rainy River country. The case of William John Dixon of this place, is a fair sample of the work the great Canadian Kidney Remedy is doing.

"I had Rheumatism so bad I had to use a stick to walk. I had pains in my back and right hip, and I had no comfort in sleeping.

"I could no more than dress or undress myself for nearly two months, and I was for nearly three weeks I could not lace my right shoe.

"My brother advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and I did so. After taking three boxes I could walk around and lace up my shoes and do my work. Six boxes cured me completely."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are the one sure cure for sick Kidneys. Sick Kidneys are the cause of nine-tenths of the ills the human family suffers from.

SOME "NEVERS."

Never leave until to-morrow what can be done to-day.

Never think that a man marries for beauty; no manly man ever does.

Never look on the world with a sad face when you are able to smile at will.

Never despise the homely woman; a good wife is one of man's greatest blessings.

Never worry; nothing is more fruitless; nothing takes so much from you for so little return.

Never forfeit the good opinion of your neighbors; reputation is one of the prizes of existence.

ANOTHER WAR?

Russian Activity on the Frontier of Afghanistan.

Russia's aggressive policy on the Afghan frontier continues. A new branch line of railway is now being constructed from Samarkand to Termez, on the River Oxus, opposite Balkh, which will be completed within a year.

Balkh, in Afghan Turkistan, is about 13 days' journey from Kabul, across the mountains, though in a straight line the distance is not above 200 miles.

New military roads are also being made towards various points on the Afghan frontier, and in spite of her need of troops in Manchuria, her forces have not been depleted in this part of the world. They amount to five army corps, or about 200,000 men.

Preparations are now in progress which clearly indicate that after the conclusion of peace Russia intends to endeavor to rehabilitate her shattered prestige by a movement southward. No invasion of India is projected, but a minor upheaval that she proposes to inaugurate in the Upper Oxus, and occupy Northern Afghanistan to the line of the Hindu Kush, to seize Herat and occupy Khorasan, and to make her influence supreme in Teheran and Northern Persia.

This program could be carried out even now without the slightest difficulty, and without the possibility of its being prevented by Great Britain. Russia would make at present no further advance beyond that indicated, and if Great Britain actively resented Russia's action, she would have to operate far from her bases. It remains for the Imperial Government to decide promptly what policy is to be pursued when the inevitable advance occurs.

This, it is thought, will constitute the first great move of Russia towards the Persian Gulf, and will prepare the way for the ultimate challenge of British supremacy in India.

DRY IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Owing to the continued dry seasons in South Africa, which have caused the destruction of large droves of cattle, a large demand for pumps and wind-mills has sprung up. The sinking of wells has become a pronounced necessity. Even the government boring machines have been called into use to supply cattle with the necessary quantity of water to sustain life.

Mild in Their Action.—Pain-Relieving Vegetable Pills are very mild in their action. They do not cause gripping in the stomach or cause disturbances there as so many pills do. Therefore, the most delicate can take them without fear of unpleasant results. They can, too, be administered to children without imposing the penalties which follow the use of pills not so carefully prepared.

SOAKED THE PROFESSOR.

Prof. Albert Hoffa, an eminent German surgeon, has been ordered to pay heavily for sending his motor car, in the tank of which there was about three gallons of petrol, from Munich to Oeaseneur. Petrol is reckoned as a dangerous combustible, and the professor was accused of defrauding the State railway of the amount due for the carriage of the spirit. As combustibles are charged according to their weight, including that of the receptacle in which they are contained, the railway officials weighed the motor car with the petrol, and the professor has been asked to pay a fine of $5,385.

A METHOD OF SELECTION.

"Where is your family going to spend the summer?"

"It isn't decided yet," answered Mr. Cumrox, wearily. "Mother and the girls are still writing letters to find out which hotel charges the most."

They Are a Powerful Nerveine.—Dyspepsia causes derangement of the nervous system, and nervous debility once engendered is difficult to deal with. There are many testimonials as to the efficacy of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills in treating this disorder, showing that they never fail to produce good results. By giving proper tone to the digestive organs, they restore equilibrium to the nerve centres.
