

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, August 10, 1905

Mr. W. F. Maclean, M. P. for South York, made two speeches in the House of Commons favoring the salary bill when it was under discussion, but immediately on his return home he addressed his constituents at Wexford, declaring his opposition to the measure. In the course of his speech in South York Mr. Maclean said:

"The coercion of Saskatchewan and Alberta was to be bought with senatorships and governorships, with grants, with extravagances in public money, with offices for those members who were about to stultify themselves and therefore dare not seek reelection, and above all, by the direct promise of an increased sessional indemnity to members and a pension for ministers if they'd see coercion through."

Mr. Maclean's constituents will probably wonder why their member took one position at Ottawa, and one directly opposite at home. The member for South York is not ashamed of his utterances, however, as he had the speech reprinted in Tuesday's World.

The plenipotentiaries in the interests of peace between Russia and Japan have already held several sessions at Portsmouth, N. H. It cannot be doubted that both sides are in good faith and sincerely desirous of bringing the war to a speedy termination. The opinions expressed in the despatches this morning are not very encouraging as it is feared that Japan's conditions, should they include a cash indemnity, will not be accepted by the already humiliated nation. It is to be hoped, however, that the plucky little people who have been victorious in almost every engagement may be generous to an almost conquered foe. For the good of humanity and the saving of human blood let the Christian world pray that the murder and butchery may be stopped at once.

Mr. W. F. Maclean and The World charges the Mail with having betrayed Sir John Macdonald, Sir John Thompson and Sir William Meredith, and the Mail replies that "Mr. Maclean opposed all the leaders from Sir John Macdonald to Mr. Borden, and was depreciating Mr. Whitney at the very moment when that gentleman was preparing for his great victory." The above are examples of the brotherly love that exists between members of the same family.

A LONG RIDE.

Two brothers, Messrs. Walter and Jack Milne, who left Cleveland, Tennessee, the early part of last week in their automobile, No. 220, passed through this place about noon yesterday bound for North Bay. The indicator showed that they had travelled 975 miles. They had dinner at the Dominion House and called on their cousin, Dr. H. W. Anderson, dentist, in his office here.

News Notes.

The Locust Hill Clippers have won the Intermediate Football Championship of Ontario. This is an achievement well worthy of mention.

Elizabeth Jerman, wife of James Torrance, Markham, died at her home Monday, August 7, aged 32 years. Interment in St. Andrew's church cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Etobicoke Township Council has passed a new agreement with the Toronto Radial Railway for the extension west of Long Branch. Work will commence at once.

Between twenty and thirty people were killed and many others injured by the collapse of the departmental store of the John G. Myers Company at Albany on Tuesday morning. The building was undergoing repairs and collapsed when a central iron pillar was removed. Most of those killed and injured were lady clerks.

Personals (Continued.)

Mrs. T. B. Ludford and Miss Orma Ludford attended the 10th anniversary of the wedding of Mrs. Alex. Wilson, Mrs. Ludford's youngest sister, last Saturday in Toronto.

Miss Jessie Moodie left a few days ago to spend a month at Seaford and St. Mary's. She was accompanied by Mr. G. Moodie and Mr. Murray Vandenburg, who will remain a week.

Mr. W. H. Pugsley started yesterday for a trip to Indian Head, Assa., to superintend the harvesting on the farm of the Pugsley Bros. at that place. Mr. Pugsley may be away a month or six weeks.

Last Sunday's World contained an engraving of "A Good Day's Catch of Black Bass," and the information was given that the feat was accomplished at Sparrow Lake by Mr. A. S. Savage and three friends from Toronto.

Mr. Frank Dolan played his first lacrosse match at Markham on Saturday, and by all accounts gave a good account of himself. Frank is an enthusiast in lacrosse and is doubtless the making of a strong player.

Mrs. A. J. Wright and Miss Lorine Wright started Monday for Stanley Brae, Muskoka, where they purpose spending about a month with Mr. Wright. They were accompanied by Mr. Osmond Wright, who will spend a week with them before returning to Detroit.
