DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS DOING GOOD WORK AROUND PORT ARTHUR.

Mr. Dick Souvey and Wife Both Had Kidney Troubles and the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy Cured Them.

Port Arthur, Ont., Sept. 18.—(Special).—That Dodd's Kidney Pills cure kidney ills of men and women alike has been proved time and again in this neighborhood, but it is only occasionally they get a chance to do double work in the same house. This has happened in the case of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Souvey, a farmer and his wife, living about seven miles from here. In an interview Mr. Souvey said:

"My wife and myself have used Dodd's Kidney Pills and have found them a big benefit to our health. We had La Grippe two winters and were exposed to much frost and cold. Our sleep was broken on account of urinary troubles and pain in the kidneys. We each took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now enjoy good health."

MEN OF WEALTH IN LONDON.

Men Who Owned 250 Millions Between Them.

American millionaires have been as thick as black-berries in London, England, recently. For instance five multi-millionaires slept at Claridge's Hotel recently. Practically the whole of the first floor was given over to these American representatives of the House of Mammon. The millionaires who inscribed their names on the hotel register were:

Mr. William Rockefeller, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company, and railway magnate, whose fortune is estimated at $100,000,000.

Mr. George Westinghouse, the inventor and proprietor of the famous Westinghouse air brake, who is worth $50,000,000.

Mr. George Jay Gould, banker and railway owner, worth $30,000,000.

Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt, railway magnate and inventor, worth $10,000,000.

Mr. Harry Payne Whitney, banker and financier, $10,000,000.

A very simple sum in addition will demonstrate that the elevator boy at Claridge's has enjoyed the novel sensation of hoisting a quintet of capitalists representing about $250,000,000.

Though they occupied the entire first floor the members of this millionaire quintet, a word from whom would shake the bourses of the world, led the simplest of lives at Claridge's. They entertained little, had few visitors, and paid few calls. So exclusive, so terribly select, was this little coterie of Croesuses that except for a daily drive in the park and a little shopping their days passed without event. These millionaires made no attempt at a lavish display. Apparently they went to the other extreme and became adepts in the fine art of cutting down expenses. The wives of these mighty millionaires passed through the stately corridors of Claridge's wearing the plainest of gowns, while the simplest of menus were adopted by the millionaires themselves. Twice a day they met at the table d'hote. A simple little dinner of a few courses was their favorite meal—clear soup, a sole, a little game, and sweets. No American dishes were served. Little wine was taken, Mr. Rockefeller's beverage being milk.

Conversation at these meals was limited to discussions regarding the weather. Never by any chance did they touch upon the money market.

ONE-TOED WOMEN.

Everybody has heard of the small feet of the ladies of China. But it is not so generally known that they commonly have but one toe. This is, however, the fact. The great toe of the females of the first rank, and of some of the inferior classes also, is the only one left to act with any freedom; the rest are doubled down under the foot in their tenderest infancy, and retained by compresses and tight bandages till they unite with and are buried in the sole.

Shipowners are agitating for a reduction of the port charges at Liverpool, which they complain is the dearest port in the world. The liner Pretorian was charged £90 the other day for occupying a berth at the landing stage for one hour, during which time only three hundred sheep were landed.

As a thirteen-months-old child named Christina Emma Eason was running across Little Exmouth street, St. Pancras, she was knocked down and run over by a water cart. Just then her father a coal porter, turned the corner of the street, and, learning that a child had been run over, picked it up without knowing it was his own child, and ran with it to the London Temperance Hospital, where it was found to be dead.

A Birmingham girl named Jennie Jones, took a child in her arms to a tap in the yard for the purpose of filling a large jug with water. Without any warning, the bricks on which she was standing fell in with a crash, disclosing a well fully fifty feet deep. The girl managed to push the child into safety, and she herself clung to the water tap till rescued.

Owing to a mistake in the delivery of a telegram a full military band travelled from Reading to Hook, in Hampshire, one Saturday, and furnished music at a cricket match. Major Barker was playing cricket at Hook and wanted another man. He wired to Lieut. Hall at the barracks in Reading, "Come and play." The telegram was addressed simply, "Hall, Barracks, Reading," and was delivered to Drummer Hall. Hall took a band of twenty pieces, and went to play; but it was not cricket that he played.

The new Wesleyan Methodist Church house to be erected in Westminster on the site of the old Royal Aquarium, which was acquired in 1902 at a cost of £330,000, will be a magnificent building of the Renaissance style. The large hall, which is intended to seat 2,500 persons, will have a domed roof surmounted by cupola. Adjoining the central hall will be the various rooms and offices needed for carrying on the organizing work of the Wesleyan Methodist Connexion, which will make the new church house its headquarters. The facade of the new building with its pillars and flanking towers on each side of the main entrance, looks not unlike a miniature St. Paul's. A statue of John Wesley will occupy a prominent position on the frontage. The cost of building the edifice is estimated at £140,000.

Mr. McWhirter, the well-known Royal Academician, was riding down Regent street, London, in a hansom, when the horse stumbled, and the artist and his wife were thrown out of the vehicle. Mr. McWhirter sustained a broken thigh, which was set at Charing Cross Hospital the same night.

GET POWER.

The Supply Comes From Food.

If we get power from food, why not strive to get all the power we can. That is only possible by use of skillfully selected food that exactly fits the requirements of the body.

Poor fuel makes a poor fire and a poor fire is not a good steam producer.

"From not knowing how to select the right food to fit my needs, I suffered grievously for a long time from stomach troubles," writes a lady from a little town in Missouri.

"It seemed as if I would never be able to find out the sort of food that was best for me. Hardly anything that I could eat would stay on my stomach. Every attempt gave me heart-burn and filled my stomach with gas. I got thinner and thinner until I literally became a living skeleton and in time was compelled to keep to my bed.

"A few months ago I was persuaded to try Grape-Nuts food, and it had such good effect from the very beginning that I have kept up its use ever since. I was surprised at the ease with which I digested it. It proved to be just what I needed. All my unpleasant symptoms, the heart-burn, the inflated feeling which gave me so much pain disappeared. My weight gradually increased from 98 to 116 pounds, my figure rounded out, my strength came back, and I am now able to do my housework and enjoy it. The Grape-Nuts food did it." A modern weapon in the battle for health—If disease has taken your citadel of health, the stomach, and is torturing you with indigestion, dyspepsia and nervous prostration, South American Nerve is the weapon to drive the enemy from his stronghold "at the point of the bayonet," trench by trench, but swift and sure, it always wins.—4

Clarissa—"Of course I love you, Clarence. Haven't I just danced eight times with you?" Clarence—"I don't see any proof in that." Clarissa—"But you would if you only knew how you dance."

A Magic Pill—Dyspepsia is a foe with which men are constantly grappling but cannot exterminate. Subdued, and to all appearances vanquished in one, it makes its appearance in another direction. In many the digestive apparatus is as delicate as the mechanism of a watch or scientific instrument in which even a breath of air will make a variation. With such persons disorders of the stomach ensue from the most trivial causes and cause much suffering. To these Parnee's Vegetable Pills are recommended as mild and sure.

SHOULD LADIES MAKE LOVE?

The young man was evidently honest in his intentions, but three years of constant courting had failed to overcome his excessive bashfulness. They were sitting in chairs at a respectable distance apart.

Said the young man, having spent five minutes in search of a subject, "How do you get along with your cooking?"

"Nicely," replied the young miss; "I'm improving wonderfully. I can make splendid cake now."

"Can you?" said the young man, in a pleased manner. "What kind do you like best?"

"I like one made with flour, and sugar, and citron, and raisins, and lots of those things, and beautiful frosting on top," responded the young miss.

"Why, that's a wedding cake!" exclaimed the young man, nervously.

"I meant wedding," said the young miss, shyly. They are off on their honeymoon now.

Catarrah for twenty years and cured in a few days.—Hon. An old woman met a well-to-do and humorous Irishman, and said: "Kind sir, could you give a copper to a poor old woman who is short of breath?"
