SECOND ASSISTANT.

The Secretary of the Board of Education received a letter a few days ago from Miss Dingman of Acton, asking a release from her engagement as a teacher in the High School. The Board accepted the resignation, and have since engaged Miss Preston of Napanee who will assume duties next Monday.

ON DUTY AGAIN

Everybody is glad to see Josh's favorite horse on the milk wagon again after being on furlough for a year and three months. "Old Bill," as he is familiarly known, stumbled on Yonge street, opposite McDonald's harness shop, in June, 1904, breaking a bone between the fetlock and the hoof. The soreness in Bill's foot is gone, but the joint is quite stiff.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Mrs. Derry's next Tuesday evening at 7.30. The delegate to the County Convention will give her report at this meeting and the election of officers for the coming year will take place. A full attendance of members is requested as other matters of importance will be discussed. All interested in W. C. T. U. work will be made welcome.

ALLIANCE MEETING

A very interesting meeting was held in the Sunday School room of the Methodist church last Thursday evening in the interest of the Lord's Day Alliance. A very able and interesting address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Shearer, agent of the Alliance for the Dominion, showing the determination of the Alliance to protect the sacredness of the Sabbath, and the successful work they have done in the year now closing. Officers were appointed and new members secured for this branch.

DEATH FROM POISONING.

Another death occurred in Toronto Junction a few days ago, by eating toadstools in mistake for mushrooms. Andrew Jackson Goulding, 64 years of age, gathered the poisonous fungi, and the family partook of them. Other members of the family were very ill, but it is hoped they will recover. The wonder is that there is such a mania for mushrooms. It would be far better if they were discarded altogether from the table.

If some one should slip $3 or $4 into your pocket you'd be apt to think it a kindly act. We've tried to do the same thing in our offer on made-to-measure fine suits. Atkinson & Switzer.

STOPPED AGAIN

The James Bay Railway continues to experience difficulty in extending its roadway along the Don flats. Last week their counsel obtained an order in court expropriating part of Thorncliffe Farm, the property of Mr. Robert Davies. But his wife, Mrs. Margaret Davies, is also a land-owner in that vicinity, and she also refuses to let the construction gang break into her grass farm. The railway company was ordered by Mr. Justice Magge Tuesday to pay into court $375 for every acre taken, and is then permitted to press on with the work.

FROM THE GOLD FIELDS.

Mrs. Mahony received a short time ago from a son, Mr. J. J. Mahony, a member of the North West Mounted Police at White Horse, a purse of money and several articles made of the solid Yukon Gold. Among the articles sent were a gold cross, and a beautifully engraved spoon. Also a number of gold nuggets. For his brother Alfred he sent a gold watch chain and pin, and for Mrs. Alfred Mahony a lovely gold ring. J. J.'s friends will be pleased to know that he is prospering in the West.

CANADIAN MAGAZINE.

The anniversary number of The Canadian Magazine was issued to-day. With the October number closes the twenty-fifth volume of this successful periodical. The table of contents shows a distinctively Canadian flavor, and this is one of the strongest features of the magazine. The contributors in the present issue include Benjamin Sulte, Louis Frechette, W. W. Campbell, Jean Blewett, W. A. Fraser, J. S. Willison, Charles Roberts, A. MacMechan, and other well-known Canadian names. The number is one of the most interesting which the Canadian Magazine has ever issued.

DEMINY ARRESTED

James Deminy, referred to in last week's LIBERAL, 17 years of age, whose home is said to be in Hamilton, was arrested a few days ago near Niagara Falls, charged with horse-stealing and burglary. It is supposed he stole a horse, buggy and harness from Simon Baker, 2nd con., Markham, and drove to Aldershot, near Hamilton. There, it is said, the horse gave out, so he turned the animal into the woods and stole another. With the new horse he drove to Queenston, fifty miles, on the 11th of September. He got work with a farmer and remained at Queenston. McClive's fancy store at Brock's Monument was burglarized, and the detectives got evidence connecting Deminy with the job. Detective Wadsworth arrested the young offender on Sunday, and the authorities communicated with Mr. Baker. The latter left at once to identify the horse and rig. Deminy had stolen Mr. Baker's horse on two former occasions.

The supreme importance of absolutely accurate and up-to-date market reports is appreciated by all classes of people who wish to buy or sell. In this respect the information given by The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer is eminently satisfactory. The commercial page contains the very latest and most reliable information available. It is especially prepared for the use of the farmers, and thousands transact their business upon the basis of the information given. This feature alone makes this great newspaper absolutely necessary to its readers who are in active business, and is one of the reasons why so many people have taken The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer for years without a break. It is indispensable to their business success.

MR. WINTER'S ESTATE.

Michael Winter died at the village of King City, in the township of King, on Dec. 25, 1904. He left an estate valued at $8000, of which $4,000 is in book debts and notes, and the balance in farm property in King township. The executors are Joseph Milton Winter and Christopher William Arthur Winter, sons, and they are instructed to sell all the real estate of the testator, within one year of his death, and pay to his eldest daughter, Mrs. M. R. Garrow, $400; to the youngest daughter, Mary Almeda Winter, $500, if unmarried, or $400 if married at the time of his death; the household furniture also goes to the two daughters named, the balance of the estate to be equally divided among the three sons.

A DISINTERESTED OPINION

Bowmanville Statesman: Farmers, are you acquainted with The Weekly Sun? If not you might do worse than send 25c to King street west, Toronto, and receive it for the rest of 1905. It claims to be an independent journal for farm and home. The claim is fair. It is a clean paper, therefore fit for the home. It is particularly adapted to the farm home because it is edited and published with a view to interest every person in the home—the old and young, male and female—all may read it regularly with profit. Its market page we consider equal to the best in the Dominion for farmers. This is no paid notice or puff; it is our candid opinion, and we unhesitatingly recommend The Sun to every farm house in Canada. It is one dollar a year, and good value for the money.

PRESENTATION

The brethren of Richmond Lodge held an informal meeting in the lodge room last evening, spent a pleasant hour with Bro. R. E. Law on the eve of his departure to British Columbia, and presented him with a purse. The presentation was made by W. Bro. D. Hill, Master of the Masonic Lodge. All the brethren present gave short addresses, spoke of the many years Bro. Law had been with them, and wished every happiness for Mr. and Mrs. Law and family in their new home. Bro. Law replied in feeling terms, thanking the brethren for their remembrance, and referring to the pleasant associations about the lodge.
