Boyle; Secretary, Miss Duncan; Treasurer, Mr. J. Morgan; Chaplain, Mr. Andrews; Historian, Miss Trench. The first regular meeting will be held at the home of Miss A. Boyle on Wednesday evening, Nov. 1st. Members from the village will take the 8.10 p.m. car south.

SAFE FOR TWO YEARS

For stealing the same horse from Mr. Simon Baker, Markham township, three times, and for stealing a shotgun and other articles from his employers, James Deminy was sentenced by Magistrate Ellis to two years (less a day) in the Central Prison. Had the sentence been ten years instead of two the old horse might have been under the sod by the end of the term, and the owner would have the satisfaction of knowing that "his day's work was done." However, Mr. Baker may be thankful that the old favorite may not be molested for the next two years—less a day.

EAST YORK LICENSES

East York license commissioners met at the Clyde Hotel on Saturday afternoon to determine the extension of the licenses remaining over for the balance of the year. In addition to those already issued in East York at the May session, and which will not expire until May 1, 1906, the following were on Saturday granted a six months' permit: David Birrell, York Mills; A. W. Grange, Todmorden; Charles Mitchell, York Township; C. F. Lavender, Norway; H. C. Clendenning, Woodbine; James H. Kennedy, Woburn; Chas. S. Crewe, Half-Way House; W. W. North, Victoria Square; Newbury Butten, Ringwood; Mrs. Rosa Harris, East Toronto; Mrs. A. Dixou, East Toronto.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Village Council has instructed the clerk to have Notices printed and circulated in reference to the disease on fruit trees known as "Black Knot." It is hoped that every person in the municipality who has cherry and plum trees will fall in with the idea and endeavor to preserve their trees by cutting out and burning all black knot wherever it appears. There is a fine of from $5 to $20 for neglect to do so, but no person need fear a fine if he reads the Notice carefully and governs himself accordingly. By neglect to look after one's own trees he not only suffers loss himself, but gives his neighbor cause to complain, as it is known that the disease spreads from one orchard to another.

STOLE A GOLD WATCH

A youth who gave his name as John Saxton came to the Dominion House Saturday night, asked for lodging and was accommodated. Sunday forenoon Mrs. Stong found that her gold watch had been taken from her bedroom and suspicion was at once thrown upon the above individual, who by that time had gone away. He was traced later in the day, and it was found that he had offered to sell a watch to Mr. Harry Marsh answering the description of the one taken. County Constables Walter Stewart and John Michael arrested Saxton at the C.P.R. crossing about 9 o'clock Monday morning. At first he denied the charge, but afterwards admitted that he sold the watch to a Mrs. Fisher for $2, on the 2nd concession of Markham. He was taken to jail and rewaranded for a week.

AN AUTHOR AND HIS HYMN.

Strange as it may seem, often it happens that one who has done many deeds of importance is remembered by some little thing. Thus, Robert Robertson, the English divine, did a great deal in a literary line and prepared several volumes for publication, but he is known chiefly through being the author of the hymn, "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing." In connection with the hymn which he wrote, an interesting anecdote is related by Allan Sutherland in the November Delineator:—"One day, on one of the well known roads, a lady had been for some time engaged over one page of a little book, which, in the course of the journey, she had occasionally consulted. Turning, at length, to her companion in travel, a gentleman from whose appearance she gathered that an appeal on such a question would not be disagreeable, she held the open page toward him, and said, "May I ask your attention to this hymn, and ask you to favor me with your opinion of it?" "Her companion glanced down the page, and seeing that the hymn was 'Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing,' made an attempt to excuse himself from conversation on its merits; but the lady ventured on another appeal. 'That hymn has given me so much pleasure,' she said; 'its sentiments so touch me; indeed I cannot tell you how much good it has done me. Don't you think it very good.' Madam, said the stranger, bursting into tears, 'I am the poor, unhappy man who wrote that hymn many years ago, and I would give a thousand worlds if I had them, to enjoy the feelings I then had.'"
