Headford

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 7, Victoria Square visited our League. The visitors, who numbered about forty, arrived at a little after seven o'clock. An interesting programme was then given by the visitors. The chair was ably taken by Mr. L. Nichols. The programme was opened by singing "Glory to God in the Highest," followed by prayer. The chairman gave an interesting talk on the topic, "New Work We May Do for Christ and the Church."—Luke 12:48. The Headford ladies gave lunch. A vote of thanks was then moved to the visitors, and all parted with happy hearts. The home League were very grateful toward the Victoria Square friends, and hope some time to be able to return the kindness.

Miss Retta Leek is spending a time with relatives in Toronto.

We are sorry to record Mr. Fred Johnston's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dean entertained a few of their friends on Friday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wellman spent a few days at Mr. D. Wellman's.

Miss Hattie Brodie spent from Friday until Monday with Miss G. Harris, Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leek spent a few days with relatives in Toronto.

The Headford people have been quite well since Dr. Cure All made his visit, and I hope he may call again.

VOTERS, BE TRUE!

If you wish to help the right,

Boldly go and vote.

Show your colors in the fight,

There your wish denote.

Do your best to help the cause

In procuring better laws,

Free from nullifying laws,

Home joys to promote.

Though your homes may now be free

From drink's withering touch,

None is safe, who'er he be,

Many once were such.

Danger lurks in "bar" and street,

Tempters all around you meet,

Swift to lure unwary feet

In their greedy clutch.

With a noble purpose go;

Vote the traffic's doom.

For a trade producing woe

Give no longer room.

Shake your garments from the dust—

From the soul-destroying lust.

In the God of Israel trust

That our land may bloom.

Let each one who would be true

Use his influence;

Manfully his duty do,

Strong in the defence

Of the cause that now demands

Every vote our force commands.

Work with willing hearts and hands,

And at once commence!

Such a traffic in our land

Must be swept away

Which destroys on every hand,

Ceaseless night and day!

Vain the efforts to restrain,

Victims everywhere are slain—

Lost to earth for love of gain—

Go, the vampire slay!

—P. L. GRANT.

Richmond Hill, Jan. 15, 1906.

THE BAR-ROOM.

It may curse your home.

It may ruin your child.

It may crush your heart.

It may do this, and too late you may find out that it was a mistake to vote to maintain the bar-room.

Be on the safe side, vote against the bar-room by voting for this law. 33-1

The liquor business tends to procure criminality in the population at large and law breaking among the saloon-keepers themselves. It debauches not only the body social but the body political as well.—President Roosevelt.

Missionary services were held in the Methodist church on Sunday last. In the morning Rev. Mr. Langford of Victoria College preached, and Rev. Mr. Sibley and Rev. Mr. Joffiffe took part in the service. In the evening Revs. Brechin and Reddick gave addresses on mission work.

There was no service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning on account of communion at St. Paul's church. In the evening Rev. Mr. McKinnon of Woodbridge and Rev. W. G. Back exchanged pulpits.

On Wednesday evening the congregation of St. Paul's church met at the manse and presented Rev. W. G. Back with a beautiful gold watch. The presentation was made by Mr. J. McGillivray, and Mr. J. McNeil read an address. Mr. Back was completely taken by surprise, and replied, thanking the donors for the beautiful and useful gift.

Preparations are being made by several of our citizens for building houses during the coming summer.

Miss Daisy Saigeon, who has been visiting at Tormore, and Miss Elsie Tisdale, who has spent several weeks in Toronto and Weston, returned home on Sunday.

Rev. Jos. E. and Mrs. Wilson left on Tuesday for a two weeks' visit with friends at the "Soo."

MADE FROM NATIVE ROOTS.

SAFE AND RELIABLE.

That the roots of many native plants, growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well proven. Even the untutored Indian had learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked work so he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible that she might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore, he dug "papoose root" for her, for that was their great remedy for female weaknesses. Dr. Pierce uses the same root—called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine in curing all the various weaknesses and painful derangements peculiar to women.

Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower pelvic region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not go unheeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvelous benefit in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time. The "Favorite Prescription" is a harmless agent, being wholly prepared from native medicinal roots, without a drop of alcohol in its make up, whereas all other medicines, put up for sale through druggists for woman's peculiar ailments, contain large quantities of spirituous liquors, which are very harmful, especially to delicate women. "Favorite Prescription" contains neither alcohol nor harmful habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on each bottle wrapper. It is a powerful invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. For weak and sickly women, who are "worn-out," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office, or school-room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will prove a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.
