TEMPERANCE HOUSE AT MAPLE.

As Mr. Duck, the hotel-keeper at Maple, has stated that he purposes closing his place as a hotel on the first of May, when local option goes into force, and as temperance advocates at that place gave their word before the vote was taken that accommodation would be provided for the travelling public, a committee of temperance men have bought the store and dwelling of Mr. E. Although Monday of last week was one of the stormiest days of the season quite a crowd of people gathered at Mr. C. H. Boynton's and a satisfactory auction sale was the result. Horses went as high as $200, last spring calves $28 each, and many other things in proportion.

PRESENTATION.

On Tuesday evening, 20th of March, the congregation of St. John's church, Oak Ridges, met at "Duncombe," the residence of Mr. Alleyne. The evening was spent in social games. At the close a charade was acted to represent the word "Presentation." At the end of this charade Miss Mary Alleyne read an address to Miss Alexina Morton who was seated in a chair and supported on either side by Mr. Arthur Alleyne and Mr. Harry Legge, wardens of the church. Miss Gladys G. Legge presented Miss Morton with a basket of flowers, and among the flowers arranged as cornucopias were bank notes to the amount of nearly thirty-five dollars, being a slight recognition of Miss Morton's services as organist. Miss Morton was completely taken by surprise but replied suitably. Refreshments were daintily served by the Misses Alleyne, and Miss Morton favored those present with a number of songs. The company dispersed after singing "Auld Lang Syne."

The Concrete Store

is doing its best to first, build up a big Concrete store, and second, to increase Richmond Hill's business as much as possible. We are just selfish enough to want all the trade we can possibly get, but if for any reason we don't get it, then we are here to fight for Richmond Hill in preference to all the outside world.
