

THERE IS NOW A MASS OF PROOF

THAT LUMBAGO IS ALWAYS CURED BY DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Quebec Man Cured his Kidneys with Dodd's Kidney Pills, and his Lumbago Vanished.

Quebec, P. Q., April 2.—(Special).— John Ball, a bricklayer, residing at 57 Little Champlain Street, this city, has added his statement to the great mass of proof that Lumbago is caused by dis-ordered Kidneys, and consequently easily cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.
Mr. Ball says:

"I was troubled with Lumbago for two years. I could not work. I had to get up at nights to urinate so often that my rest was broken. I read of cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills and made up my mind to try them. After the first box I could see and feel a change. Three boxes cured me completely."

Lumbago, like Rheumatism, is caused by uric acid in the blood. Uric acid cannot stay in the blood if the Kidneys are working right. Dodd's Kidney Pills make the Kidneys work right.

KAFFIRS AND SLAVES.

Origin of Two Words is an Interesting Bit of History.

Very curious has been the history of the word "kaffir." The French explorers who have been opening up the Sudan and Sahara find that they are called kaffirs by the Mohammedans, while Sir Henry Rawlinson once said that the loveliest Oriental lady he had ever seen was a kaffir slave at Kabul. When she had loosened her golden hair she could cover herself completely as with a veil. This name of kaffir is as world-wide as Islam-ism, for it is the name of "unbeliever" applied by true Mohammedans to those that refuse the faith. The Portuguese found it applied to the negroes of East Africa by their Arab predecessors, and handed it on to the Dutch and to the English. The kaffir slave in Kabul belonged to one of those black-clad mountain tribes in the heart of Afghanistan who till 1895 defied their Moslem neighbors, and on their dizzy precipices gloried on their idolatry. These Afghan kaffirs claim to be descended from the Greeks who came with Alexander in his conquest of the east.

A remarkable instance of verbal degradation is the word "slave." Its original, the Russian "slava," meant glorious, being etymologically akin to the English word "glory," and was proudly taken as their name by the Slavonic people. But when the Germans reduced hosts of the Slavs to servitude their name, from malice or accident, as Gibbon says, became synonymous with "servile." It retains no more suggestion of its racial origin now than does "ogre," which is really "Hungarian," from a confusion of the Magyars with the Huns, and of both with the terrible Tartars.

Cure the Nerves and you will control almost every disease, that flesh is heir to. The foundation of health is a perfect stomach and good digestion—these right and you are insured plenty of nerve force, perfect circulation and pure blood.
South American Nerve is a wonder-worker—gives nerve force—makes rich blood. It's a veritable "Elixir of Life."

The Lady: "Pa wants us to wait ten years before we marry; but that will not matter, dear George. You will still be young then." The Escort: "Yes, my dear; but it was not of myself I was thinking."

A SKIN THAT BURNS with eczema, and is covered with eruptions that discharge a thin fluid, may be made smooth and slightly with Weaver's Cerate. But this external remedy should be used in conjunction with Weaver's Syrup.

MAKING PAYMENT.

"All I have in the world I owe to my wife," murmured the millionaire, who was about to fail, "and I guess I better square up with her right now."

And he proceeded to put his possessions in his wife's name.

"Why, Clara, you look radiant! What has happened?" "I've just received an invitation to a wedding." "Well, there's nothing particular in that to go into ruptures over." "Yes, but it happens to be my own," and she showed the new engagement-ring.

He (on his knees)—"Darling, I love you with all my heart, with all my soul, and with all the strength of my being." She—"Are you in earnest, Clarence?" He frenetically—"In earnest! Do you think I am bagging my trousers in this way for fun?"

A STUDENT'S MANIA.

An Extraordinary Case Aired in a Berlin Court.

A most extraordinary story is told in the Central Criminal Court of Berlin, Germany, the other day, by Robert Stoss, a student, 22 years of age, who was charged with causing bodily injury, public violence and theft. These three charges were represented by Stoss, having cut off the hair of sixteen young girls in the streets of Berlin.

Evidence was given that Stoss had passed all his examinations with honors and that he had special talent as a mathematician. He was an industrious, well-behaved student.

When questioned by the presiding judge, Stoss said that his taste for beautiful, long hair was so intense that he could not resist it. He began cutting off girls' hair the day the Crown Princess made her public entrance into Berlin.

"I cannot explain why I could not resist temptation to cut off girls' hair," he said. "I perpetrated the second offence in November last, when the King of Spain arrived in Berlin, and the girl whose hair was cut off did not notice what had been done."

"What did you do with the hair?" asked the judge.

"I took it home and kept it in a box labeled 'Reminiscences,'" replied Stoss.
"If you were liberated would you promise never again to cut off girls' hair?" asked the judge.

"I cannot promise. I cannot say whether I could resist the temptation," was the reply.

Stoss stated that he had tied each trophay with a ribbon and labeled it with the date on which he obtained possession of it.

The court discharged Stoss, his relatives promising to place him under restraint.

Doctored Nine Years for Tetter.—Mr.
James Gaston, merchant, of Wilkes-barre, Pa., writes: "For nine years I have been disfigured with Tetter on my hands and face. At last I have found a cure in Dr. Agnew's Ointment. It helped me from the first application, and now I am permanently cured."—135.

"Yes," said the fair young girl, "everybody says I'm just the picture of mamma." "Well," replied the gallant youth, "you're certainly a flattering picture."

THE JAPS did it. They supplied the Menthol found in the "D & L" Menthol Plaster, which relieves instantly backache, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism and sciatica.

He: "I'd consider it a great pleasure to talk to a woman like Miss Gassa-way." She: "What! Why, she'd talk you to death." He: "I said I'd consider it a pleasure to talk to her, not to listen to her."

Peach: "Mr. Riche says very bitter things about those lazy sons of his, but his wife is always making excuses for them." Bloom: "Yes, she makes excuses, but he has to make allowances for them; that's what angers him."

No Heart too Bad to be Cured.—Testimony could be piled high in commendation of the wonderful cures wrought by Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. No case stands against this great remedy where it did not relieve the most acute heart sufferings inside of thirty minutes.
It attacks the disease in an instant after being taken.—131.

you must bring your bill every day, at least you might come with your face tied up, so that people will think you are a patient."

A BROAD STATEMENT

This announcement is made without any qualifications. Hem-Roid is the one preparation in the world that guarantees it.

Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid will cure any case of Piles. It is in the form of a tablet.
It is the only pile remedy used internally.

It is impossible to cure an established case of Piles with ointments, suppositories, injections, or outward appliances.

A guarantee is issued with every package of Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, which contains a month's treatment.

TRY SINGING.

An eight-year-old girl, with a cut in her hand, was brought to a physician. It was necessary for the best results to take a few stitches with a surgeon's needle. While the physician was making preparations the little girl swung her foot nervously against the chair, and was gently admonished by her mother.

"That will do no harm," said the doctor, kindly, "as long as you hold your hand still, adding with a glance at the strained, anxious face of the child, "You may cry as much as you like."

"I would rather sing," replied the child.

"All right, that would be better. What can you sing?"

"I can sing, 'Give, Give, Said the Little Stream.' Do you know that?"

"I am not sure," responded the doctor. How does it begin?"

The little patient proceeded to illustrate.

"That's beautiful," said the doctor. "I want to hear the whole of it."

All the while the skilled fingers were sewing up the wound, the sweet, childish voice sounded bravely through the room, and the only tears shed on the occasion came from the eyes of the mother.

It is, I believe, a physiological fact that some expression of one's feelings tends to lessen pain. Since weeping and groaning are distressing to one's friends, how would it do for us all to try singing instead?

Sunlight Soap is better than other soaps, but is best when used in the Sunlight way.

To appreciate the simplicity and ease of washing with Sunlight Soap in the Sunlight way you should follow directions.

After rubbing on the soap, roll up each piece, immerse in the water, and go away.

Sunlight Soap

will do its work in thirty to sixty minutes.
Your clothes will be cleaner and whiter than if washed in the old-fashioned way with boiler and hard rubbing.
Equally good with hard or soft water.

REFLECTION.

surveying a row of pictures he had taken of a number of patrons.

"There is no denying the fact," he muttered, "there are some ugly features in this business."

How long have your Kidneys been sick?—Here's South American Kidney Cure evidence that's convincing: "I am Disease, but half a dozen bottles did it." "I thought my days were numbered, but this great remedy cured me." It never fails.—134.

"My dear Miss Kempton," remarked Mr. Cliftonville, meeting the young lady by chance, "your new hat is simply divine. I crossed the street especially to get a better view. However, I shouldn't like to sit behind it at the theatre."
"But, then, you needn't," retorted Miss Kempton, with an arch smile; "for you are welcome to sit beside it." What could the poor boy do?

her to take a thing—not even my advice as to how things should be done."

cure you.

"Last winter I coughed for three months and thought I was going into Consumption. I took all sorts of medicines, but nothing did me any good until I used Shiloh's Consumption Cure. Four bottles cured me. This winter I had a very bad cold, was not able to speak, my lungs were sore on the side and back. Six bottles of Shiloh made me well again. I have given it to several people, and every one of them have been cured."—D.
