MRS. JOHNSTON'S DEATH.

The town emptied itself en masse yesterday,—to pay its respects to one whom we all loved,—as we followed her to her long rest. Mrs. Johnston, after more than a year's suffering, finished the struggle on the evening of Saturday the 7th, at her home in Toronto Junction, and the funeral took place yesterday. Rev. Dr. Hazelwood, her minister, assisted by Rev. Mr. Campbell and Rev. Mr. Sandersen, conducted the service at her late home, which was attended by a host of friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, (many of them from a distance), after which the cortege drove across the city to North Toronto where a private car was waiting. A nice feature of respect was the marching of the High School boys to the Junction border. On arriving at the Hill an opportunity was given to all who so desired to pass through the car and look upon the face of the departed. The tear-stained faces and hearty expressions of sympathy everywhere showed the public respect for the family bereaved. Banks of flowers rested on the coffin. Rev. Drs. Wilson and Hazelwood and Rev. Mr. Campbell conducted the closing service at the grave. The family will with this receive our tenderest expressions of condolence. The floral tributes were as follows:—Boys of the Collegiate, wreath; Girls of the Collegiate, wreath; Form I. (a) and Form I. (b) of the Collegiate, spray; Literary, spray; Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, spray of roses; the Teaching Staff of the Collegiate, spray of lilies; Miss Charles, spray of white and pink roses; Mr. Johnston's Sunday School Class, spray of roses and tulips; Mrs. Proctor, spray of lilies; Anson and Harry Carrol, white roses; Rev. D. and Donald Atkinson, anchor; crescent wreath with "Wife"; "Gates Ajar"; a sheaf of wheat with seven lilies; Mrs. Gilchrist, spray of lilies; Students of Collegiate, spray roses and carnations; Miss Kinghorn, spray roses; Stanley Thompson, carnations; Miss King, spray.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of
