CHANGING THE MARKET

"The following paragraph is taken from the county news in Monday's World:—

Because local option has closed up the hotels at Stouffville, the weekly market for butter, eggs and other produce, which has been a feature of the town's affairs, will be discontinued. Markham council has therefore decided to take over the market and will open a weekly market in the town hall. It will be held on Tuesday of each week, and it is expected will attract a goodly attendance of purchasers from Toronto."

SUDDEN DEATH

We regret to have to record this week the sudden death of Mr. H. Winch, a respectable citizen here for the past few years. Deceased seemed to be in his usual health on Sunday, but at 11 o'clock Sunday night he had a paralytic stroke. He never rallied, but died the following day at 12 o'clock. Service was conducted at the house Wednesday morning, after which the remains were taken to Queensville and interred in the family plot. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, two sons and a daughter. His sons are W. J. at Headford, William at Thornhill, and his daughter, Mrs. Connell, Thornhill.

DIED AT YORKTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Michael who with their three children spent the winter with relatives here, and who left for their home at Crescent Lake, Sask., on the 5th of March, send sad news back. Before leaving here their youngest child, Ena Grace, a bright little girl 13 months old, showed signs of illness. On the journey home measles developed, and the mother was obliged to remain with her baby at Yorkton. Bronchial pneumonia followed and the child died in a few days. While here Mr. Michael, who is usually strong and robust, was attacked with grippe, and was under the doctor's care for several weeks.
