Losing Your Hair?

And doing nothing to keep it? Most women like thick, heavy hair; long, luxuriant hair. Don't you? Then use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer. You save what hair you have and get more at the same time. For the whiskers and moustache we make BUCKINGHAM'S DYE. It colors a rich brown or a soft black. R. P. HALL & CO., Nashville, N. H.

An Enjoyable Evening.
A large and appreciative audience assembled in the Masonic Hall last evening when a musical and dramatic entertainment was given under the auspices of the Ladies Guild of St. Mary's Church. Every person who took part was well applauded, and the audience thoroughly enjoyed the excellent programme offered. The following ladies and gentlemen took part in the first half of the programme: Caroline Cassels, (Mrs. Percival C. Dean) Contralto; Mr. F. H. Kirkpatrick, Reader; Miss Mortson, Soprano; Miss Evans, Cello; Miss Cassels, Cello; Miss Kingston, Violin; Master Davidson Ketchum, Child Pianist; Mr. Earle Newton, Accompanist.
The last number in Part I, was a very pretty tableau in which the following ladies stood in graceful poses: Misses Kerswell, Palmer, Glass, Marsh, Boyle, Preston, and Mrs. A. Savage.
But, enjoyable as the first part was, the burlesque tragedy "Blue Beard" in the second part was the feature of the evening. The play was presented in a manner which left little room for improvement or criticism, and was deserving of the highest praise. The following is the cast of characters: Blue Beard, Mr. Percival C. Dean; Fatima, Mrs. Loosemore; Sister Anne, Mrs. W. E. Dean; Guldner, a dumb slave, Miss Duncan; Selim, Hassan, Caspard, brothers: Mr. John Morgan, Mr. Edward Palmer, Mr. Percy Proctor; wives and bridesmaids, Misses Kerswell, Palmer, Wright, Boyle, Marsh, Glass, Smart.

The committee in charge, and the performers are to be congratulated on the success of the entertainment.

STRAIGHT DENIALS
Both of Stouffville's papers—The Pilot and the Tribune emphatically contradict the statement made in The World one day last week that the weekly market in Stouffville would be discontinued on account of local option having passed in that village. In a strongly worded article the Pilot says: "The paragraph was no doubt sent to the World for publication with evident intention of trying to injure the general business of Stouffville, and whoever the mean cur was who did such a cowardly thing would not stop short of doing any contemptible trick to accomplish his end. As a matter of fact [Thursday last—the first market day under local option—was the best and largest that has been held in Stouffville for some months past, notwithstanding it being one of the busiest seasons to the farmer. Whatever else may happen the Stouffville market—like the brook—will go on forever." The Tribune was equally indignant that a report should go abroad that the market would close because the houses of "liquidation" were not granted license. The Tribune says: "The world correspondent was either the victim of a huge joke, or else he is descended in a straight line from that ancient worthy Ananias."

KLINCK—JENNINGS
A very pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, Victoria Square, on Wednesday, May 9th, when their eldest daughter Olive Ha, was married to Mr. Roscoe Franklin, Klinck, third son of Mr. Thomas Klinck of the same place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith of Richmond Hill, under an arch of evergreen and flowers. The bride was unattended. At three o'clock the bride entered the room on her father's arm, while Miss Nellie Jennings, sister of the bride, played the wedding March. The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk with insertion and lace trimmings. The bride's going away suit was New Blue Silk Henrietta and picture hat. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents, among those being a beautiful white ostrich stole and feathers, a gift from Johnnasburgh, South Africa. After the ceremony about 35 guests sat down to an excellent repast. Amid showers of rice and good wishes the happy couple left Richmond Hill on the 8.10 p.m. trolley, for Toronto and other points. On their return they will reside at Victoria Square.

Trust to Nature.
A great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive aid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the whites which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherrybark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy. Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alcohol.
The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glyceric extracts of the above mentioned vegetable ingredients and contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.
