

AFTER 18 YEARS OF SUFFERING

AN ONTARIO FARMER FINDS A CURE AT LAST IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

The Direct Cause of His Trouble Was a Strain in the Back Which Affected His Kidneys—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Ardoch, Ont., May 14.—(Special).—Mr. Ami Jeanneret, of this place, gives a very interesting account of his experience with Dodd's Kidney Pills. He says:—

"I hurt my back and strained my kidneys and for 18 years I suffered on and off intense agony. I was subject to attacks of Rheumatism and Lumbago. My joints were stiff, my muscles cramped. I lost my appetite, my flesh began to fall away, my nerves were shaken, I could not rest or sleep at night and I was sinking into a deplorable condition when I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used six boxes and I am now as strong and healthy as ever I was. I am certain I owe my cure wholly to Dodd's Kidney Pills."

A TERRIBLE STORY.

How the Natives of East Africa Are Civilized.

The Hamburg correspondent of The London Daily Mail sends this story to his paper of the triumph of civilization in German East Africa.

A stirring account is to hand of the valuable assistance which an English elephant hunter, Mr. Southerland, gave the German troops in their fights in East Africa.

A certain station was in great danger, when the defenders determined to attack the oncoming Wagonis. The little expedition only consisted of two German officers, Mr. Southerland and thirty-two native warriors. The next morning the enemy, 700 to 800 strong, were encountered.

The enemy badly armed, but with fanatical courage, attacked undaunted. Captain Rishter felled their leader with a well-aimed bullet, and the natives on the German side with their fire created great havoc, but still the savages swept forward.

The situation was most critical, when the Englishman, a splendid shot, began to use his heavy No. 12 elephant gun, with expansion bullets. Every shot aimed at the head, told with fearful effect. The enemy retired, but only to attack again and again. The Englishman, however, stayed at his post until the ground was covered with his victims. The rest of the savages then fled, panic-stricken.

A number of the rifles had fallen into the hands of the rebels, but by a ruse of Mr. Southerland's they were destroyed. Forty highly-explosive cartridges, too heavily loaded for the rifles, were placed so that they fell into the rebel's hands. When used they exploded, and several rifles were found later bearing evidences of the violent end of those who had fired them.

DISAPPOINTMENT.

"What do you think of that appointment?" asked the statesman.

"It doesn't seem like an appointment to me," answered the disapproving citizen, "it is a disappointment."

The Most Popular Pill. — The pill is the most popular of all forms of medicine, and of pills the most popular are Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, because they do what it is asserted they can do, and are not put forward on any flimsy claims to excellence. They are compact and portable, they are easily taken, they do not nauseate nor gripe, and they give relief in the most stubborn cases.

Little Tommy was very quiet during the first courses, and everyone forgot he was there. As the desert was being served, however, the host told a funny story. When he had finished, and the laughter had died away, his little son exclaimed, delightedly, "Now, papa, tell the other one."

"Thought it meant death sure."—Mrs. James McKim, of Dunnville, Ont., says of her almost miraculous cure from heart disease by Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart: "Until I began taking this remedy I despaired of my life. I had heart failure and extreme prostration. One dose gave me quick relief and one bottle cured me. The sufferings of years were dispelled like magic."—3.

"But I do not love you," objected the young woman. "Then, why," howled the indignant youth, referring hastily to divers memoranda in his pocket diary "did you eat a total of sixty-five boxes of chocolates I bought you during the past year if you didn't love me?" "Because," she said, with a rapt expression on her lovely features, "I do love chocolate."

Prospective Guest—"Do you set a good table here?" Hotel Clerk—"Well rather. Why folks come here perfectly healthy, and go away with the gout and dyspepsia!"

GIRL SEES VISION ON DEATHBED.

She Describes the Death of Her Missing Father.

An unusually interesting instance of "second sight" is reported from Accrington, Lancashire, England. A young woman on her deathbed, not only announced her father's death, but described the spot where his body lay, the fact of his death not being known to anybody at the time. The man in question was Isaac Marsden, fifty-three years old, who lived in Stevenson Street, Accrington. His daughter, 25 years old, had been wasting away with consumption for months.

About a week ago Mr. Marsden disappeared from home under mysterious circumstances—that is, no reason was known for his going away, and nothing could be learned of his whereabouts. Miss Marsden was deeply distressed by this event. On Thursday she told those who were at her bedside that she had seen her father's form.

"You will find his body in the water at Aspen Bridge, Oswaldtwistle," she said.

About an hour later Miss Marsden died. Mr. Marsden's body was found in the canal at the spot named by his daughter.

HOW IT SPREADS

The first package of Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid (the infallible Pile cure) that was put out went to a small town in Nebraska. It cured a case of Piles that was considered hopeless.

The news spread, and although this was only two years ago, the demand prompted Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, of Lincoln, Neb., the discoverer, to prepare it for general use. Now it is being sent to all parts of the world.

It will cure any case of Piles. There is a month's treatment in each box.

Sold for $1.00, with absolute guarantee. It is for sale by druggists, or by The Wilson-Fyle Co., Limited, Niagara Falls, Ont.

"My Stomach gave out entirely and I suffered untold agonies." This was the experience of Mr. D. G. Whidden, Postmaster, East Wentworth, N.S., after three attacks of La Grippe. Doctors and doses gave him no permanent relief, but Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets had the permanent virtue that won him back to perfect health—pleasant and harmless but powerful and quick. 35 cents.—100.

MUSICAL DEPUTIES.

Australian Diet Became an Orchestral Concert.

An extraordinary scene occurred at Laibach, Austria, at the sitting of the Carniola Provincial Diet. There was a debate on suffrage reform, and the Slovenian party, who feared that the Clericals would gain if the proposals were carried, determined to prevent the debate at all costs.

They armed themselves with musical and unmusical instruments, and on entering the Chamber played them with great enthusiasm. Some rang cowbells, one beat a great drum, two clashed cymbals, another worked a loud gramophone, others sounded motor-car horns, bicycle whistles, and used rattles, so that the party looked like an orchestra.

These instruments were played for four hours uninterruptedly to prevent their opponents speaking.

After the adjournment of the sitting for lunch the disturbance began again, the Mayor of Laibach acting as conductor. The friends of the demonstrators, including ladies in the gallery, yelled and sang.

The President of the Chamber passed the time in reading newspapers. The Liberals declare they intend to continue these tactics throughout the session.

WIDOW BURNING IN INDIA.

The Relatives Aid Suicide of Hindu Woman.

The stringent efforts of the Indian authorities have not succeeded in stamping out suttee or widow burning.

According to Hindu custom a widow must immolate herself upon her late husband's funeral pyre and meet death by fire. Two cases of suttee have been brought to light in India within a month. A young Hindu widow at Cawnpore stole away from her home, saturated her clothes with kerosene and set fire to them in the heart of the civil station. She was found with her jaws bound as if for burial and at the point of death.

At the Punjab Court five men and a woman appealed against the judgment of the Sessions judge at Delhi who had sentenced them to ten years' imprisonment for taking part in the immolation of a widow aged twenty.

The suttee was performed in the presence of a great crowd on the banks of the Jumna. Two village chiefs endeavored to dissuade the woman from her purpose, but she calmly mounted the funeral pyre, her relatives piling fuel around it. Then, at her request, they gave her a lighted brand and she set the pile afire. Straw was strewn about the pyre and in due course the body of the widow was consumed. The ceremony lasted six hours.

The four relatives and the headmen were arrested and admitted the main facts.

ECONOMY IN MUSIC.

The cook was giving the new housemaid her impressions of their employers. "You'll find them just about the meanest people alive," she said, with conviction. "Regular misers, that's what they are. 'You must be economical,' that's always the cry here. Why, do you know, it isn't more than two days since I see the master and missus both playing on the same piano at the same time! What do you think of that, now!"

INSIDE YOUR BONES.

People usually imagine that their bones are of solid mineral construction, without any feeling in them. As a matter of fact, there are blood vessels and nerves inside the bones just as there are outside. During amputation of a limb much more pain is felt when the bone is attacked than when the flesh is being cut through. Through the marrow which is inside the bones run the nerves and blood-vessels, entering the bones from the flesh without by little holes. Nature adapts the bony structure of various animals to their habits in a very interesting manner. Sluggish creatures, like the sloth, have solid bones, whereas the bones of the deer and the antelope are comparatively light, so that they may run fast, and the leg bones of the ostrich are hollow. You will find in the bones of any skeleton the application of mechanical principles which have only become known to man through the processes of laborious and long-considered invention.
