

RICHMOND HILL, ONT., June 21, 1906

County Councillor, W. H. Pugsley is freely spoken of as a likely successor to the late Sheriff Widdifield. The appointment would be a most popular one, and Mr. Pugsley would fill the office with dignity and honor. The office requires a man of ability and good judgment, and we are sure the Government will make no mistake if the appointment be given to Mr. Pugsley.

The provincial License Department has received the report of the analysis of so-called regal beer sold in the Cobalt mining district as a temperance beverage, several bottles of which were sent to the department some time ago. The report says the liquid contains more than 2 1/2 per cent. of proof spirits allowed by the law, and the sale of the liquor will therefore be stopped.

A warm debate occurred at the Toronto Methodist Conference Saturday morning over the clause in the new Liquor License Act making a three-fifths vote necessary to carry local option. Strong objection was taken to the clause by many of the delegates. The daily papers report Rev. T. Campbell as follows:— "I have in my heart a dread that the whiskey element is behind this proposition of the Whitney Government. I prophesy that in five years we will be back to whiskey. I haven't seen a drunken man in Richmond Hill since the first of May, and yet had the present act been in force we would not have had local option."

No one who knows the Premier will be surprised that Sir Wilfred Laurier took the proper and dignified course when a few days ago, a motion was made in Parliament to censure Mr. Cinqmars. The latter is a young Frenchman who used some very strong and unparliamentary language towards Hon. Mr. Foster in La Presse newspaper. It is to be regretted that a large number of Liberal members took the view that Mr. Foster, who frequently indulges in cutting language when dealing with political opponents, was not entitled to the protection of the House. The reporter was cheered when summoned to the Bar of the House, several of the members referred to the incident as something only to be laughed at, but the Premier maintained that Mr. Cinqmars had passed the bounds of reasonable criticism, and consequently supported the vote of censure.
