

SOLDIERS KILL OFFICERS

A Serious State of Affairs in the Russian Army.

The Times' correspondent at St. Petersburg cables as follows:—Scheplin has returned from Bialystok with evidence that minor police officials instigated and organized the massacres, higher officials observing a benevolent neutrality.

Disaffection in the army steadily increases. Two garrison artillery battalions at Sebastopol mutinied, but were disarmed. Soldiers at Krasnoyarsk wounded a colonel and killed a captain. Both had sabred men while in a state of intoxication. At Riazan the mutineers killed nobody, because they aimed high. The mutiny is reported over, all the men's demands having been granted. A strike of the dockers at Rybensk seriously interferes with the grain trade.

DETAILS OF MUTINY.

The Associated Press cables from St. Petersburg:—A serious mutiny, which for a time threatened to place the fortress of Sebastopol in possession of the mutineers was suppressed yesterday, according to a special despatch to The Novoye Vremya. The mutiny was started by a battalion of fortress artillery which declined to obey orders, whereupon the men were promptly disarmed. The two battalions then mutinied and took possession of the guns in the north shore batteries, but on the appearance of several loyal regiments of infantry the mutineers abandoned the idea of fighting and returned to their barracks.

General Nepleuff, commander of the fortress of Sebastopol, is represented to be greatly concerned about the temper of the sailors as well as the soldiers of the fortress.

MORALE OF THE ENTIRE ARMY SHAKEN.

That the morale of the whole army is being shaken by the revolutionary propaganda is proved by the continual extension of the rebellious outbreaks among the troops. It appears to be confirmed that the Bolshevik regiment at Ryazan has driven out its officers and burned the armory. Another report says the soldiers deliberately attacked the officers' club at Ryazan, killing one officer and wounding two others. A panic prevails in the town.

Four companies of the Viborg regiment stationed in St. Petersburg have presented demands which were acceded to, and they have now returned to duty.

The soldiers of the notorious Semenovskiy regiment, whose name became synonymous with repression owing to the deeds committed by these troops at Moscow, are reported to have held a meeting and to have decided that they cannot any longer endure the public opprobrium, and must wipe out the stain on the regiment. The tenderness with which the military authorities are treating these and recurring exhibitions of the mutinous spirit among the troops is sufficient evidence that they fear the entire army is infected.

"DOWN WITH THE JEWS."

A despatch from Berlin says: An inhabitant of Bialystok, Russia, who was present during the entire massacre there and who has arrived in Berlin, has given the German-Hebrews' Aid Society an account of the recent events there in part as follows:—

"June 14 was the fortieth anniversary of the compulsory admission of many Catholics to the Orthodox Church and a celebration of the event was elaborately planned. The police and military were fully armed, apparently prepared for a conflict. Though there were no visible enemies, the Jews became alarmed and sought hiding places. On Thursday processions of Orthodox Russians and Catholics to the churches began and were apparently passing without incident. Later an uproar began at one part of the processions, and the rumor spread that the Jews had thrown a bomb into the crowd and were tearing a Russian priest to pieces. The crowd shouted 'Down with the Jews!' and thereupon roughs armed with clubs entered the nearest Jewish houses and brought the inmates out, destroying whatever they found within.

"The military in the meanwhile began firing upon the houses of prominent Jewish townsmen, and Jews were hauled from their houses, beaten to death and their bodies mutilated beyond recognition.

"The Jewish shops in the vicinity in the meanwhile were plundered, ruffians taking away all the portable valuables. Furniture, mirrors and pianos were demolished and the remains thrown into the street."

The account goes on to tell vividly of the revolting scenes that followed.

NOT ENOUGH MEN FOR HARVEST.

Cry For Help Will be Great, Says Immigration Official.

A Winnipeg despatch says: "Not for many years has there been such a shortage of labor as this season," said J. J. Golden, Provincial Commissioner of Immigration, on Thursday. "There has been so much railway construction in progress and the roads are so hard up for men that they are snatching up every available hand. However, even with the railways eliminated, it would be impossible this summer to supply the demands throughout Manitoba and the West for farm help to gather the harvests. Even now we cannot meet the demand, and as the summer advances the cry for help is going to be enormous. My estimate now is that there will be needed at least from 20,000 to 25,000 men to harvest the crops."

Among the immigrants who will arrive in Winnipeg on Saturday will be thirty-two fishermen from Stormoway, of the Island of Lewis, which belongs to the Hebrides group. The immigration authorities are puzzled where to place the fishermen from the faraway islands as they know nothing of farming.

CHURCH GUTTED BY FIRE.

Hamilton's Central Presbyterian Badly Damaged.

A Hamilton despatch says: Central Church, the leading Presbyterian church here, situated at Jackson and McNab streets, was gutted by fire early on Wednesday morning. The fire, which was supposed to have been caused by electric wires, broke out shortly before 1 o'clock. There was some delay in giving the alarm, and when the firemen arrived they had work cut out for them. The smoke was so dense that it was hard to locate the fire, but after water was poured into the building for some time flames burst out of the front and side windows, which were all blown out. The firemen prevented the flames from spreading to the Sunday school, but the inside was gutted. The loss will be heavy. The church was built many years ago, and was one of the handsomest in the city, having been improved several years ago. A short time since a fine new organ was installed. Rev. Dr. Lyle is the pastor.

CATHEDRAL DESTROYED.

Magnificent Structure at Nicolet, Que., a Prey to Flames.

A despatch from Nicolet, Que., says: Fire broke out in the cathedral on Thursday night, utterly destroying the magnificent structure, together with the old parish church, convent of the Sisters of Assumption and the residence of Monsiigneur Suzor, late Bishop of Nicolet. The loss is estimated at about $400,000, on which there was partial insurance. Three hundred Sisters were in the convent when the fire broke out, but they had time to escape, not, however, before many had fainted and some of the older ones had become hysterical. Fortunately, the children who go there to study had returned to their homes for holidays. It is not known how the fire originated. The local fire brigade was quite overpowered, but assistance came from St. Hyacinthe.

WILL ENFORCE LOCAL OPTION.

The Government Appoints a Special Inspector.

A Toronto despatch says: In the appointment of J. A. Ayeard, of Thamesville, to be Provincial Inspector, under the Liquor License Act, the Ontario Government has again exemplified its desire to enforce fully the law as it is at present. This new official will be employed for the special purpose of seeing that there are no violations or evasions of the statutes in local option districts. Such a position was provided for by the Liquor License Act, as it stood, prior even to the amendments of last session, but no steps were taken to fill it. The duty of seeing that liquor was not sold in local option municipalities was left to the inspectors of licenses within whose jurisdiction such places existed. These officers are not ably placed from that duty now, but they will have the aid of a new authority, who will travel about the province, visiting local option districts.

CAR RAN AMUCK IN STREET.

Dashed Into Vehicles Crowded With Excursionists.

A despatch from London, England, says: One of the worst disasters in the history of electric tramway-traffic in this country occurred on Saturday in the vicinity of the famous Highgate Archway. One of the Middlesex County Council's splendidly equipped trams got out of control and dashed at fearful speed down the incline. On the way down it crashed into and overturned a funeral coach and finally dashed into a motor omnibus and another electric tramcar at the foot of Highgate Hill. The two latter vehicles were crowded with Saturday afternoon excursionists. On the way down the car, which had attained a speed of sixty miles an hour, wrecked a number of small vehicles. The motor bus was smashed to pieces and hurled through a neighboring shop front. There were extraordinary scenes of panic. The dead and injured were lying about like soldiers on a battlefield. Three persons were killed on the spot and some forty injured. Some of the latter are not expected to recover.

DEAD UNDER CAR.

A Prominent Citizen of Montreal Was Run Over.

A despatch from Montreal says: John Morrison, one of the best known citizens of Montreal, was knocked down and killed by a street car on St. Lawrence Main Street on Sunday morning. Mr. Morrison, who was in his 74th year, had been out for a walk and was returning home. While crossing Pine Avenue, on the main street, a car on its way down town came along, and before Mr. Morrison, who was not very active, could get out of the way, he was caught by the car and dragged under the wheels, both of his legs being severed. He was dead when removed from under the car. Deceased was a noted character in his way, and had been a familiar figure in financial circles for many years. When in his 69th year, Mr. Morrison, who had been a bachelor up to this age, married a young woman, and as he had no other relatives his large estate will revert to her.

TOLD FRIEND TO FIRE.

William Ryder Shot Dead by Milsay Kincade.

A Sussex, N.B., despatch says: William Ryder, eighteen years old, lies dead at his home at Jordan Mountain, about twelve miles from Sussex, as the result of a shooting accident which occurred on Saturday morning. Ryder and Milsay Kincade, a fourteen-year-old lad, were at the Ryder home, and Ryder passed Kincade his rifle, telling him it was not loaded, and if he doubted it to point it at him and fire. The boy did so, but unfortunately the rifle was loaded, and Ryder fell to the floor unconscious. He died six hours later. The charge entered Ryder's forehead, crushing it in and putting out both eyes. Some shot also lodged in the elbow, which goes to show that he must have had his hand to his forehead when the gun exploded.

KING HAAKON CROWNED.

An Imposing Ceremony in the Old Norse Cathedral.

A Trondhjem despatch says: King Haakon, son of the present King of Denmark, and Queen Maud, daughter of King Edward, were on Friday crowned King and Queen of Norway, in the cathedral here. The coronation ceremonies, which were very elaborate, were conducted by the Bishop of Trondhjem, assisted by the leading Cabinet Ministers and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. After the anointment of His Majesty by the bishop, the latter and Prime Minister Michelsen jointly placed the crown on his head, after which Foreign Minister Loveland and the bishop jointly handed him the sceptre. After a prayer offered by the bishop, the latter and Interior Minister Arctander jointly handed the King the orb, and later War Minister Olsson and the bishop handed the sword of State to his Majesty. These ceremonies were followed by the benediction.

KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Bad Accident in the Dominion Carriage Works.

A Montreal despatch says: George Fisher, foreman in the priming room of the Dominion Carriage Company's works at Brownsburg, Que., died on Saturday morning of injuries sustained in an explosion at the works on Friday. At the time of the explosion he was alone, and it is supposed he was engaged, as usual, pouring primers from one box to another, when in some unaccountable manner there was sufficient friction to produce an explosion. Fisher's body when found afterwards was filled with primers, his face and hands being badly lacerated. Almost all his clothing was torn away. He was still alive, but unconscious, and remained in that condition until next morning, when he expired. The priming room was badly wrecked.

ERROR NEARLY FATAL.

St. Thomas Woman Took Oxalic Acid in Mistake for Medicine.
