Deceased was known all over the Dominion as the author of "The Maple Leaf."

FIRE AT THORNHILL.
The Queen's Hotel, sheds and stables, Thornhill, were burned to the ground about 1.30 o'clock Monday morning. The fire was first discovered by Mr. McClure of Woodbridge, who was driving north. The tenants, Mr. and Mrs. Worvell and their four children, barely escaped with their lives. Three horses were burned to death, and the tenant lost most of his furniture. It is said there was no insurance.

OUR CREAMERY.
The new creamery on Arnold street erected by Messrs. Hopkins & Son on the site of the old building which was burned last winter, is well worth a visit by interested persons. It is built of cement with mica roof, and is practically fireproof. The vats, testers, separators, etc., are up-to-date, and a large business is being done. The manager, Mr. Fred. Lynett, ships every day most of the cream to the City by Metropolitan Railway, the cream afterwards finding its way into the ice cream parlors.

My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

The best kind of a testimonial—
"Sold for over sixty years."
