Report of the First Canadian Summer Conference

As Reported by Mrs. W. D. Atkinson, Epworth League Delegate.

The first international and inter-denominational conference of the Young People's Missionary Movement was held at the Ontario Ladies College, Whitby, July 9-15. The speakers and delegates were welcomed by the President of the college, Dr. Hare, and Mrs. Hare, and Miss Burkholder, the lady principal. These three kind people were ever on the alert for the comfort of the guests, consequently every one felt at home. The college proved an ideal spot for the conference. On entering the main part of the building was a large hall finished in walnut. The walls were prettily decorated, the floor polished and partially covered with a large Turkish rug. At the end of the hall and opposite the front door was an immense stairway running up to the first flat where there was a pretty landing with a stained glass window beautifully decorated with the coat of arms of the builder. From each side of the landing slightly narrower stairways led to the second flat.

The large drawing room at the right side of the hall was used for a reception hall. The parlors at the left were utilized by the different churches for their missionary exhibit of charts and literature. This exhibit was open each day and was a great assistance in every department of the conference. In the south part, called the new Francis' wing, was a large concert hall fitted with a pipe organ which, with the grand square piano, was a great help in brightening the singing. At the north was the Ryerson wing which was divided into class rooms equipped as a modern school. These rooms the conference used for missionary study classes.

At the front of the building was a lawn beautifully laid out in flower beds and shaded by a variety of trees. The delegates fully appreciated its beauties and during recreation spent many delightful moments. The movement was organized in 1902 and is a federation uniting the young people's departments of the various denominations at home and foreign missionary boards of Canada and the United States, and the board of managers is composed of fifteen secretaries of these boards. It deals with the problems of the young people in the local church, only through the regular church channel (i. e. the already organized mission board) and not by independent methods.

Its purpose is to deepen the spiritual life and broaden the missionary aim of the young people in the various organizations of the churches. Its main objectives are: 1st, to send out young people prepared and equipped to organize missionary study classes, and 2nd, to establish a missionary organization in the Sunday School. The order of the Whitby conference was as follows:—At six-thirty every morning the college bell rang for the guests to arise, thus allowing them the first half hour to dress and the second half hour for private devotion before breakfast at half past seven. Family prayers were conducted every morning from eight forty-five until nine by the Rev. Dr. McTavish of Toronto, and Rev. J. F. Goucher, D. D., president of the Women's College at Baltimore.

Missionary study classes were taught each morning from nine to ten by the Rev. L. E. Coukhite, D. D., of Greenwich, N. Y., and the Rev. W. E. Witter of Boston. The text book used was "The Christian Conquest of India," by James M. Thoburn. The class studied the country, its invaders and rulers, its people, their languages and religions. The teachers took great pains in showing the hand of God in dealing with this people. The normal class for training leaders was also held at the same hour under the direction of Mr. Morris W. Elmes, B. A., of New York. From ten to eleven discussion on missionary work in Sunday Schools took place under the leadership of Mr. Harry Wade Hicks, Ph. B., of Boston, Dr. F. C. Stephenson, secretary of the young people's movement, Rev. R. Douglas Fraser, D. D., and Mr. Charles Vickery, B. A., B. D. This is a field which as yet has scarcely been touched in regard to mission study and giving, though a most promising one from every point of view; being already organized without creating any new machinery for work. These discussions were followed by stirring addresses from returned missionaries who vividly showed the great need of the foreign fields. The afternoons were spent in recreation. The favorite amusements were tennis and bathing. At seven in the evening a course of bible study was taken up by Rev. G. Osborne, Troop of the Anglican church, Montreal, who in a scholarly manner dealt most impressively with the subject matter in the early chapters of Genesis, including the story of the creation and fall. He demonstrated the absolute agreement of the scriptures with results of the best scientific research as to the creation of the earth, quoting freely from eminent authority to enforce his position. No doubt it was the Christ likeness in this man that made his bible study so effective.

These bible studies were followed by two sincere missionary addresses, after which the conference broke up into denominational rallies for the purpose of encouraging co-operation between the young people and their own missionary boards. The delegates looked upon the speakers as the choice of the earth and were deeply impressed with their consecrated lives. The faces of many were radiant with the Light that has come into the world. A peculiar feature that was remarked by all was the exceeding quiet that prevailed over the whole assembly. No one could be in this conference without getting a larger vision of the beauty of the Christ life, and of the world's needs.

The following is a list of the speakers:—
Mr. Harry Wade Hicks, Ph. B., of Boston, Chairman of the International Committee.
Rev. J. McP. Scott, B. A., Chairman of the Canadian Executive Committee.
Rev. Dr. McKay, Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Missions.
Rev. D. Norman, B. A., Methodist Missionary in Japan.
Rev. Cooper Robinson, Anglican Missionary in Japan.
Rev. G. Osborne, Troop of the Anglican Church, Montreal.
Rev. Dr. Carman, General Superintendent of the Canadian Methodist Church.
Rev. Dr. Croukhitz, Missionary in Burmah of the American Baptist Church.
Rev. Dr. Fraser, Editor of the Presbyterian Sunday School Publications.
Rev. A. B. Reckie, Baptist Missionary in Bolivia.
Mr. M. W. Ehnes, B. A., of New York.

Rev. Dr. Lea, of the Church Missionary Society in Japan.
Dr. F. C. Stephenson, Secretary of the Methodist Young People's Movement.

Miss Jameson, of the Canadian Presbyterian Church, Central India. The number of delegates present was 138, distributed among the denominations as follows:—Methodists, 62; Presbyterians, 56; Congregationalists, 10; Baptists, 8; Anglicans, 2. There were twenty missionary volunteers present, nine of which surrendered themselves to this work during the conference. A mighty force was behind the yielding of these young people for the Master's service and this force was felt throughout the whole assembly. On Friday night impressive addresses were heard from nine of the volunteers, outlining the steps which led them to offer themselves for service.

A Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities. In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures. Send for and read the little book of extracts, treating of the properties and uses of the several medicinal roots that enter into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and learn why this medicine has such a wide range of application in the cure of diseases. It is sent free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol or harmful, habit-forming drug. Ingredients all printed on each bottle wrapper in plain English. Sick people, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 50 stamps for cloth-bound copy.
