NOBLE EXAMPLES

Too often we hear of women in high life referred to as leaders of fashions, leaders in social life or popular amusements, as if adaptability along the above lines was the essential qualification. Such ladies have an influence but their example may not tend to the up-lifting of humanity. There are many examples, however, of noble women throughout the civilized world who are taking active part in all works that are good and pure, and whose christian influence is felt wherever they go. The late beloved Victoria the Good was a noble example of true womanhood, honored and respected by the highest and the lowest of her subjects. Our present queen, wife of our present king, is known far and wide for her many virtues, and we were pleased to observe by The World a few days ago that to her Imperial Majesty Empress of Germany is due to a great extent that piety and philanthropy that are becoming so fashionable in Germany. Blessed is the nation the piety of whose women is beyond suspicion, and whose first desire is to assist in raising fallen humanity in this sin-cursed world.

It is safe to say that every other man you meet in Toronto this week is an odd fellow. The annual communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd-fellows is being held, and thousands of visitors are attracted from all parts of the continent.

EASTERN AND WESTERN WOMEN AS CLOTHES BUYERS.

In the course of a series of articles on "The Dress-makers of the United States" in the New Idea Woman's Magazine, a prominent woman dress-maker of New York is quoted in the October number as saying, in regard to American buying clothes at home and abroad: "In some respects the Western woman is our best customer. Those who are rich are frequently very rich. They spend their money freely and rarely haggle about prices. Indeed, they don't have time to haggle. The woman who lives in New York is a bargain hunter. We would all be bargain hunters if we had time, but we haven't. Thus it is with the Westerner. She knows correct clothes when she sees them, knows how to buy them at a fair price; but she is in New York only for short periods of time, and must consequently put her business matters through promptly. The dressmakers find her a most satisfactory customer. The Eastern woman, on the other hand, can pick and choose. Because she has money, it is no sign at all that she does not wish to get the value of what she spends. She has time and opportunity to look for the best to be had in a city full of many varieties of the best. Hence she is often hard to please, and sometimes fickle in her patronage. Moreover, it is the Easterner who most persistently patronizes Paris. Western women go abroad probably just as much as does the New Yorker, but they are, frequently at least more likely to encourage home industry than Foreign. And it is so easy for the New York woman to go to Europe! She is almost there when she is in New York!" The above magazine is 50 cents a year at THE LIBERAL OFFICE.

Cheap Watches are the expensive ones

Good workmanship and good material makes a watch cheap. Why? because it is not necessary to be constantly tinkering at the watch and paying for repairs to keep it going, that is what makes a cheap watch expensive in the end.

I sell that kind which costs a little more in the beginning but in the end they are the cheapest. My price for a first-class adjusted Movement in Nickle Case is $11.70 and it will not wear out short of fifty years.

Twenty Minutes Time Enough?

To Cure the Worst Headache From Any Cause—New Reduction Method.

Most headaches and pains yield instantly to the new Reduction Method—Dr. Shoop's Twenty Minute Headache Cure. The cause for these pains is congestion—a rushing of blood to the nerve centers—which distends the veins to nearly the bursting point. Swollen and enlarged these veins and capillaries exert an irritating pressure on the myriads of nerve branches and fibers. Then there's a pain, and finally an excruciating, ceaseless ache. This new Reduction Method disperses the blood, distributes the overflow, and directs it to the proper channels. It relaxes the nerve centers, relieves the pressure and irritation—the pains and aches disappear because their cause has been removed. You may try a thousand different remedies, but the only one which brings prompt relief and permanent cure will be successful because it reduces the congestion—it must embody the Reduction Method. Medicine has thus found a way—simple and sure, yet the only way—to thoroughly overcome these attacks of Headache and Neuralgia. The effect of Dr. Shoop's Twenty Minute Headache Cure is prompt—perfectly suited to all forms of Headache and absolutely positive in every temperament. For sale and recommended by
