He had held the position of road superintendent for fourteen years, and was very well known throughout York county. ALL OUT.

If you know of an item or a piece of news, tell us about it. That's what we want. But a newspaper man sometimes experiences more difficulty in gathering news than one would imagine. This was the case when a reporter in a neighboring town, who a few days ago was sent to write up a fire in a residence. Going to the door he inquired for the lady of the house. The maid said she was out. "Are any of the family at home?" inquired the scribe. "No, they are all out," was the reply. "Well, wasn't there a fire here last evening?" "Yes," said the hired girl, "but that's out too."

DANGEROUS ACCIDENT.

Last Thursday evening Mr. James Baker of Carville, drove out to Mr. Matthew Boyle's on Yonge street, when the latter was to accompany him to Mr. D. M. Boyle's at Langstaff. They drove out to the gate, but hearing a car they remained inside the gate until the car passed. The horse, which had been purchased at The Repository a short time before, became frightened, and turned round in the lane. The rig was upset and both men thrown out. Mr. Baker was dazed but soon recovered. Mr. Boyle was more seriously injured about the head and face. A doctor was summoned and the wounds dressed. Mr. Boyle is now able to move around again but a black eye and some bruises are reminders of the accident.

THE ART OF PLEASING

Somebody said it is better to be beautiful than to be good. But it is certainly better to be good than to be ugly. It is better to be charming. A woman cannot charm because she wants to. A man is not agreeable because he sets out to be. Quite the reverse. In effort is failure. The proper effect must, like repartee, be spontaneous and unpremeditated. It must be radiated naturally, like light and love. Books there are that pretend to tell how it is done. They do so quite as competently as grasshopper teach entomology. The ability to charm, to be agreeable, to entertain perfectly, and to be perfectly entertaining, is an art apprehensible only through influences generally parental but always prolonged. The mere technique is so volatile that it must be inhaled. Like the Mayfair intoxication, little by little, it must be absorbed.

Kings and things may abash the amateur in the art of pleasing but the artist is at home with them. He puts himself in harmony with them. In the ability to do that is the whole secret of the art of pleasing.—Edgar Saltus in the October Delineator.

Rev. Canon Cody, M.A., D.D. of Toronto together with full choir of St. Paul's Church upon the invitation of the Rev. John Gibson, M.A. are going to take part at the Annual Harvest Festival to be held at St. Mary's Church, Thornhill on Wednesday evening next the 23rd inst. Canon Cody is one of the most powerful preachers in the Anglican church.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING

The annual Harvest Thanksgiving service was held in St. Mary's Church last evening. The church was neatly decorated with vines, grain, fruits and flowers. After several selections by the choir and congregation, the reading of the scripture lessons, and prayers, the rector, Rev. John Gibson, announced with regret that the preacher, Rev. Canon Dixon, advertised to be present, was unable to reach the car in time owing to the streets in the city being blocked. Rev. Mr. Gibson, however, delivered an able and appropriate thanksgiving address basing his remarks on Deut. Chap. 8, verse 18. The choir rendered some choice selections, and Mrs. Percival Dean, one of Toronto's best contraltos, sang beautifully two solos to the delight of all present. Mr. Earle Newton and Miss Kerswill presided at the organ.

YORK W. C. T. U.

The annual meeting of the York County W. C. T. U. was held in the Christian Church, Keswick, on Thursday and Friday of last week. Delegates were present from all parts of the county and a most interesting and profitable convention was held. The day sessions were mostly spent in receiving reports from the superintendents of departments, which were most encouraging and showed an unusual amount of work done throughout the county. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. H. E. Irwin gave an interesting address on the work of the missionary in the lumber camps, and on Friday Mrs. Ormsby of Mimico, gave a vivid description of her life in the South. The meeting on Thursday evening was well attended. Short addresses were given by the resident ministers and Mrs. McKee of Barrie, President Ontario W. C. T. U. The speaker of the evening was Rev. A. P. Bruce, who handled his subject in a masterly way. A pleasing feature of this meeting was the presentation to Mrs. Cane and Miss Wiley of life membership pins as an appreciation of their work in the county. The question drawer was ably conducted by Mrs. McKee, who also presided over several of the sessions, and took charge of the election of officers which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. C. M. Hughes, Newmarket; Vice-President, Mrs. McCordick, Roach's Point; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Wiley, Richmond Hill; Recording Secretary, Miss Sheppard, Weston; Treasurer, Mrs. Abbott, Toronto Junction. After receiving reports from the committees on resolutions and plan of work, the convention was closed by prayer by Mrs. Hughes.
