IN COURT.

An old sailor was being examined in an assault case by a cute lawyer, who questioned his veracity regarding a matter of time. "You had no watch, and yet you are positive that the defendant was only ten minutes absent. I doubt if you are able to estimate ten minutes of time correctly," he said. "Try me," said the old tar.

The lawyer drew his watch from his pocket, and said, "When I call out 'Now,' you allow ten minutes to pass, and when it is up call out 'Time's up.' The old salt nodded, and the lawyer called out "Now." Slowly the time replace instantly and at our softer, warmer, passed, and the lawyer with watch in more flexible, hand tried to wheedle him into an admission that time was up. The sailor paid no heed, and exactly at the end of the ten minutes shouted "Time's up." The bewildered lawyer turned round confused at the Court's loud laughter, and his eyes lighted on the court-room clock behind him, which had assisted the old sailor in his task.

FALLING OUT OF THE HAIR.

Why Men Go Bald So Much Sooner Than Women.

A question that often arises and is seldom answered twice in the same way is as to why the hair falls out on the top of the head and not at the back or on the sides. The old-fashioned theory is that baldness occurs within the lines marked by a man's hat, and as nobody has ever offered conclusive proof to the contrary, that explanation may be the correct one.

The case was stated not so very long ago to two very intelligent barbers. One of them thought that the reason why baldness occurred at the top of the head was that the brain came closest to the surface there, and this being an age in which many brains are kept going at high tension, the abnormal amount of blood thus carried to the cranium produced a kind of fever in the upper scalp. Fevers, as is well known, often result in the falling out of the hair.

The second barber gave variety to the discussion by enlarging upon the notion that he had formed from the obser-

There is nothing at all to be ashamed of in being a domestic servant of any grade, while certain of the domestic servants in the most palatial houses hold positions which the average bank manager and his wife would envy. In many great households the head servants have servants of their own, and their quarters are as well arranged, and almost as handsomely furnished as those of their master and mistress. It is quite common, for instance, for the housekeeper in a millionaire's establishment to have a complete suite of rooms of her own, comprising reception-room, drawing-room, dining-room, three bedrooms, beautiful bath-room fitted in marble, and kitchen-scullery, and she can entertain friends, even for weeks together, just as though she were living in her own suburban villa. There is even a good stretch of well-kept gorden reserved for her use. To all the upper servants in such establishments the bare suggestion of preparing their own meals or doing any of the domestic work attaching to their own apartments would be quite horrifying. They take expensive seats at theatres, dress lavishly, and rarely condescend to walk in the streets or even to ride in a cheap public conveyance.

THE "UPPER TEN" OF SERVANTS.

HOG'S HOLLOW.

An old lady living not far from Toronto retired early one Sunday evening, leaving her daughter to entertain two city men. From time to time she called down, "Are they gone yet?" The answer was always 'No," until finally one of the visitors suggested that they answer "Yes," and hear what she would say. It was:-

"Wasn't them boys hogs on the butter at supper?"

Diner: "Waiter, this chop is very to eat it."

"Have you any children, Jones?" "Oh, yes! You know Robinson?" "Which Robinson?" "Which Robinson -- William?" "Yes." "Know him very wel. What's that got to do with it?" "I'm going to tell you. He and I had fiftyone between us." "What are you talking about? You must be crazy! What do you mean?" "It's correct. He lives on one side of the orphan asylum and I on the other!"
