To have beautiful, perfect, pink, velvet-like lips, apply at bedtime a light coating of Dr. Shoop's Green Salve. Then, next morning, notice carefully the effect. Dry, cracked, or colorless lips mean feverishness, and are as well ill appearing. Dr. Shoop's Green Salve is a soft, creamy, ointment, that will quickly correct any skin blemish or ailment. Get a free trial box at our store and be convinced. Large, Glass Jars, 25 cents. W. A. Sanderson.

A RARE ANIMAL
The following paragraph, taken from the Northern Advance of Barrie, Dec. 6, refers to a former resident of this locality:—A fine specimen of black fox was taken near Churchill by Walter Ledgerwood, and the pelt now adorns the show room of Messrs. Simmons & Co. Mr. Simmons, who, it is understood, paid a tidy sum for it, values the skin at $500. The black fox is now seldom met with, and the rarity of the fur makes it a much sought article by fanciers. The pelt in question is as large as a wolf skin.

ASH-KEFFER.
On the 5th of December, at the Lutheran Parsonage, Sherwood, Mr. John Ash, son of Mr. Valentine Ash, and Miss Ida Amelia White, daughter of Mr. Hiram White, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. Mr. Alfred Ash and Miss Sarah White were witnesses of the ceremony. After the marriage the party retired to a sumptuous repast given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper. The old chums of John serenaded very heartily, though the snow somewhat dimmed the sound. Good wishes to them in their paddling through life's ocean is their friend's desire—God bless them.

MEETING OF MINISTERS.
The regular monthly meeting of the Vaughan Ministerial Association was held on Monday afternoon at the parsonage. The paper was given by Rev. A. P. Brace, B. D., on "The Fragments that Remain re Higher Criticism." The members of the Association were pleased to compliment Mr. Brace on the very excellent paper. The visiting brethren were entertained at tea by Mrs. Brace, and many of them stayed for the Rally in the evening. Rev. Mr. Wisswaesser brought much light also to the subject taken by Mr. Brace.

ARTICLES STOLEN
A short time ago when Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McCague, West of Elgin Mills, returned from the barn after doing the evening chores they found that some person had entered the house, and made away with a number of articles. Among articles missed were a watch and chain and Mrs. McCague's engagement ring and wedding ring. Suspicion was cast on a person who had worked on the farm during the summer. As Mr. McCague had the the young man's address he went to his stopping place in the city and disclosed his suspicions. His trunk was opened, and the watch and chain were found at the bottom of the trunk. There was no trace of the rings. The person suspected was not discovered, but the case has been put in the hands of the detectives.

FOR ST. MARY'S CHURCH.
The Christmas Fair and Entertainment in the Temperance Hall last evening under the auspices of St. Mary's church, was a pleasing success. The booths contained many pretty and useful articles which found a ready sale. The tulip bed was soon robbed of its hidden treasures, and for hours enthusiastic anglers continued to haul their shiny victims from the depths of the fish pond. The picture gallery was an attraction for those of an artistic nature, and the advertisement contest room was a popular resort. The pastor, Rev. J. Gibson, presided at the entertainment. Those who favored the assembly with selections were Miss Switzer, Miss Smart and Miss Scott. In the advertisement contest Miss Switzer and Miss Edwards were equal; Messrs. A. Glass and W. Hall were also equal, and Mr. W. Lawson won the intermediate prize.

ADVENTURE WITH A BEAR
Years ago to see a bear in the vicinity of Richmond Hill was not a very singular occurrence. But of late years bruin seldom presents himself in our midst. For several months past, however, it has been more than rumored that a black bear had frequently been seen within the limits of our corporation. Last Monday tracks were seen in the snow on the Hopper estate, and that information was conveyed to Mose Ransom, the village barber, with a request that the latter superintend a party to endeavor to shoot the saucy quadruped before he could make his escape. Mose speedily got the loan of Isaac Patterson's breech loading Stephen's rifle, and started on his venturesome task. By this time the animal had been induced to enter Hopper's stable which was at once surrounded by local sports. After making a careful survey Mose took deadly aim, the ball entered the head just below the ear, and black bruin fell with a growl, dying in a few minutes. The animal was one year old and weighed 180 lbs. It was brought from the north last spring when it was only a small cub. The carcass now hangs in Hopper's butcher shop. Mr Hopper has sold it to Puddy Bros., and will deliver it in Toronto to-morrow.—English papers please copy.
