

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, ONT., March 7, 1907

The death of Dr. Oronhyatekha, Supreme Chief Ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters, occurred at Savannah, Georgia, Saturday evening. He was formerly Chief of the Mohawk Indians, and for the last quarter of a century was a notable figure in Canada.

Mr. C. C. Robinson, a well-known lawyer in Toronto, Solicitor for Railway committee of the legislature, and formerly Solicitor for the County of York, died suddenly last Saturday. Deceased was a grandson of the late Sir John Beverley Robinson who was formerly Attorney-General of Upper Canada, and a prominent figure in the public life and legal circles of Toronto.

Mr. Blain of Peel, on Monday introduced in the House of Commons his motion in favor of repression of cigarette smoking in Canada. The house discussed the matter in a very leisurely way, the only really point of interest in the debate being the Prime Minister's statement that there could be no hope of considering a bill such as proposed this session, as he hoped that the session would conclude early next month.

We are pleased to publish elsewhere in this paper a copy of an Open Letter which Mr. H. E. Irwin of Weston has sent to the warden of the County of the York, and the Mayor of the City of Toronto. The letter plainly shows that the country surrounding the city does not share the prosperity it should from the fact that Toronto and The Radial Railway Company so far have not come to terms as to the admission of the radial lines to the market and heart of the City. Mr. Irwin does not uphold or defend either the position taken by the City or the Railway, but points out the injustice both to the citizens of Toronto and the County of York.

It will be seen by the minutes of the last Village Council meeting, in another column, that a Public meeting is called, to be held in the Lorne Hall on the evening of Monday, 18th inst. The object of the meeting is to discuss the by-law to be submitted to the rate-payers to raise $1,000 for the purpose of widening Centre street east, leading to the C. N. O. station, and for other purposes. We trust that every ratepayer will see his way clear to vote for the by-law. Village taxes have never been high, and we can well afford to vote the money asked for. We hope to see Richmond Hill grow during the next few years, but if it does we must be prepared to spend a little more than formerly on improvements. Let every ratepayer attend the Public meeting on the 18th inst.

JEFFERSON.

On Saturday afternoon, February 23, a very pleasant family gathering, including the sons and daughters and grandchildren of Mr. Jas. Legge, assembled at "Hillcrest," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Legge, to celebrate a birthday party. At seven o'clock about twenty-five guests sat down to a sumptuous repast, and after justice had been done to all the good things, a birthday cake was cut, which consisted of four stories, each story representing one of the celebrated birthdays. A toast was proposed to the grandfather, who responded in a most able manner by expressing his gratitude at being able to celebrate his 75th birthday surrounded by so many members of his family, and also that he would be spared to again enjoy a real family re-union. The evening was spent in music and songs, and all dispersed with the feeling that the anniversary would be kept by this family for many more years to come.
