IN MEMORIAM.

On Thursday afternoon, March 28, 1907, after a few hours' illness, Mrs. Ann Lynett, widow of the late David Lynett, quietly passed away from the scenes of her earthly labors. It is not quite a year since her genial and faithful husband was laid to rest, and as neighbors, how much we have missed him; and now, another visitation has removed the faithful and devoted partner of his joys and sorrows. It is not my purpose to write anything biographical, but, simply as a neighbor, to voice the sentiments of the community in a slight tribute of respect to our departed friend. In country places there is a wide range of acquaintance of a casual kind, but there is an inner circle—those who mutually assist at "threshing," "butchering," and the many other things that bring near neighbors together in a farming community. It is there we get a more intimate and all-round knowledge of each other than could otherwise be obtained. For over thirty years this has been our privilege, and when I recall the scenes of those bygone years the tears, unbidden, fill my eyes. If I were asked to describe the late Mrs. Lynett accurately I would refer you to the last chapter of Proverbs, from verse 10 to the end. Truly, as a wife and mother, as a neighbor and friend, she has filled her place nobly and well, and her life will be a fragrant memory in the minds of all who knew her. When sickness entered our homes she came with sympathetic heart and willing hands, to help in time of need. She loved peace and friendship and no disturbing element ever proceeded from her tongue, but, on the contrary, she always tried to pour "oil on the troubled waters," and take the best possible view of people's motives and actions. A quiet, modest, unassuming woman, she shone her brightest in the home and hearts of her husband and family; no duty too arduous, no number of steps too many to minister to their comfort and happiness. Home will never be the same again, but may her example be copied, and may her memory ever be fresh in their hearts.

"What is home without a mother?"

No one knows till she is gone,
Till the tired hands are folded,
And the toils of life are done,

Till the sweet-toned voice is silent,
Till you see the vacant chair;
Home a scene of desolation—
Mother's missing everywhere.

"What is home without a mother?"
A forlorn and lonesome spot,
Scene of sacred, sweetest memories,
Which can never be forgot.

—A NEIGHBOR.

The subject "Resolved that Environment is more conducive to Success in Life than Ideals" will be debated at the Epworth League Social on Friday evening. The affirmative will be taken by Rev. A. P. Brace of Richmond Hill and Rev. Jos E. Wilson of Maple, and the negative by Mr. R. A. Shaw of Richmond Hill and Mr. J. G. McDonald of Maple. Rev. H. A. Fish of Kleinburg, will act as chairman, and will also sing.

On Wednesday of last week Mr. J. Malloy and Miss Ida M. Rumble were married in Toronto, by Rev. Isaac Couch. A short honeymoon was spent at Barrie and other northern places. On Tuesday evening the Maple Methodist choir, of which Miss Malloy was a member, assembled at her home and presented her with an address and an oak rocker. The young couple will reside near Nobleton. They have the best wishes of all their friends for their future happiness.

Mr. Roy Henry and Mr. Reesor visited friends in Beamsville over Sunday.

Miss M. Morrison spent from Friday till Tuesday visiting in Toronto. Quite a number of visitors from Toronto and other places visited in the village over the holidays.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clubine was the scene of a pretty double wedding on Wednesday afternoon, March 27, when their daughters, Mary E. and Clara L., were united in the bonds of holy matrimony by the Rev. G. McKinley, pastor of the brides, to Mr. J. R. Wells of the firm of Wells & Beatty, Palmyra, N. Y., and Mr. G. A. Lowery, eldest son of Mr. A. Lowery of Thornhill, Ont. At 3 p. m. the brides entered the drawing room, escorted by their father (while the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March were being played) and by whom they were given away. Miss Mary was very prettily dressed in a point d' esprit over cream tulle and silk, trimmed with sequins and pearls and the usual bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of roses.

Miss Clara looked charming in a cream silk dress with trimmings of embroidered chiffon and also wore a bridal veil and carried a bouquet of cream roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Florence E. Clubine, sister of the brides, who wore a sky-blue silk mull with trimmings of liberty satin ribbon and valenciennes lace, and Miss Ida Kerfoot of Minesing, cousin of the brides, who looked very pretty in dresden muslin, with lace trimmings.

Mr. Wells was supported by Mr. Harold Kerfoot of Minesing, and Mr. Lowery by Mr. Sidney Fisher of Markham.

The bridal party stood under a white arch decorated with smilax, with a background of ferns.

Mr. Wells' gift to the bride was a crescent of pearls and diamonds, and Mr. Lowery's a long gold watch chain.

The number of guests who partook of the dejeuner was fifty-five.

Mrs. Wells' going-away dress was a grey tweed with Parisian trimmings with hat to match. Mrs. Lowery's going-away costume was reseda green cloth with silk braid and Parisian trimmings with hat to match.

The presents were numerous and useful, and showed the high esteem in which the brides are held by their friends. The invited guests were: Mrs. Oakley and family, Los Angeles, California; Mr. T. Brown Laughlin, Manitoba; Mr. and Mrs. McBean, McGregor, Manitoba; Mr. and Mrs. H. Lewis, New York; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis, Newark; Miss S. Wells, Clifton Springs, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark and family, Walsworth, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. R. Wells and family, Percyville, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Clubine, Newmarket; Mrs. E. Clubine and family, Newmarket; Mrs. Stephens, Newmarket; Mr. and Mrs. A. Flint, Newmarket; Mr. and Mrs. Wisner, Schomberg; Mr. and Mrs. G. Watson, Laskay; Mr. and Mrs. J. Do You Think For Yourself?

Or, do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

U. S. You are an intelligent thinking woman. In need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest medicine of known composition, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famed medicine is advised.

No other medicine for woman's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice. Is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authoritative professional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any one sending name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
