One Fact Counts

more than a thousand insinuations. You want facts when you have a hard-earned dollar and want to invest it. It was no guess work that earned that dollar and you want no guess work in spending it. You want to know the Goods, you want to know the Price, and you must have confidence in the dealer that the goods are the same on the inside as on the surface; that they wear as long as you say; that the quality is there, and so on. This is the import of the ad—our past dealings will inspire the confidence. Follow these items closely. Fetch the ad. to the store with you. We have everything we advertise and have plenty for all.
