

MAKING CANADIAN HISTORY.

The week last past will prove a memorable one for Canada. It saw the conclusion of the Colonial Conference in London, at which Canada's gifted premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, was honored upon every occasion, who so ably represented Great Britain's greatest colony and upheld the best of Canada's traditions.

It saw the first step accomplished towards the establishments of a new fast mail service between England, Australia and New Zealand, via Canada.

It gave to the country the latest information with respect to the cost and route of that great national undertaking, the Georgian Bay Canal, of which Sir Wilfrid is on record as saying, "It shall be built."

It saw publication of figures which prove that the trade of Canada has increased by the enormous sum of $92,128,995 during the past year.

It permitted the finance department to announce that the fiscal returns for the year last past would show a surplus of $18,000,000 after paying off nearly $10,000,000 of the public debt.

It welcomed the announcement by the premier that the home government should seriously consider the injustice to Canadian interests by reason of the cattle embargo which obtained in England against Canadian cattle, and the response by Mr. Asquith, chancellor of the exchequer, that the question should be seriously considered by the Board of Agriculture.

It saw general contentment, honest administration of public affairs, a condition of prosperity which makes of Canada the most desirable field for immigration, and immigrants arriving by the thousand.

It saw the settlement of the most distressing of the industrial disputes between employer and employed, and a disposition to obey the law with respect to the less differences which have arisen in some localities.

That the proposal to raise a fund for the education of Longboat, the Indian, who ran the greatest race on record, should end in failure, does not do credit to the citizens of Toronto, and especially to the class known as "sports." Dr. Oronhyatekha, who passed away a few months ago, would, in all probability, not have proven a credit to his race and country had he not been assisted when a boy by the then Prince of Wales, our present king. Longboat has shown to the world that his feet are thoroughly educated. Toronto, his present home, should not miss the chance of educating his head.

A number of the City papers seem to take a delight in casting reflections on the character of the farmers in this community. A few weeks ago The Word had a serious of articles, the object of which seemed to be to belittle the tillers of the soil. And last Saturday's Globe in referring to the large number of British immigrants now arriving, spoke disparagingly of farmers who tried to take advantage of the newcomers. If it can be shown that any particular farmer—say John Smith or William Jones—ill-treats or mis-uses his farm hands or domestics it is proper to expose him, but to speak slightly without discrimination about the farmers as a body is a poor piece of business. Both The World and The Globe must know that hundreds of open for farm laborers, but the latter good homes in this county are now would prefer working in shops and factories.

The editor of The Canadian Mute, a paper published at Belleville, wishes to get the names and addresses of deaf children in this Province who are not attending the Deaf and Dumb institution in that City. The following sentences are contained in the appeal. Those interested will kindly assist the editor:

"We are desirous of obtaining the names and addresses of the parents of all such children, and we earnestly appeal to the readers of these lines to assist us in securing this information. Clergymen of all denominations, physicians, assessors, inspectors of schools and public school teachers are in an especially favorable position to assist us in this direction, and by so doing they would be conferring an inestimable boon to these silent members of the community. Our desire is to enter into correspondence with the parents of all deaf children with the hope of inducing them to send them to our school at Belleville, where they may receive such training and instruction as will fit them to become useful, self-supporting and respected citizens. It is a lamentable thing that any deaf boy or girl should be deprived of the advantages of such an education when it is freely provided for them by the Province."

A correspondent writes: "Never was there a more dog in the manger policy than that adopted by the Metropolitan Railway; they cannot charge what they wish and therefore they won't let all ride who would. They absolutely refuse to give an excursion rate on any occasion, thus robbing their own coffers. Not only have they refused rates for 24th of May and other holidays, but when there are religious and other conventions they prefer to carry six at two cents a mile where they could carry scores without an extra car by giving a special rate. It is very suggestive of the fable of the man who warned the frozen serpent in his breast only to be rewarded by his poisonous fangs."

THE RACE WEEK ATTRACTION.

The Toronto Press Club has a Strong Production.

The theatrical attraction that will draw most attention in Toronto during the spring race meet is the production of "The Importance of Being Earnest" an English comedy that is to be seen at the Princess on May 30, 31 and June 1st. The Toronto Press Club is producing the play with Mr. Douglas A. Patterson and Mr. Robert Stuart Pigott as the leading men. Both are seasoned actors of prominence on the American stage and are supported by a very competent cast including Miss Berenice Parker, a well-known artist. The place play will be preceded by "Gringoire, the Ballad Monger a clever playlet illustrating the times of Louis XI of France. The Press Club's annual theatrical performance has become a social function of great importance in Toronto and the coming production promises to exceed its predecessors in artistic quality. On Friday night, the officers of the Canadian Press Association will receive their fellow craftsmen from all over the Province.

EXHIBITION PRIZE LIST.

CHANGES AND ALTERATIONS.

In Horse Section Canadian Breeder put on Fair Footing with Importer.

The prize list of the Canadian National Exhibition of Toronto is just out. Many changes are made, making it more convenient for reference by exhibitors. The regulations are changed so that all animals exhibited in the live stock sections must be registered in the Canadian Herd Book registers.

In the horse section the Canadian breeder is put on a fair footing with the importer. The directors have endeavored in every way to protect and encourage Canadian bred horses. The prizes in the breeding classes of the horse section have been increased over $600. Several new classes have been added, especially the one for strings of ten horses, which is expected to be one of the features of this year's exhibit. In the harness, hunter and jumping classes the prize list remains the same as last year, including the King Edward Hotel Cup, which is again being given for the best horse in the runabout class.

In the speed division the prizes have been increased by $1,000. A new class had been added, providing for horses that are not fast enough for the "free-for-all," but that are to speedy for the 230 classes. The conditions are the same.

In the cattle section A. T. Gordon of Combscatteway, Scotland, has consented to judge the Shorthorns, which is the largest class in this section. The prizes in the Herefords and the Holsteins have been considerably increased.

The general arrangement throughout the prize list this year is alphabetical, so that the finding of any section is made easy. The aggregate amount of the prizes is $39,000, not including the $3,000 given in the speed department. This is the largest purely agricultural prize list on the American Continent.
