DON'T WABBLE.
There is one sort of man there is no place for in the universe, and that is the wabblers—the man on the fence, who never knows where he stands, who is always slipping about, dreaming, apologizing, never daring to take a firm stand on anything. Everybody despises him. He is a weakling. Better a thousand times have the reputation of being eccentric, peculiar, and cranky even, than never to stand for anything.—Success Magazine.

On Sunday, July 7, there will be re-opening services at the Methodist church. Sermons will be preached, morning at 10.30 and evening at 7, by the Rev. J. C. Speer, D. D., an old pastor, who has this year received the highest honor in the gift of the Toronto Conference being elected its president. Special music will be rendered by the choir at each service. At the close of the morning service a special fellowship service will be held, conducted, it is expected, by a former pastor. At the close of the evening service the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

NORTH YORK LIBERALS.
The picnic held in the town park, Aurora, Friday afternoon last, in support of the candidature of Mr. Fred Underhill for a seat in the Legislature as representative of North York, was attended by a large number of people. The affair was very successful though the crowd was forced to seek shelter for a time in the drill hall owing to the heavy rain. Able addresses were delivered by Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, Minister of Justice; Hon. R. Lemieux, Postmaster General; Hon. G. P. Graham, Liberal Leader of Ontario; Mr. Fred Underhill, Mr. F. G. Inwood, Secretary General Reform Association of Ontario, and others. Mr. H. S. Cane of Newmarket presided.

AN UP-TO-DATE MACHINE.

A man now-a-days may as well be out of business altogether if he does not keep up with the times. Mr. Geo. McDonald came to that conclusion, so purchased a latest-improved Pearson lock-stitch wax-thread sewing machine, which will do work equal to the best hand work, and much better than the ordinary harness-maker of to-day can do, if the right kind of leather is used, and the machine properly handled. For the best class of work, either light or heavy, the machine will do it better and neater in every way than can be done by the hand. Mr. McDonald will be pleased to show those who call at his shop what the new machine can do.
