The anniversary services at St. Andrew's church last Sunday were well attended. Rev. Mr. Herbison preached two eloquent sermons and special music was rendered by the choir.

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. R.
Wilson, of Vellore, took place here on Tuesday afternoon. The deceased was the eldest daughter of Mr. Thos. Rankin of Woodbridge. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Wilson, and his two daughters and four little boys in the loss of a devoted wife and mother.

No one need be behind time now in going to work as there is a new whistle on Mr. Pollock's mill. It sounds quite business like.

Miss Margaret Johnston of Toronto spent several days with her friend Miss Etta Richardson.

Miss M. McKinnon of Toronto is visiting at Dr. Logan's.

The berry season has opened and there is every promise of a good crop.

Mr. J. T. and Master Carl Saigoo have gone for a week's visit to friends at Drayton.

Mr. Edmund Brown and Miss Bertie Brown of McKeesport are visiting with their sister, Mrs. H. C. Bailey.

Headford.

The Epworth League purpose holding an Ice Cream Social on the church lawn Saturday evening of this week, 27th inst. All will be made welcome.

The crops in this section of the country are looking fine. Fields which a month ago were backward now present a rich appearance with waving yellow grain. The hay crop has also been satisfactory, and much of it has already been housed. Fruit is plentiful, and the quality is extra good.

The funeral of the late Cyrus Mapes took place from his home on Friday.
An impressive service was held at the house by the pastor, Rev. A. P. Braze, after which interment took place in the Headford cemetery. Deceased had lived at Headford for over fifty years and was highly respected. For many years he carried on business as a carpenter, but of late years took great interest in fruit and bees. The funeral was large, many old friends attending from a distance. The near relatives who were present were as follows:—his son Walter, wife and little daughter from Cleveland; a son Lewis, and wife, Hamilton; his daughters, Mrs. John Ashman, Lambton Mills and Miss Ella Mapes, Toronto; a nephew, Mr. Marshall Leek, Port Washington; a brother Albert, Toronto; and a sister, Mrs. Blake, and daughter, Toronto Junction. Other members of the family are Frank in Sud-bury; William in Buffalo; Truman in Richmond Hill; and Hattie at home.

ORANGEISM IN CANADA.

When and by whom was it introduced into Upper Canada? It originated out of a faction-fight in 1795 between the "Peep-o'-day Boys" and the "Defenders" at a place called "The Diamond" in the county of Armagh.
The victorious faction found it necessary to change its name from the Peepo'-day Boys to that of "Orangemen," hence the origin of the Orange Association in Ireland. But why and by whom it was imported to Canada is a question worthy of answer. Can any of the "brethren" give the required information?

DEATH OF SIMON MILLER.

The following account of the death of the late Simon Miller, brother of Mr. Henry Miller of this village, is taken from the World of Monday:—
"The death of Simon Miller, one of the oldest and most respected residents of Unionville, took place here Sunday morning, July 21. Deceased was in his 81st year, and has resided here some 20 years, coming from Scarborough Township. The late Mr. Miller has been in ill-health for some time and his demise was not unexpected. Deceased was born on lot 28, con. 4 Scarborough Township, near Milliken's Corners and was a son of Henry Miller, whose father came from Pennsylvania, U. S. in April of 1793, one of the pioneers of York County. The late Mr. Miller was a justice of the peace, and for six years a member of Scarborough Township council. He is survived by a widow, two sons and three daughters. They are William on the homestead, and Henry of Unionville. The surviving daughters are Mrs. Francis of Thornhill, and Rebecca and Edith at home. In political life the late Mr. Miller was an enthusiastic Liberal and prominently identified with the Presbyterian church of which he was an official." The funeral took place on the following Tuesday morning to Knox Church Cemetery at Agincourt, the family burial ground.

WHY ADVERTISE?

It does not pay to advertise say some merchants who have done but little of it and that without keeping it up. The incident of the boy and the pump illustrates the matter very well. The boy was sent after a pail of water. He poured in the priming and poured out as much as he poured in. Then he stopped to rest and the priming ran down. After some time of alternate pumping and resting he concluded it did not pay to pump and quit in disgust. The merchant who does not believe in advertising does it like the boy did the pumping. He advertised a few weeks, then stopped awhile and allowed the people to forget him and his business before he advertised again and then concluded advertising didn't pay.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weakness and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.
If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy or known composition, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equaled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take candy.
