The parrot, that garrulous pet, is generally supposed to have the monopoly of the power of talking among birds, but, as a matter of fact, the parrot's voice is decidedly inferior to that of the mynah. There are always examples of these birds in the large aviary of the London Zoo, and they repeat various phrases with great clearness of utterance. Curiously enough, the hen has a gruff voice, while the cock speaks in a clear, high tone like that of a child. The mynahs can be easily provoked into showing off their power of speech, and will greet the visitor with "Good morning" in response to his salutations. The mynah is a kind of starling, and this latter bird is well known for its imitative powers.

Are your corns harder to remove than those that others have had? Have they not had the same kind? Have they not been cured by using Holloway's Corn Cure? Try a bottle.

Little Ethel—"Mamma, don't people ever get punished for telling the truth?" Mamma—"No, dear. Why do you ask?" Little Ethel—"Cause I just looked the last three tarts in the pantry, and I thought I'd better tell you!"

Its Power Grows With Age.—How many medicines loudly blazoned as panaceas for all human ills have come and gone since Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil was first put upon the market? Yet it remains, doing more good to humanity than many a preparation more highly vaunted and extending its virtues wider and wider and in a larger circle every year. It is the medicine of the masses.

A wealthy lady gave a reception in honor of her daughter's birthday, for which music was furnished by a popular orchestra. The leader of this orchestra was a violinist who had won social as well as professional success, and the hostess evidently wished to display her knowledge of this fact. When the evening was half over, the butler approached the musicians, who were having a short rest, and in his loftiest manner said, referring to a paper in his hand:—"The violin eats in the dining-room; the rest of the instruments in the pantry."

ACCUSTOMED TO IT.

"Yes," said Rivett, "I went to a 5 o'clock tea with my wife yesterday." "Gracious!" exclaimed Chumley, "didn't it nearly drive you crazy?" "Oh, no; I don't mind it. I own a boiler shop, you know."

ARMY PIGEONS ABOLISHED.

Birds Sold and Lofts Destroyed by Order of English War Office.

For some reason as yet unexplained the British War Department has abolished its carrier pigeons.

Many of the birds were presented by patriotic pigeon owners, and under the direction of Captain Allatt interesting and valuable experiments have been carried on. The birds have now been sold and the lofts destroyed.

In Germany and France the number of pigeons kept for military purposes was never greater than now, and the English naval authorities still maintain their lofts at Portsmouth and Devonport, under Lieutenant Barrett.

As it will be many years before small, scattered sections of an army can carry their own wireless telegraph apparatus, it is difficult to assign a reason for the action of the military authorities.

A Recognized Regulator.—To bring the digestive organs into symmetrical working is the aim of physicians when they find a patient suffering from stomachic irregularities, and for this purpose they can prescribe nothing better than Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which will be found a pleasant medicine of surprising virtue in bringing the refractory organs into subjection and restoring them to normal action, in which condition only can they perform their duties properly.

"All that she lacks to make her attractive is either beauty or money." "Yes, and all that Switzerland lacks in the way of a navy is a few seaports and some boats!"

ITCH, Mange, Prairie Scratches and every form of contagious Itch in human or animals cured in 30 minutes by Wolford's Sanitary Lotion. It never fails. Sold by all druggists.

"Don't be afraid, Harold," the lady said; "that lion is stuffed." "Yes," said Harold, "but maybe he isn't stuffed so full that he couldn't find room for a little boy like me."

If attacked with cholera or summer complaint of any kind and send at once for a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial and use it according to directions. It acts with wonderful rapidity in subduing that dreadful disease that weakens the strongest man and that destroys the young and delicate. Those who have used this cholera medicine say it acts promptly and never fails to effect a thorough cure.

"I always try to practice charity," said Miss Passay. "My motto is, 'Do unto all men as you would have them do unto you.'" "Gracious!" exclaimed Miss Pert. "You don't really kiss them, do you?"

Spots and blotches on the face and neck are often merely signs of foul blood. Apply Weaver's Scraper to obtain immediate relief and take Weaver's Syrup to rid the blood of pollution.

"You're extravagant," said the uncle. "These cigars are a lot better than the ones I smoked at your age." "Yes," muttered his nephew, in a ill-concealed aside, "they're a lot better than those you smoke now."

Suffer no More.—There are thousands who live miserable lives because dyspepsia dulls the faculties and shadows existence with the cloud of depression. One way to dispel the vapors that beset the victims of this disorder is to order them a course of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are among the best vegetable pills known, being easy to take and are most efficacious in their action. A trial of them will prove this.

NERVOUS.

"Do you think it makes one nervous to eat much meat?" asked the valetudinarian.

"Yes," answered the economist; "if he thinks about the price."

Chemists Have Trouble in getting iron into such a state that the system will absorb, and benefit by it. In "Ferrovim," the best tonic, perfection has been achieved. It builds and strengthens.

"Bob, I promised you a bicycle if you passed your examinations, and here you have failed completely. What in the world have you been doing with all your time?" "I've been learning to ride a bicycle, father!"

The healthy glow disappearing from the cheek and moaning and restlessness at night are sure symptoms of worms in children. Do not fail to get a bottle of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; it is an effectual medicine.

EMERGENCY REMEDIES.

If poisoned, take mustard or salt, table-spoon.

In a cup of cold water and swallow right soon.

For burns, try borax and a wet bandage, too.

If blistered, then oil and dry flannel will do.

For children's convulsions warm baths are the rule.

With castor oil dose, too, but keep the head cool.

Give syrup of ipecac when croup is in store.

For fainting stretch patient right flat on the floor.

To soak in hot water is best for a sprain. Remember these rules and 'twill save you much pain.

THEIR ORDERS.

"My friend Jinks says he can't catch up with his orders." "Is he a manufacturer?" "Oh, no; just a married man with five grown daughters."

DISASTERS FROM FIREWORKS.

Five Explosions Occurred in Italy in One Month.

Fatal accidents in fireworks factories are so alarmingly on the increase in Italy that politicians are being inundated with petitions from all quarters to devise special preventive legislation. As is generally known, Italy has an enormous inland trade in fireworks, and in the southern provinces and Sicily pyrotechnic displays form an indispensable item in every sort of public rejoicing.

During last month alone five terrible explosions were recorded through carelessness in the process of manufacture, costing in each case the lives of from one to five persons. The other day two further mishaps swelled the list of victims.

Several hundredweights of gunpowder blew up at a factory in the commune of Saint Antonio, in the suburbs of Naples, killing three workmen and inflicting fatal injuries on seven others. The explosion was so terrific as to set fire to a big storage of hemp nearly a mile away.

The other disaster occurred at Lecce, where a large consignment of fireworks ready for a popular festival, exploded. Of three brothers, partners in the firm, who happened to be standing near, one was blown to pieces and the other two were horribly lacerated.
