

The Bishop of London was the guest of the Canadian Club on Monday. He delivered an address in which he dealt with the secrets of a man's influence over his fellows, and furnished the key to his own remarkable individuality.

A cable has been received by Hon. T. Massey, Ottawa, Japanese consul-general from Tokio, giving him information on the attitude of the public in regard to the Vancouver disturbance. It says: "The feeling, in spite of the character of the disturbance being much graver than that of San Francisco, is throughout, most friendly to Canada."

We take it for granted that parents are as much if not more interested in their children at school as are the teachers, and no teacher takes delight in a pupil's failure. It should do no harm at this season of the year to call the attention of the parents to the facts of the case, and urgently request that nothing be allowed to interfere with the progress of their children in school work.

At a time when the leader of a political party is touring the country and inviting people to place the government in its hands, one is inclined to reflect upon the general condition of the public welfare and inquire whether affairs are distressing or the reverse. There does not appear to be any reason for a change of government, apart entirely from the undesirable alternative of turning affairs over to a party whose former record is not yet forgotten.
