

WEDDING BELLS.

A very pretty house wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Reuben Pugsley, North Toronto, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 30, when her third daughter Elvira was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. Watt of Fairbank. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. N. Wellwood of Eglinton. The bride was attired in point d'Esprit over silk and looked very pretty. She was attended by her sister Estelle, who was gowned in white eolienne over pink with pink velvet trimmings. Little Olive Pugsley of Sutton acted as ring bearer. The bride carried a bunch of white chrysanthemums. Mr. Alf Pugsley of Toronto, cousin of the bride, efficiently waited on the groom. The ceremony was performed under an arch of carnations and chrysanthemums. The house was profusely decorated with carnations, palms and roses. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about sixty invited guests, after which all sat down to a lastfully and elaborately prepared repast. The presents to the bride were costly and almost innumerable. The groom's present to the bride was a gold hoop bracelet set with pearls, to the bridesmaid a pearl ring, to the ring bearer a gold locket and chain, and to Miss Lena Pugsley who played the wedding march a pearl brooch. The bride was given away by her brother Mr. John Pugsley of Cookstown. The festivities of the evening being ended the happy couple left amid showers of rice and good wishes, for a short honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Watt will reside at Fairbank.

PUBLIC LIBRARY CONCERT.

Every performer whose name appeared on the bills was in his and her place at the concert Thanksgiving evening in aid of the Public Library, and the result was a most evenly balanced and enjoyable programme. The only disappointment was that more of our citizens did not turn out and pack the Masonic Hall. There was nothing of a trashy nature, and there was plenty of variety in the programme which consisted of high-class vocal selections, interesting recitations and splendid concert solos. The following contributed vocal selections:—Misses Mary Trench, Alexina Mortson, Ethel Switzer, Ida Glass, J. McClelland, G. Donovan, H. Mitchell, D. M. Derry, H. Sanderson and W. A. Wright, and all were well received. The piano accompaniments were played with good effect by Mr. Earle Newton and Miss E. Donovan. Miss Jean Scott gave several recitations, and Miss Ida

Glass also made her debut as an elocutionist. Mr. E. Mason also delighted everybody with his cornet solos. As the programme was lengthy the chairman, Mr. P. G. Savage, could not allow encores. This was a little disappointing as many of the artists did so well the audience would like to have been favored with a repetition of some of the selections. Before closing, Mr. Savage, on behalf of the Library Board, expressed his thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who had so kindly assisted in the entertainment, everyone having come absolutely free of charge. The entertainment closed with the National Anthem.
